

This is proof how Jews are destroying all nations to achieve their goal: to rule whole world. It's on Croatian language and I translated it on English. But all this discovered and translated to Croatian language Mladen Schwartz (I don't know how this leaked out, he got this, God knows) – Croatian philosopher and publicist, fighter against globalism and communism died in 2017 AD at age 70) he discovered this and then Jews destroyed his life (like they do to all other goyim, he could not open bank account!) who died ill in extreme poverty without government social aid.

(this is translated to English from page 43 to page 259 in book – (or from 23 to 131 in PDF) so where meeting of Elders of Zion – their evil plan for whole world in 21st century -begins and ends. You can translate using google translator what I haven't translated – introduction from pages 15-41 and addition from page 261-284, Here is link in PDF in Croatian language

Goy, Goyim = cattle= it means all non Jews

Oasis = Israel

god Holo= it means really “god” that Jews worship =Holocaust

I you find some strange words like this one: “papabiles” – those are words there's no translation from croatian to english. For all of those words I find on internet alternative similar words to them, but for some words like this one I haven't found. You'll need about 5 hours to read all this.

PLEASE SHARE because there's no this on internet, no one knows !!!

The New Protocols of the Elders of Zion for the XXI Century or How to destroy the World

I.

ABEL or WHAT WE DID

We have our plan before us; our way is marked, and we cannot move away from him, so that we do not expose ourselves to the destruction of several centuries of our work. To achieve this goal, it was good for use to use a big trick. If today, any government raises it's voice against us, that happens only formally and at our instigation, because we need their anti-Semitism.

SUPREME SAGE ABEL: Dear brothers, sages of Zion, today is a big day. I don't know if you are still at all aware of his reach. Today, therefore, on this day, full 100 years ago, we started there in Alemansko the triangle of the hated us Counts of Ceringen, on to their cloudy Rhine, their councils dedicated to mastery the coming century. And here, I am proud today to declare that the 20th century lies under our feet!

And with perhaps even greater pride, I assert that we can hold our meeting here, in the middle of our Oasis and her inalienable Capital City, under the shadow of Zion, where are the ruins of the Temple!

The assembled Sages accompanied these self-conscious and the holy words of his primus inter pares to the delighted with cheers and prolonged applause.

ABEL: The twentieth century was dark and bloody - let me say right away - it happened the way we did outlined. There were few deviations, in the next period we will fix it, finish the work for us and complete the job!

THE WISE MENS approvingly.

ABEL: Brother, today is a celebration, and that is why we will all speak, everyone participate in summing up our magnificent a century work. Anyone who wants to speak, let me know. I'll let go you to shout, interrupt, intrude, add whatever you want us to know what some of you worked best on, where you contributed the most... Give yours a break deserved joy.

THE WISE MENS look at each other, exchange important and self-conscious things and

smiles. They exclaim: Ohoho! Whoop! Hip-hip-hurrah!

ABEL: But you also let me give you an introduction letter, and at the next sessions, as we agreed, one of you will report on each of the topics, without distraction from the audience.

MESUQE: And can I, please, still interrupt?

ABEL: Only today. Not later! The law is the law, there is no exceptions. Now let me...

MESUQE: What is this session all about? Well, they will again attack us! You know how they slandered us for a whole century as conspirators.

ABEL: I did say the thing about intrusions, but you, rushed to exercise your right. Be patient a little. That's exactly what I wanted to talk about. This won't leak, bro. We are in a secret place, there are no journalists neither theirs nor ours, there are no listening devices - everything is checked. But nothing was harmed to us they found out about our sessions in 1897. Well, I don't know would I tell you... but, in the end, why not, because, how are we going to do it-to cooperate in the destruction of the world if there is no between us minimum trust? Here, then, for your information, after so many years: no one stole the Protocols. I personally then let the veal cattle fatten the record should be dropped and go public!

WISE MEN: Ah, uh, oh... Who would have thought! What a genius trick...!

ABEL: Sure! A huge dust rose up, the Goyims were captured by by the fear of death, and we used all these reactions in our favour. They accused us of being conspirators, but we returned the ball to them. Take it easy, we have to go by order. When they discovered our authorship over the Protocols of elders of Zion, published them and attacked us like dogs - as you still well remember - we were to retaliate slyly to them ; you know the one: Satan's most successful deception is that he claims he does not exist! Through many decades, so have we repeated, and thus convinced the cattle, that we do not exist, and how their villains invented the matter, or rather, wrote it, and planted on us, tricked as some kind of "apocrypha", wouldn't they incite enmity towards us and harmed us. (But in the same way we renounced the ugly ones places in the Talmud, when it would become hot.) We made up also and put a whole complicated story about it into the world how the Protocols were supposedly created in the Russian secret kitchen police and reached the world through a series of stages. There versions took over and united our marionettes during the century, so today the very mention of those Protocols in serious tons is reason enough to declare someone paranoid or moral freak, and excluded from public life.

We are careful, of course, that the Protocols, as much as it is possible, they are not published, but where they are published, to be immediately fiercely attacked and banned. It was important that to be known about them , and to be presented as a work our enemy.

Our greatest success was precisely that we through our agents, convincingly proclaimed the Protocols "falsification". However, the expression is meaningless in this context: falsifications, namely, can only be there, where there are also originals. In fact, this is a (partial) plagiarism. We used up parts of the Book of our spawns Freemasons, Joly, and whenever someone discovered his sentences in the Protocols, everyone would unanimously conclude that someone else used those sentences to harm us , attributing to us ugly intentions. And nobody noticed that we ourselves quoted Joly, and we did that because there are good ideas, but even more so that the authorship, by imprecise inference, would be attributed to another. And so we are, after all, under protection secrecy and in perfect peace, could fulfill our mission! And believe me, it will be like that now. Of course, we need help from all of you. We will remain hidden again and clean, and smoothly complete what remains to be done achievement of our final goal.

It was, brothers, fun to follow in these 100 years how the poor cattle interpreted us all! We created complete confusion in their heads. Someone took it seriously when it leaked, and someone was scared to death, and someone attacked us. With that, he gave us the opportunity to them, in cooperation with our sympathizers, of whom it is full the goyim world, let's bring the thing back to them like boomerang (we are not conspirators, you are antisemites!). And their "interpretations of Protocols really made us laugh to tears. One claimed that we are there, others that we don't exist. They stretched around the alleged "forgery" and not knowing, as I said, what does that word even mean, and they considered the proportion of plagiarism proof that we are not the authors (as if we can't either plagiarize!). And they saw, the beasts, at least some of them, that their "great advance" of the 20th century in detail takes place according to the letter of our Protocols. And what now did their brains conclude from that? Some claimed how the text, ostensibly composed according to the agents of the Protection, actually it only describes the time in which it was created. But, Protocols are full of content, of which at the beginning of the 20th century there was no indication yet! So what? Did write them prophet, who saw in advance what was yet to come? But they don't really believe in prophets. And they didn't dare to confirm that is realization of our plans and designs, because that would acknowledge our role, which would burden them the accusation that they are opponents of Zion. All it was left to them was trust them as it is a figment of the imagination, a negative utopia, science fiction. But how, when that fiction is everywhere around them at work, tangible and inexorable?!

THE WISE MENS laugh, rejoice, shake their fists wildly on the table, persistently clamoring and shouting: Vivant sapientes! Long live Zion! They toast with glasses of Zion sparkling wine.

ABEL: Calm down, brother! Today is still big job for us to be done. Let me tell you what methods we used.

You know that we know goyim inside their soul, we are easy get along with. This is our racial characteristic anyway: just think to our musical interpreters, who enjoy themselves even in the most sublime goyim music, that the devil wears it. We are psychologists like no other. And when you add to that our conspiratorial nature... We operated in strict secrecy, in an organized manner and disciplinary. We handled the secret with virtuosity power. No one exposed us, except for a couple of bright goyim rowdy, whom no one trusts, and some of our traitors, which we punish. We are clever, thick-skinned, we have great experience. And who can resist us: we indoctrinate and we manipulate, convince with reasons and sophistry, through advertising, we spread lies and half-truths, rumours

. We use science as well as magic.

We control the goyim's thoughts, will and feelings. And since it is it is most difficult to influence on intellect, we only do so when we weakened character and fueled destructive passions. We pacify, we eliminate, we re-educate. We seduce fornication, we lie, cheat, mislead, prank. We kill individually and in a package - genocidal. We scare and we promise. We encourage and eliminate conflicts. We mystify and we misinform, verbally and in writing.

We throw in spies, agents-provocateurs. Goyim freaks we manipulate so that they don't know anything anymore what we think, but not even what they themselves think. There is no idea which we cannot make acceptable. At the same time abundantly we use the inversion method: we replace the good and evil. We give sweet-sounding names to pig expressions, but we christen congratulatory good deeds with some derogatory word. Let's say we call patriotism "hate speech".

defending our soil and blood from our aggression with "xenophobia", terrorism, , fighters for the truth and justice we call "paid agent", and the killing of unborn children we call "right to choose". That's how we make from lie a truth and from truth-lie, from hate to love, from ugliness to beauty, from peace from war, and freedom from slavery.

MESUQE: Well, that's...

ABEL: Yes, yes. One of them noticed that well, one of their scribblers, you don't even have to mention his name!
I think Ephraim will say something about him, no you have to! But he thought he was hitting the mark with his satire mostly the regime of left-wing terror, and he didn't even dream of how We will perfect this inversion and deftly hide it in the frame liberal democracies, where the broadest goyim masses they won't even notice.

Against the enemy, everything is welcome: even murder and deceit, and cruel force, and gentle advice. Yes, we deny their claims with apparent arguments and dexterous ones shenanigans, but we like them the most and are the most effective words against them
- labels, killer words-beats, magic words which cause an irresistible repulsion with their very sound.
Enough is that goyim blaspheming in Public we label as fascist or racist, nationalist, chauvinist, xenophobe; a marginal and a madman; a homophobe or an antisemite; politically incorrect, or hate speaker - and it's over! he has no defense, nothing can't save him! He can say goodbye to his career, his income, with peace life, and often with life itself as well !

Where we cannot succeed with exclusive application of our own strength, we also rely on the circumstances.

Of these, we called some to life ourselves, and some go on our hand. Let's say, the so-called »postmodern«, with its own relativism and complete confusion that she is brings with herself, she is extremely welcome to us to hunt in cloudy. But she is also the good deed of our child, legitimate the child of our Modern. We have our "fifth columnists".

« and where our direct agents do not reach. We have them, brothers, so that there is no confusion, both in Christianity and in Islam, both in India and China. And in Japan, and among the niggers, as well and in our reserve Oasis - America. And our the most reliable fifth columnists are those who are unconscious, already stuffed, zombified decadents, who unknowingly do the work for our.

Wise mens! I said that we will continue to act secretly. of course. We have infiltrated everywhere and are stealthily robbing and destroy imperceptibly. Our emancipation enabled us apparent assimilation. No one doesn't notice when we largely dominate the host countries.

But in order for the secret to remain as well hidden as possible, just because, in the meantime, we go out a little bit in public. Since we have partly discarded secrecy, fools believe that we are not hiding anything anymore. Liberal regimes, which we called to life, are tolerable for us and allow us and our public performance without any resistance.

With this, we want to alleviate their fears and put them to sleep vigilance. If they believe that and the second, why not they know, we do in principle the same as public as some, that we allow them to find out, and they stand completely innocent and unimportant, - we will lead them to believe that in to that public part is completely exhausts our work. However, we hide most of our subversion well, only we show a very small part, and with all that we spread the word the rumor about our omnipotence, in order to paralyze those who might still be ready to offer resistance.

I would be disingenuous to you, brothers of Zion, if I don't say to you that in his responsible and important work we also face difficulties. They are not too big, they are not insurmountable, but there are some. I remind you of the problem that we had with communism: we wanted to use it for the global the conquest of power in the goyim states, and he, despite a fair settlement, and initial cooperation, himself more or less turned against us. But that has passed. Now I admit, it is easier than ever for us to sit down. But, on the other hand, new problems arise. Furthermore, as it progresses the realization of our plan, that's how are also appear resistance forces. We are keeping them within limits for now, and I hope that it will remain so. But it would be crazy with that power ignore. Anti-Zionism is rising against Zionism, against Freemasonry- Christian and Islamic fundamentalism. Against globalism - nationalist international. Against the New Age some self-conscious goyim are now trying start what they call New Eonom, sub by which they understand the new great era of their honor and greatness. Finally, everything we do to finish goyims are inevitably affected, and especially us our Oasis. We live with it and we fight against the consequences. But still, it doesn't seem to be so fatal to us. We are a chosen race, and our fighting abilities the continuous armed war that we have imposed is also getting stronger to the neighbors of the Oasis. That war unbelievably reduces the harm the effects of decadence, zombification and brothelization, which come back to us like a boomerang. Above all, let us not forget, our benign grace of our god Holocaust. Well, sages, after this introduction we could move on for a more detailed review of what is done...

METHUSALEM: Wait, wait! You cut the introduction to the most important place. Don't you have anything more to say about ourselves on our national god, except that you mentioned him?!

ABEL: Don't be angry, dear brother. I thought I'd leave it at that one of the sessions, actually to your report. But if you want, speak now. I have nothing against it. Very important Wise mens of Zion, I give the word to our expert for the national question, brother Methuselem!

METHUZALEM: Here, let me start with your mention name of our god. If we were once chosen in old God, because he first created the Supernation and an Oasis, and the whole world he created just for us, well without us there wouldn't even be a world, - now we are chosen in God Holo as the only nation that will survive, that will never drown with others (you remember how we were hiding like Maranos, so-called Catholics, but we stayed our own!), and which as a superior race is the only one that has the right to nationalism. We help each other, as you know, system of kahal ~ our secret world government, and according to we apply a destructive procedure to Goyim cattle Herem.

We used enormous energy and persistence to impose a lie on the whole world, and we continue to do so

- that our sufferings are the greatest and therefore incomparable.
We do not allow them to be "relativized", as we say. And what is not relative is absolute, it is Absolute, god! With the "Holocaust" religion and the accompanying Auschwitz mythology, and the kabalistic-magical use of the sacred
"Six Million" digits, we are poisoning the souls of the Goyim, we burden them with holo-dogmas both during the day and in sleep, in kindergarten and school; we produce on the assembly line sentimental junk: movies, novels, plays, quasi-historical texts, museums, monuments, exhibitions in order to keep the entire Goyim universe continuously on their knees, in a state of constant resentment, remorse and apologies for their constant crimes against us.
They have to repeat this incessantly, and the memory on their crimes keep alive. That's why we ask them to expel anti-Semitic places from their inciting New Testament. We destroy their healthy relationship with their past, we teach them that you can't live from past - to dedicate themselves to ritual mourning more of our past, which they made bitter for us. Because we do not give up on our past.
With this aggressive strategy of establishing a monopoly at the sacrifice we win for ourselves the place of the Nation above the nations, because the one who suffered the most is the best and the most righteous, and has the highest right to unlimited rule over the world. Until we achieve that power to the end, holomania what we instill in the goyim benefits us how we would humiliate and weaken them as much as possible, both morally and materially could blackmail them. I only mention countless billions that we have milked from them so far, and we are still milking from them and further, on behalf of the so-called "damages".
Of course, this causes certain resistance among the goyim.
We easily neutralize them, labeling them "anti-Semitic". that magic word does not allow reciprocation, With the goyim we don't discuss, we don't hold them accountable, we don't answer due to criticism, we do not give any arguments.
They can only end up in prison, according to the laws which we brought.
Admittedly, we classify anti-Semitism as hate speech , as inventing a scapegoat, as an expression of envy towards a better self. But we really need him so that we would denigrate him, and with him the goyim that we declared anti-Semitic. As soon as he say something, we will scream: Holocaust!
Holocaust! Whatever we do with the goyim, whatever how we manipulated him, no matter how much they insulted and exploited him, he can't do anything to us. That's why anti-Semitism always we consider precious and welcome, even ourselves we challenge; of course, involuntarily and spontaneously, but by ourself with our rude and thought-out performance, but also deliberately, systematically. We provoke and humiliate cattle constantly demanding new and ever greater reparations, (so far we have only charged from Germany through 100 billion former DM, which we abolished), by construction giant holo-monuments, by eternal extortion of apologies... Here's a good example: you know that Germans don't like us, neither do others, after all. Now in Germany we inhabit tens of thousands of Ours, justifying it the need to fight against anti-Semitism and extremism of far-right. Although it can be even for the last goyim fool clear that the effect is exactly the opposite. But they don't have where to go, they obey our orders, because it is in the majority of their countries is governed, directly or indirectly, by our humans. Without anti-Semitism, we would be reduced to a people among all other nations. We couldn't even think of this one the grandiose adventure of mastering the world that we started the final phase 100 years ago.

ABEL: After this commendable intervention of our brother Methuselem, the time has come to remind ourselves what we have managed to achieve in the past 100 years from our intentions, set forth in the Protocols of our past sessions. Here is a summary:

We have misled the liberal institutions to a large extent, to we weakened Goyim states, to become easy prey of our final total order. And we totalitarian orders tried the systems to see how they work, although these they are not even a pale shadow of what we plan bring to them!

WISE MENS: Well done! Bravo!

ABEL: We carried out revolutions on the trail of the one ours, with which we made the goyim cattle happy with a sharp guillotine and dull declarations, seduced the rule of the utopian terror, beat up the Christians, imposed on them after - our democracy: today, thanks to that revolution and consistent our hard work, through the loyal goyims, we rule most of the countries in the world. But to us in our opinion, the revolution primarily helped in the spiritual to the destruction of the goyim substance, With that Revolution we namely, spread the cheap, optimistic myth of the rule of Reason, the spirit of fight against so-called prejudices (which in fact, they often reflect spontaneous insights of wisdom and health instinct). We spread the word about the power of pure criticism, about general progress, about humanism, the right to revolt against authority and against Heaven, and a thousand other related ones miracles. All this, of course, helped to increase the general sums of terror, disorder and misfortune for our easier mastering the world.

We demolished and installed puppet governments by our taste. We overthrew the cattle their ancient empires. We humiliated their proud nobility, we reduced it to "Jet set".

We introduced universal suffrage. We have destroyed authority.

We used, provoked and ended wars for our needs. Where we needed it, we also encouraged strange forms of terror and criminalized the unusual ones.

We imposed countless political parties on them, to break their unity. We rallied the regiment against their legal authorities, and the provinces, "regions", against central governments. We have developed compliant legislation and introduced courts that serve us, especially political ones.

At the same time, we abolished the death penalty, that fundamental guarantor of justice.

SAVAO: Yes, but we will return death penalty as soon as we need her.

ABEL: of course. We have established an all-powerful reign of our lying and misleading media, transmitted over them to goyim cattle a lot of incoherent opinions how they could talk about them fruitlessly. We destroyed head of goyim family, and we dropped her school the lowest branches, to completely lose its original purpose and serves only to educate for going wild, and then for ease training of our subjects. We have perverted the young man to drugs and sex. We legalized abortion. We are overwhelmed the world with fornication and pornography. We mastered over their art and turned it into trash. True talents we systematically marginalized and stifled. For the most part we destroyed that gangs their nation's and national self-awareness.

METHUZALEM: That is the most difficult.

ABEL: That's why I say "a good part". I also know that is the hardest. Well, try a little harder, good Methuzalem!

That's your job! But we also destroyed nations a lot by successfully falsifying their history, the struggle for historical truth was relentlessly pursued on them by our laws and courts. We created economies crises for them . We destroyed their national currency. We mastered on their financial-banking system and bigger industries and world trade. We undermined all their faith, opened their churches to our agents subversion, and imposed some kind of universal religion on them without a church, and forced them to worship our false god Holo. We even managed to endow them with new diseases and plagues, for which there is no cure. We encouraged them - as Methusalem called it - anti-Semitism, that an invaluable tool of our supremacy. Finally, we created numerous supranational organizations, secret and public, as a precursor to the New world order. Here, brothers, I think I covered everything. And for details, for the topic of political subversion, I hear that it is reporting, and Brother Onan persistently raises his hand.

ONAN: Brothers, I would like to remind you how we were control the politics during last century. Our fingers are in organizing both world wars, all revolutions. We funded them, we created them, we created leaders for them. We continued with us strategy of supporting capitalism and challenging communists reaction: we did that also back in the 19th century.

The trick was this: to take advantage of the workers' misery, which we caused ourselves. The teachings of our guru from Trier helped us in demolishing family, property, ethics, states, nations - because all that guru declared as forms of alienation, which must be overcome. We were creating political chaos, in which our most vile executors would come like eagerly awaited saviors. We built liberal democracy into our most perfect tool to rule the world. What we failed to do with open terror coercion and enslavement, we succeeded, even better, gentle, imperceptible, suggestive terror of false freedom. We raised the United States of America like our most loyal and active tools, and they will remain so as long as we need them. We allowed communism as long as it was benefit for us, while he softened the goyim , turned them into wretches and slaves, fall into our hands like a ripe pear. And communism was in inestimable value to us. He prospered materialistic, godless worldview, the spirit of duplicity, lies, steals, murders; dumbed down with his mandatory and simplistic, false ideology; finally, his own imperialism made it easier for us to penetrate into the still untouched areas. For overthrow of communism we relied to the circumstance that he has already exhausted himself, absorbed failures and general crisis. Like fighting strength that will beat him, we created awakened nationalists passions of oppressed peoples. But as soon as they cheered up that they will step into the future guided by their national elites, we overthrew them with the help of those same communist groups, which we are in the meantime recycled and turned into us loyal "socialists" and "social democrats". And we expanded around the world the empire of the democratic, which is to say conquered, submissive countries. (But also totalitarian: Because democracy is an incomparably more total rule than communism and fascism together!) We used for that work and their St. Father Pope, as well as the leaders of both at that time superpowers. All in order to establish our Cosmopolis! At the same time, over our heads dangle, I'll let you know I admit, the sword of Damocles defeated fascism. Yes, we defeated him by force of arms, with a coalition People's and liberal democracy which we called for it in deed. What was left, we threshed after the war like collaborationists, and works and ideals of that generation we presented like the unique and unsurpassed evil of the world history. We subjected them to re-education, forced them to will give up their history and their soul. We are thoroughly brainwashed them and also their character. We have flooded the world with enormous ocean of anti-fascist propaganda: books, (magazines, articles, quasi-art works... We have founded countless parties to associations and denigrate "black shirts".

MESUQE: But Ours were also black shirts!

ONAN: Well, you have chosen a moment for painful topics!

Yes, the Supreme One also allowed you intrusions, today exceptionally, but only because today we celebrate! What does that mean to you? provocation?! Yes, yes, it's true. We got close to their... not so much black-shirted as brown-shirted.

But why? Well, because people rejoices with other like them, because he wanted a pure race just like us, and because we could on that topic find common ground and draw a dividing line. He wanted a strong state, and we wanted it - not for the goyim, but for us, for us! He waged war against our enemies in the Oasis.

So should he have been rejected as an ally?! Finally, he initiated the removal of our lame and weaklings all across Europe. We would never get them for our things. And like this, he began to persecute them, and in this way gave us the opportunity to present ourselves as martyrs, and martyrs have exceptional rights - you heard brother Methusalem!

MESUQE: But he didn't restore the Oasis for us, that did those whom he fought against!

ONAN: of course, of course! But that's a later story!

Let's not forget that he also offered various solutions for the establishment our Oases. At that moment, we made a good judgement.

However, we also demolished fascism at the same time. And when the fascist gang lost the game, we showed fascism to whole world the biggest criminal in the entire world history; that's what we do still, because it is useful to us notoriously fascist label to attack any opponent. Also literally, fascism is our enemy: because it emphasizes extremely national values, because they want a Europe of nations, and not the one we impose: techno-bureaucratic, centralist, gray, thief, loyal to us...

MESUQE: Fascism was also terribly imperialistic!

ONAN: That means nothing to us. All great empires were imperialist, and every great ideology includes the urge for expansion: both communism and democracy. Isn't America an imperial power? But that comes still good for us today!

PINHAS: If you have finished, I must complete you. Nothing about The sixty-eighth.

ONAN: Levi will talk about that, we already agreed...

PINHAS: Yes, but not in this introductory review it can't be stopped! To us it meant that Sixty-eighth perhaps as much as those great and bloody revolutions.
She enabled us the Great March through the institutions. Crazy Goyims think that the student movement has exhausted itself, that some for a year went wild and now everything has gone without a trace. And it's not like that: all the left-liberal ideas we promoted, apparently advocating communist giants like Lenin and Stalin

like Ho Shi Min and Che Quevara, they took root.

They penetrated imperceptibly, more effectively than if we had them imposed by force of arms. The world as it looks today, you can thanks to us, we liberalized it, seemingly subjecting him to the new Communist revolution.

ONAN: Well, no one denies that.

PINHAS: And then, our infiltration into the World Alliance churches, Christian churches. We completely reworked it for the purposes of our so-called pacifism, human rights and similar nonsense. We created among the church members an army of useful idiots. Yes, Catholics are partly only partially, they still resisted. But they are anyway others outside the Alliance, as well as Muslims, of course. But without regardless, the Catholic Church became our great ally after her suicidal Council.

She tolerates us, invests in us, withdraws the anathemas. These are achieved by ours in the Church.

TOLA: I miss it in your historical overview how we used Germany. We announced to her unofficially war, and through the English brothers, they started attack on Poland, so that we can then declare war on her with a clear conscience and officially, through governments loyal to us. We persuaded English brothers to a coalition with our Bolshevism, and here, we got not only war, but also the possibility of an endless dressing up the world according to our measure. Ours guys stole the atomic bomb plans from the Americans, The USSR got the atomic bomb, and that's how it started the tension between East and West that we ourselves have fostered and we kept him under surveillance at all times.

ZOROBABEL: Now there are no more two-lords. America was left alone, and we will remove her in due course, just to play her role to the end.

METHUSALEM: Of course! She is not the final goal for itself.
She is a tool for us.

SILLO: Still, brother, let's not forget the benefits what America provides them for us. Do you know how much is there killed the unborn?

ABEL: Well, there are other benefits. Through America we manipulate the wars that are being fought in the world. Over it America, we are spreading the left-liberal dumbing down of cattle around the world.
There are always new incentives for zombification and brothelization coming from America

and decadence. But let's let it go; to report on America Zerubbabel will remind us at the end of our sessions.

MESUQE: And why does America help so persistently our Oasis?

RUBEN: She helps because she is rich, because she has money.

JUDA: She helps because he loves us. We are hers, she is our!

URIJA: She doesn't love us, because she suspects that she serves to us in the fight for our goal. She helps us because she is decadent.

BEELZEBUB: No, but because she is smart, because she knows what She is doing.

URIJA: And what is America doing? In the long run, she is also rushing to ruin!

ZOROBABEL: And what do you think, shouldn't America be good for us and help us?

ABEL: America helps as long as we need it and as long as we want. I don't see what the problem is. But I see, brothers, that you may have indulged too much in the charms of our Zionist sparkling wine, so it kind of failed us so much precise logical reasoning. I expected more ideas today, although you have said enough. But I understand , and I agree, that we can afford a day of rejoicing.

That's why I suggest that we close the discussion, and little more celebrate this reunion, and we start tomorrow with individual reports. We will cover everything, and the discussion won't be anymore.

And after all the consecutive sessions, on to work!

WISE MENS (obviously relieved): Well done! Long live! Forward to battle! (calls for cheers as they start singing a general song):

We turn a goyim into a zombie,

In chickens of a half-dead strain.

From flesh the goyim made a god,

He became decadent therefore.
He must be ruled by a woman everywhere.
So that the goy would turn out to be completely stupid.
We love that goyim has no gender,
A hermaphrodite, like an ox.
We try to get the goyim to fornicate a lot.
That all goyim people are short.
I build brothels on every corner,
I want to reverse the goyim.
The family is a big thorn in our eye,
We are demolishing her, so that she falls soon.
Instead of women, goyims will love dogs,
Instead of children - because he is a lower race.
Goyim must be educated,
Because we can't kill them all.
We prepare death for every nation,
Except for us ~ he must not have them.
I want goyim all to be equal.
But none of them to be elite.
Democracy is our love,
Liberalism is nothing less important.
Goyim is not a historical being for us,
We are demolishing everything to his right.
Let freedom be important everywhere,
But we actually know it's fake.
We will convene the Third Council,
We will call women priests.
And we will marry homosexuals,
We will succeed also that dark deed.
Art of goyim pure garbage, there is no value in it anymore.
I use the Goyim language skillfully,
I use it to deceive the goyim.
We root out goyim thoughts,
That job is going like crazy.
We generally fool him by our media,
We tease him, we brazenly lie to him.
let the worker starve with hunger;
If he doesn't already, let him plant grass.
We are friends of the white plague (Abortion), but also the misery of others.
We have forbidden the death penalty to the goyim,
We are keeping her our country.
We wage war when it suits us,
By the way, we have pacifism.
We are wise mens of old Zion,

We just got off the plane.
We live somewhere now, we are no longer a totally tough clique.
Now we have different opinions,
The fight goes on, but the times are changing.
However, it is important that we are together,
And yet we are a homogeneous group.
We all belong to the same gang,
And we went down to the same runway.
We stayed in the same hotel, Kosher, we look forward to eating.
Each tills his own field,
And equally we are all in a good mood.
Conspiracy is a joint work,
Which brought us here.
Difficulties are easily borne by the Jew,
Because the victory will be ours.
We believe that we will succeed,
That's why we are wise here.
Goyim hates to mess up the threads,
We fill his pots with poison, Destruction of the whole world -
This is a constant sacred task for us.
That's why we wish ourselves happiness In this work, to our glory.
let our council pass in peace, let the symposium go smoothly.
Let the new Order come to us,
All over the world, the Jew, death calls.
Death call to our enemy,
But the life of the proud Zion.
The world must all fall into our hands, Goyim's progeny must not grow any more!
World government, that's our stuff,
Because we are the bosses, the masters of the world!

II.

THE ANTICHRIST or THIRD COUNCIL

*We must undermine the faith of the goyim soul every thought on God and on the soul.
Today, freedom of religion is accepted everywhere.
This means that we are only a few years away from the moment when the Christian religion will completely collapse. And with others we will have an even easier job. Our experts will discuss all shortcomings Christian religion. We have already taken care of it* to discredit the Goyim clergy. His influence over the people every day is smaller and smaller.

The Supreme Sage warned the audience: Brothers, pay special attention to me today, because our colleague Antichrist will talk about an extremely important topic, and since it has been processed by a distinguished expert, please give it to him immediately at the beginning huge respect.

ANTICHRIST is coming very difficulty to speak because of roars and cheers, he began his presentation like this:

Honorable brothers sages of Zion! I believe we agree in that our faith, our religion, is special, superior to all others, and at the same time very important regarding the realization of our Supreme goal. We were chosen in Faith, in God, in his incomparable sufferings, in our world role and mission, in ourselves. From it irrefutably and inexorably follows that they all all other religions of this world are our mortal enemies. Therefore we treat them like a prudent person behavior towards the enemy, but we must not interfere with bearing in mind that, among them, two are particularly strong and dangerous for us enemy of the world's strongest religion - that of Christ - and that of Prophet Muhammad. Christianity is , of course, only one of our numerous sects, whereas Islam is basically just one deviation of Christianity; but what does that mean, when, over the centuries, they became so powerful and influential!

We therefore have to suppress them by all means and destroy, and we are on the best path, and until we don't succeeds that completely, our task is to make them as much possible pervert, shame and weaken We do even on the level of mere phraseology, which should not be underestimated: persistently used words, more precisely, verbs, which suggest certain attitudes, will not in the long run remain without effect. We are especially welcome here the words "fanaticism" and "fundamentalism". It's easy of course for a good thing always necessary to invest some kind of measure of fanaticism, and in the fight for it must be fundamental, basic (or radical - root), we trained goyim to perceive these words as insults, well that then what we label them causes theirs spontaneous countermeasure. Compared to the beliefs of the foolish fundamentalists, our thoughts and our movements Goyims will be perceived as reasonable and moderate, tolerant and dialogic.

In the fight against religion, we build on the great ones the endeavors of our undead predecessors, to those who are called to life Freemasonry, Revolution and Secularization. Everything that happened in the latter times was their trace, it was inclined to the survival and flourishing of the religious spirit and religious life. And all the main political orders which followed the Revolution, regardless of whether they were openly referred to it, or rebelled against it, they provided more or less conditions for successful refutation and suppression of religion: both communism and parliamentarism and fascism. And we do our best to lower down faith in people's hearts, turned it into a "private matter", replace it with a mere external observance of form, devalued religious dogmas, lower down faith in apparitions and miracles, especially the mysterious and mystical, broke ecclesiastical communities in many followings, completely invented new followers in order to confuse the souls of the goyim, mocked God, divine services and holy rites, exalted Satan as a proud rebel and Promethean fighter for human rights, shamed the Church, criminalized priests and removed them from public life. Into our greatest successes however - I won't say completely, but to a large extent - from the inside and outside we dominate, rule over Catholic Church. We succeeded that millennium old wise lady to outsmart and force her to withdrawal and renunciation of her own principles. We trivialized the Catholic Church (in a deeper sense, she still hardly anyone manages to seriously attract, billion of her members), and diluted her message. It worked, we intend to destroy the Church through the Church itself: we inspired her on the famous 2nd Vatican Council, which is one of the of our most brilliant triumphs, in which everyone possible non-Catholics took part, and also joined her as observers, agents of the KGB, and to whom is their ringleader, who is finished Council, actually had to declare that in the atmosphere he smells Satan's smoke! Through the Vatican, we brought the spirit of democracy into the Church and democratization. We forced her to accept revolutionary password: freedom (of religion), equality (church officials and laymen), brotherhood (in ecumenism). We asked that the Church learn from the world instead from Spirit, to bow to the spirit of the times instead of the Holy Spirit: the unfortunate people call that their mantric word aggiornamento. We forced the Church to accept "progressivism" as its dogma and norm. We imposed collegiality of bishops and pope. We overemphasized Christian regiment, Laos, as an authoritative component of the Church. We have introduced a new spirit of banality that is already visible in to the liturgy itself: we deconsecrated holy mass by reducing it festive, symbolic ingredients, encouraged sitting and reduced kneeling, played vulgar barbaric pop music instead of noble, transcendent sounds organ, we increased the passive role, turned the priest to people instead of the Sanctuary; gives the holy Eucharist on hands (democratic self-service, autonomous man, than what!), serves mass in the folks vernacular (national language), and when he goes out into the street, wears civilian clothes so that no one recognizes him...

MESUQE: Wait a minute! You praise masses on national language! I thought we are fighting today against nation and nationalism, that we want a world empire equals, in which there will be no more borders...

ANTICHRIST: Some things don't go easily in your head, ha? Would you Latin to be the language of Cosmopolis? We have we have our own "Esperanto" for that, namely the language of our reserve Oases (America). And is it so hard to understand that we still use hateful nationalism wherever he is in our favor?

We won't have him in politics, but why wouldn't we introduce him where he doesn't belong, in the Christian Church, to break it's universality? Isn't that good? Isn't that maybe something we shouldn't do?

SUPREME SAGE: Let him go, don't give that fool so much importance. It's clear to all of us except him. You continue !

ANTICHRIST: Thank you. So we with that democratic spirit, shaken the age-old church principles of hierarchy and authority, but also shook the primal of God over man.

After the Council, it was not difficult for us, in the current atmosphere he created, to flood the world with various atheistic theologies (theology of liberation, hope, without God...). Traditional, conservative beliefs the Church began suppress and persecute. Immaculate priests are proclaimed to be insane and sent to church insane asylums. Persistent and courageous Archbishop Lefebvre, who referred to the authentic tradition of the Church in the image of Pope St. Pius X, our agents in Church attacked and slandered him so much, that the Church had to excommunicate him. After his death, we try everything that the movement that he called to life does not transcends the dimensions of a marginal sect.

On the other hand, the liberal currents, with which we cut foundations of the Church, reconciling her "ecumenical" with other religious communities, then, bringing her closer to Protestantism, secularism, modernism, New Age - even to feminism, gay marriage and open promoting promiscuity, - became official ideology of countless chairs, seminars, symposia and magazines, all in the name of Catholic Church. So Christianity we reduce to some contemporary eclectic, syncretic mish-mash, which is everything and everything, and that is exactly why it is no longer nothing.

Since the Council, we managed to create almost one special religion, on the other side of Catholicism, something on its own way similar to Orthodoxy or Protestantism, but also in their subdued versions. We diluted and we also strengthen freemasonry in Church. We relativized - with teachings about religious freedom - differences between religions, and so threatened the primacy of Christianity, which would for Christians churches must have been self-evident. We introduced forced dialogue with non-believers, atheists and others, knowing how dialogue is the biggest enemy of truth, which is arise only in the mind of one. (Only one reaches the goal - claimed their apostle Paul.) The theologian who served us as the brain of the Council - and he became famous by bringing in question even Christ's divinity - later he continued to work on the same Council "project" in the conciliar spirit on world ethos". And so the Church fits nicely into ours mondialization, globalization, alignment, homogenization their cattle world.

Yes, the Church is still somehow tough for us and resists. Against those, hopefully, the last wince, we launched all the power of our media: press, radio and TV.

We are conducting an unprecedented campaign, attacking reactionaries and conservatives, defenders of the old in the church rows, hullabaloo from all available calibers and genus weapons. We accuse the Church for representing the survivor sexual ethos, and thus estrange herself from the youth. With that we actually alienating the youth from the Church, which we thoroughly prepared by full-scale brothelization, fornication, debauchery, perversity that we instill into them. And while we originate far greater immorality, we accuse for immorality Catholics and other Christian priests. We are forcing them to legislate and sacramentally bless "homosexual marriages."

«, by which we mock to goyim marriage, we create public scandal, and we destroy the goyim offspring in cases when we succeed in getting such couples to adopt children.

At the same time, we mass accuse priests for pedophilia, which, after all, we systematically encourage with publicity that we give it to inflated individual cases.

Finally, we Church indefinitely and flatly criticize that it does not listen the needs and demands of the time

(as if that is her task!). But at the same time the Church, as I said, has indeed already adapted to a great spirit of time, which achieved the shedding of the traditional veneration that was once shown to her.

Today, as perverted as this, she is spat upon by whoever arrives. The Pope was and remains a particularly sweet target for us. After the bishop of Rome contributed to the disappearance of communism from historical scene, thereby, but also with his positive attitude to national one, as well as some emphasis on properly plan, became the hero of the conservative front, through the counselor, we drew him more and more into our round. We got in him the most faithful ally-councillor, as much as he according to his views, and even more according to the general spiritual attitude, was actually from the Council remote. For years we have been putting misinformation about his illness, creating the impression that he is sicker than he is yes, and preparing the mood for his premature withdrawal, for the so-called "resignation". And we are inciting on questioning the institution of papacy for life.

By doing so, we destroy his authority and reputation, and hasten arrival a pope who will always be kind to us. We also work on that bishops get right to elect the antipope.

We destroy the authority of the Church itself with a broad campaign exposing her historical "sins" (crusader wars, Inquisition, anti-Semitism, anathematization Freemasonry etc.), for which we are implanting to her complex of guilt, forcing her to penance and apology. (And when even The Church started apologizing, then it's much easier for us to ask Goy politicians as well, with the same goal of humiliate and weaken them.)

We also take care of suppressing the Church through the school: the school we have long ago secularized and atheistized, and religious education we prohibit wherever we can, portraying it as "rape personality ", although, with the same right, that could be call any educational intervention. We are working on the introduction parallel or alternative atheist religious education, in the name of religious freedom and separation of the Church from State. We throw religious symbols and customs out of schools, we humiliate Christ and Christianity, we mock Christianity religious views (about homosexuality, prostitution, pornography, feminism, abortion...), and priests we massively accuse for violating these beliefs. So we have, for example, a large part of the Church in our reserved Oasis already managed to discredit them as a gang of pedophiles. We do all that in the spirit of liberalism, tolerance, and everything is actually anti-religious and godless, in school as well as everywhere outside it.

A special area of work represented to us are holy Christian sacred things Like holy days and glorification of their Savior.
 Every child, even an unintelligent goyim fool, can see by himself what we have done to they lovely the traditional Christmas holiday. We trivialized and commercialized him. We turned it into a celebration redundant, expensive and insincere gifts, pagan colorful Christmas tree, hysterical consumerism mania, into unbridled, infantile family banter without a trace of sacred, transcendent cores.
 Instead of baby Jesus, as central figure we set up crazy and funny Christmas rituals as Lapland-Soviet "Santa Claus", who remained that even when the Catholic tricksters renamed him "Christmas grandpa".
 We regularly congratulate the Goyim "believers". their Christmas with the latest appropriate "discoveries" about their crucified God. That's where we stay for the most part of old Talmudic stories about Christ, for example he is the illegitimate son of a harlot and a Roman soldier Panthera, that he had brothers, that he was married to Maria Magdalena etc. The most important thing is to always repeat that he was an ordinary man, just a moral teacher, like so many others before and after him, that he did not rise from the dead, because if he did not, "in vain is all your faith". One year we claim he died in India, other in Japan, and third we reduce him to a completely banal party leader, a member of the Essen sect, or a Jewish social-revolutionary ("esser"). Or, on the other hand we reconstruct his supposed character on the basis of some excavated Jewish remains from the first centuries of Christianity, and we include it in our press and publications like a photo- robot, like some kind of primitive man.
 MESUQE: Yes, I saw it, and I really liked it! I laughed myself good!
 ANTICHRIST: Therefore, thank you God Holo, that you are also satisfied with something.
 That's how we disturb and disable Christians.
 But it is much more important and far-reaching what we are just preparing. My brothers, we are preparing for them - The third council! Because, as much as this second Vatican council did a good part of the job - and there is even more good work happened on his trail, when he escaped from priests supervision - the best is yet to come. He is already quiet implements, but it still needs to be officially convened, held, pass clear decisions... One of our renegade (ex Jew converted to other religion) for a long time
 sensed what we are going to do, so he first used the phrase »Third Council«. Later, one of our papabiles also uttered it.

At the very least, Third Council should bring following reforms: abolition of priest celibacy, enable female to become priest, and general democratic election of the pope according by believers of the whole world.

Only then will it be possible to say that we choose pope. We are already working on the following, that one of the next popes will be Jewish, black, homosexual, woman, atheist, or something similar, or all that together, and what I said about the anti-pope in future will be completely welcome to us.

In a suitable way, we also attack Islam, which is particularly dangerous for us because, first, it represents the most direct threat to our Oasis, and secondly, it manifests itself in some ways far firmer, more sincere, more combative religious attitude rather than what we perceive in the majority of Christians, which we have already managed a lot of them to zombify and neutralize. In Islam, however, we see the power of faith capable to translate into a national-political factor of the first order, inspiring the believers on brave deeds and also to their own self-sacrifice. Such acts are impossible without the deepest religiosity and therefore we do not have to fear of them from soft democrat Christians. But, Islamic fundamentalism, Jihad, that is something else. We tried at one time, I must admit, completely naive and thoughtless, through one of their westernized renegades, more precisely, over his blasphemous books about prophet Muhammed, to cause a larger wave of liberal reaction on at that time just strengthened orthodox Islam. We achieved just that that to strengthen it even more, and that the unfortunate one, under the threat of a Shiite fatwa, he has to hide in mouse holes until he dies. They kill us, we kill them, but their movement is growing. For now, we see no better way than to suppress Islam with Crusader wars, which our temporary created Empire leads for us, for oil and for our Oasis, under excuse of silly democracy and so-called human rights. Military actions we usually accompany the with a wild campaign through our media. We start up Christians against Muslims. We criminalize their religion, we portray their masses as misled, we call their leaders fanatic, the second one eccentric, the third a terrorist... When we conquer a country from them, we put them in power our proven marionettes. But, I have to admit that we are still quite skeptical. The opponent is tough and daring. Yes, we can rule the world, we want and we have to. We can defeat people, conquer their country, to train entire armies of penitents and slaves. But, it will always be the hardest thing to wage war against unadulterated, with a self-conscious and not captured spirit. And please don't let be true – our God Holo - that their God Allah is on their side!

BARABBAS or NEW AGE

Our prophets announced that we are chosen by God to rule the whole world. As soon as we win world power, we will not tolerate a single one other faith than the one in our God. Therefore we must destroy all other religions. Israeli king will be the real pope of the world, the patriarch of the international community churches.

The Supreme sage addressed the participants briefly with an introductory letter, which can be reduced to the following: Brother Antichrist explained to you against what we are fighting on our religion plan, and now brother Barabbas will tell you what is our positive religious goal, what we strive for and what we build. BARABBAS: Just so that there is no misunderstanding right away: what I am going to describe to you is not meant for us; we strive to that, it's true, even just to instill it in the goyim and so prepared them for us a New world order which we want to install, and at a large scale we have already installed it. Actually, as you know, we first went for the introduction of clean, direct atheism, and to a large part we succeeded in that as well.

The secular-democratic materialistic civilization helped us. However, certain, quite broad ones layers, we could not instill godlessness, and convinced atheists, according to dialectical custom, after someone time they got fed up with that opium, and started cry out for exactly the opposite contents. They needed therefore, something swindle to them that will act as a religion for them, a in essence it will be her negation. Instead of atheism, now we offer them syncretism, a kind of - as one of our enemies told - "religious Esperanto" (other called it an "alternative supermarket", and someone "funfair of ideas"), which, because it contains everything, it can be understandable to everyone, represent some kind of religion in which everyone - globally and cosmopolitan - can agree.

Brother of Zion, if I tell you New Age that for you can mean anything. The new era can be like this or like that. It can be exactly that our new era, in which arrival we are working on. It can also be theirs, their goyim »New Eon«, which on the summoning that to life are working their chosen smart goyim, and especially one of our renegade, I wish devil took him away! But here I have a special one in mind, for some you probably already have a well-known sect, which we started as the way we can today represent our God Holo, so that we can do it as well and as quickly as possible wiped out the big religions that got in our way.

 Our task, therefore, was to create a substitute for existing religions that are dangerous to us, in order to be satisfied goyim needs their gods, but in such a way that it does not threaten us, rather, that it benefits to our goals and to the construction of our cosmocratic Order. That religion should be a mixture of all and everything, to satisfy their scientific rationality, but also desirability for other side (after life), mystery, miracles.
 A little occultism, hermeticism (gnostic scriptures), esotericism (studies that study laws of the visible and invisible worlds); a piece of contemporary physics and computer techniques; a glass of leftist ideology in a package with the Eastern dogma of reincarnation and other weakened ingredients of the eastern spirit, adapted to western needs; some of simplified astrology and modernized magic; psychological mystifications and environmental agitations (an activity whose purpose is to get people for some action, idea); all that good shake and mix, call it the only suitable faith to some kind of imagined »Aquarius era«, and give them to drink in unlimited quantities. That's it: one total, totalitarian worldview that with mild conspiracy we spread over the global network. We assure them that they can join to that new cult without any damage to their own rooting in, say, Christianity or Islam, Buddhism or Taoism - in fact that we give priority to the ingredients of the last one: religion suits us, namely like godless Buddhism, or Taoist pantheism.
 Even Hinduism is not far from our intentions, and him we stuff into the New Age, because of his polytheism, more precisely, polydemonism (many demons), and leaving salvation to man himself and its incarnations, his wonderful perfection without God's help...
 MESUQE: We also got Schopenhauer hooked on Hinduism and Buddhism.
 BARABBAS: You shut up, because no one is asking you anything. Didn't you heard that Schopenhauer didn't like us? He didn't listen to us when he embraced the East. But let's continue, if I may, without interruption: New Age does not worship anyone in particular deity, and can literally worship any god or blasphemy (wrong god), but according to the taste of the individual devotee. For salvation,

each devotee is sufficient for himself: salvation he thinks that he will achieve with mere meditation, self-knowledge and self-realization. It is important to promote certain style and ethos; ethics and aesthetics versus theology. But ethics that we instill in them does not recognize the division between good and evil. So people, forsaken by God, we prepare the best for the role we intended for them.

New Age, with regard to our goals, shows his own inestimable advantages compared to the established goyim great religions. New Age, as I said, does not have existed recognizable god, but he doesn't even have church structure no dogma, no hierarchy.

There is nothing except confusion in the heads. And that means - nothing but pluralism and tolerance. Cooperate, communicate, love each other and be good. It is about an easy, popular worldview; frivolous, cheap, diluted. That's a lukewarm, feminine, pacifist religion, created for the weak brains and for brain softening. That's why they who once approach to New Age cannot resist anymore. New Age does not have strength to oppose, let's say, to Islam fundamentalism; but when it takes over spirits from within, will do miracles.

Seen from the standpoint of our goal, the cosmocratic Order, which for a unique world needs a unique religion, the New Age particularly benefits us with its egalitarianism (all people should be treated as equals).

His devotees, namely, hold nothing back the difference of races and nations, they are considered, like in past hippies, to individuals directly integrated into the great being Humanity. Emphasizing that general, undifferentiated humanity, they deny both - true God and the exceptional man - superman and anti-global nationalism, everything therefore, what could represent to us the insurmountable obstacle in our conquest campaign. In New Age all this is happily equalized and aligned: not only nations and races, but also generations (young and old found themselves in the same job of degrading the human species), as well as the sexes: women are masculinized and men they feminize, and thus become mutually similar in some third, hermaphrodite form. Above all, New Age equates all religions, sucks them all, in order to make them finally stopped.

Except in the network of informal religious communities, New Age we nurtur, as much as we can, in all areas of human activity. We try to permeate daily life with it, prevailing ethos; we publish the whole sea of magazines, publications, books, we are cramming New Age contents into works of art: especially into film and literature. We are especially working to poison Goyim offspring (they call us Goyim nakot – translated it would be when female animal whelping her offspring-puppies) with adapted occultism and magic: sure you have heard about one of the greatest achievers of all time, about that boy in the world of magic, whose adventures already available to millions of Goyim youth (Goyim puppies) around the world. And for adults, he takes care, with his bestsellers, that former hippie from a Latin American country, who in his book presented, inspired by alchemy, key determinants of New Age belief. Allow me to show you how we connect New Age with Postmodernism, which infected goyim area. Postmodern is the internal collapse of Modernity itself, she is here, and we didn't need her call to life with special efforts. Modern has exhausted itself, exhausted itself that great enthusiasm that arose with the Reformation and the Renaissance, rationalistic Enlightenment and optimistic Revolution. Their fruit, modern technology, it creates more problems than benefits, so it's even serious threatened to human survival. This process is ongoing further, but, on the other hand, is growing fatigue, stagnation, hopelessness. It's over with "big stories", about huge projects a new society and a new man. Man, goyim, he's drained, he's bored himself, he doesn't know what to do anymore with himself, his visions dried up, his will broke down. He is left to confusion and chaos, complete disorientation.

This is what Postmodernism brings: all-encompassing irony and mockery. Nothing is sacred anymore, nothing is anymore reliable, everything is equally valuable, equally permissible, relatively. Everyone chooses what he likes. But that, strictly looking, it is not the same as the message we are sending through the New Age. Be careful: Postmodern means skepticism, New Age is eclecticism (process of scholars, philosophers and artists that there are different theories, systems, styles). So, for Postmodern nothing is true, for the New Age everything is true, whatever, and best is when we mixed in the same pot. And however, we also see what connects them. From a higher point of view, namely, it doesn't really matter whether we consider everything to be true or nothing. In both cases, there is no truth. There is no truth, there is none justice. There is no freedom either, because "the truth will set you free." Both Postmodern and New Age offer weakness, nonviolence, hermaphroditism, extinction of every size and rank. All that humiliates the goyim, degrades them, makes them even more worthless than that he is. And so he becomes easy prey for us.

BEELZEBUB or DEATH TO PHILOSOPHY!

We will prevent highly gifted husbands from breaking out on the surface. Regarding the smart goyim, we will wipe them off the face of the Earth.

The Supreme Sage said: Here, you had opportunities hear how we are destroying faith, religion and theology. They are the most obstacle to achieve of our intentions. But, somewhere, philosophy is not far away. Philosophy, however, early adherents of Christianity considered to be unnecessary on the light Revelations; human wisdom, which is no match for divine madness. And yet, in later times they discovered the precious role of philosophy in supporting Christian claims. Therefore, philosophy is also dangerous for us. But not only the explicitly and directly Christian one. It is fatal every philosophical thought, because it sprouts and grows on the soil of the Spirit and Freedom. And it is our goal, as much as we did not yet completely succeeded, to deprive the goyim of their spirit and freedom, to make them purely physical beings, animal cattle, suitable to fulfill our holy will. Let's hear, brother Beelzebub, how we stand with philosophy and with what we can boast of, , where are we, where are we going?

BELZEBUB: Valuable fighters for the New World! Aware the death of philosophical thinking and our need that goyim stop thinking with his head, I have to tell you how they are in this business that they are doing mine associates, our hands are pretty much tied. We cannot, namely, suggest to goyim certain philosophical beliefs, nor the anti-philosophical one. We can only indirectly encourage them and support where they have already come forward. Also it is impossible to disable the goyim completely for opinion. The spirit blows where it wants. Of course, free thought is given to persecute, forbid or penalize. All that is task of our other services. We, with our part, we do our best. And here's how:

First of all, we help spread the belief that time for philosophy passed. We present it as outdated and sterile discipline. We make fun of her and caricature her everywhere we can. We gave the derogatory one quite a long time ago the meaning of the word "philosophizing" is used in its meaning idle, vain and superfluous, and above all a little silly brainstorming. We also discourage philosophy by imposing science as a model for reaching the truth, on which id working the office of our venerable especially concerned brother Zion. We oppose philosophy to politics, of course the one that suits us. We therefore show that from philosophy there's no use, and we assure goyim that only can save them scientific technique and political utopia.

The circumstance that there are no more big genius works for us.

In the 20th century, due to a combination of numerous circumstances, type of a genius thinker, finally reduced to two or three great minds, has completely disappeared. We repeat it exactly, and we will continue to do so. But we know that always comes back again and again the epochs of the sublime spirit. It's our task by all means to prevent the emergence of new geniuses, possible bearers of spiritual renewal - to ridicule and marginalize them, to accuse and condemn, and to painstakingly hinder their activity, and to make it completely impossible.

Already during the last two centuries, philosophy is everything more and more was left to the teachers. At first true thinkers acted as professors, because it was form of their civil existence. But, with decline first-rate thoughts, philosophy from the ingenious and independent ghosts gradually moved into professors' brains, where she was guaranteed turned into opposite, into vanity university folding. On the place of thought now is doxography (collecting, compiling and presenting the opinions of other philosophers in an organized manner) - a listing of other people's opinions, and on the top spot thinkers, appeared their unoriginal minor epigones (sons of heroes who died in war), untalented followers, secondary heads, second-hand brains. But for these jobs of describing and inheriting the true philosophy retained the name philosophy, although the very thing with her had no longer direct connections. It all benefited us, because, under the guise of the existence of uncorrupted thought, it actually is represented a systematic shedding and dying of thought, creating a fertile ground for our evildoers. Philosophy, namely, where she lives undisturbed, with other her values, it also represents a reliable guarantee of stability effective fight against scams and misconceptions. What is less philosophy, the better we succeed in seduction and infatuation goyim, and their final subjugation and fitting into the New World Order.

In the last two centuries, non-professorial philosophy took a path that I could only call way of her termination, which is exactly what we want.

In positivism and neopositivism (it denies any metaphysics, and avoids explanation and creating hypotheses), philosophy has her own answers declared as impossible, and questions senseless. A request was made, which matches with our program: that outdated metaphysics be removed from the agenda, and let it be replaced with physics and positive science in general. On the appropriate way, the death of philosophy was also demanded by Marxism. And itself filled with the Cult of Natural Science, Marxism is announced the overcoming - which will say the abolition - of philosophy, by growing her theory into practice proletarian revolution, as a way of achieving the perfect human societies. In the end, philosophy succeeded replace with some kind of policy - again that what we also strive for.

Delivering her to the jaws of scientific fanaticism and utopianism fantasy, where philosophy is guaranteed to die out, the only thing was left to us to do is to stimulate the mood for letting go her job to digital technique, computer games. It was not difficult to prove how computer can play chess so well that he can beat even the most famous Goy grandmaster (it's true, we also sent ours to play with computers, to demonstrate the superiority of the machine), but it is somehow more difficult to convince goyim that the computer is a better artist from every genius goyim painter or music composer.

The hardest part will be to demonstrate how computer can also philosophize, but when we philosophy reduced to anti-philosophical babbling anyway, it wouldn't be difficult for us even that greasy and challenging task to do. And in the meantime, until machine starts philosophizes, the lofty thinkers of the past days we replace with some sects, gurus and journalists, who with their artificially created authority to pretend correctness thinkers to extra fooled and dumbed down goyim imbeciles. Goyim therefore almost at all don't think anymore. We think for them, through paid brains, which goyim trust because they are to him, with this brain washed one, quite similar in everything.

I must also add that, regarding the two mentioned main directions of recent philosophy, (but also of which is still called today philosophy), despite what I said introductory, yet we directly acted, encouraged positivist and Marxist self-termination of philosophy. Of course, it is true that cannot be influenced on individual thinker. It was easier with religion, because she is also mass phenomenon. But we could also act on philosophy exactly where she is apparently "massive".

We inserted a large number of our intellectuals on universities, where they had opportunities masses of students systematically and permanently poison by scientism (elevates science above other interpretations of life and advocates the elevation of natural sciences over social sciences) and utopianism, cut down in root of their possible philosophical eros.

The consequences are, I hope, for everyone obvious. Not only that we, like never before, started materialistic and pragmatic natural science orientation – on what brother Zion will report us

- but, after all the great revolutions of the 20th century, we even in his second half succeeded, sixty-eight movement (in 1968 A.D.), through our inserted ideologues, to start entire youth army on the wrong direction rebellion and march through institutions, the consequences of which last until today. Our Marxists and university spies, over their miserable goyim student cattle, they succeeded that the face of the world changes. About the details, which are many and extend to a series of lessons, will say another brothers, who are in charge of those areas.

The general spirit of the times also contributed to the decline of philosophy, which, like the spirit of time, is always against the spirit of eternity, the one in which the human spirit and also his roots with his works, and also with philosophy, the Spirit of time, which is mostly determined by us, conflicts with every more serious spiritual activity. When to that we add this kind of "postmodern" - result of our direct efforts, as well as the repercussions of Moderna that we prepared and promoted it - then the fate of philosophy is sealed once again. In postmodern, namely, an eclectic carousel of tastes, styles and opinions, in the unlimited pluralism of universal permissibility, where nothing is mandatory and serious anymore, nothing sacred and untouchable, nothing reserved only for the chosen ones; where, on the contrary, everyone irresponsible and stupid thinks that he can do and think about he likes and what he's glad, - no one else, dear friends, simply not think nothing. In such an environment, you tell me, could philosophy flourish? Therefore, I dare to assert according to difficulties of access and complexity of subject, we do the job like no one else!

ZION or CHEER TO SCIENCE!

Goyim spirit is completely animal. He sees, but does not predict. And his inventions are exclusive material order. Thoughts of the masses

we will continue direct to fantastic theories, innovative and supposedly advanced. Like everyone false idea, and progress serves to darken the truth.

The presentation of brother ZION, was particularly interesting on the way science can serve us. He said the following:

Wise brothers, perhaps you will like my report as some kind of praising science. But you won't be absolutely right. Our relationship with science is actually ambiguous. We don't like her development when she contributes increasing the amount of knowledge about this world, and when technical application is strengthening and makes self-aware goyim people. Science, however, we need in the right way apply, as we did through the 20th century (and, here, we continue to impose science and the scientific worldview), so that can be seen how abundant fruits she can bring for our cause. That's why our brothers were in past period done a lot for the development of scientific research. Many leading scientists were our people. We, of course, compared to the cold rationality and vain empiricism (knowledge gained through observation and experience), we also use all kinds of unscientific, anti-scientific magic and esotericism, hermetics (aggregate of knowledge about secret things) and occultism - but also adapted to our needs – trivialized (used) and freed from all that unadulterated, pure, healthy, which they also contain in themselves.

Let's say, astrology: we reduced it to content of daily entertainment offered by our journalists.

And it serves us only to confirm the lifestyle that we impose on the goyim. Over horoscopes we learn them not to burden themselves with big topics like God and immortality, courage, creativity, rather than incurably spinning in a vicious cycle of youth-health-sex, job-money etc.

But we also made a special magic out of science.

We convinced goyim that science, and only science, some kind of almighty magical action of man on world, sufficient for human salvation, that only she can solve all human problems, and therefore every religion and philosophy is unnecessarily for people, as a path to accurate and true, deeper and higher knowledge. In fact, we have transformed science, useful knowledge into salvation knowledge, which belongs to religion.

Instead of deep insights, we cherish cult of the so-called fact and their mindless accumulation. We encouraged goyim to blindly believe that man everything should and can know, precisely in a way of scientific knowledge, which, of course, is not the knowledge to being and Bitak (material or immaterial existence of a thing).

We have misled superficial and cheap scientism, all questions we declared to be of this world. We made cult of science untouchable and we have shaken faith in the afterlife, in Transcendence (that which is beyond consciousness, beyond its natural limits). We shabbiness everything, despiritualized it, reduced mere material life of the human body in world pure substances. The imposition of superficial enlightenment knowledge helps us to eradicate not only deeper and more thorough knowledge, but also rootedness in values.

As an example, let serve you our procedure "sexual education", which, under the guise of informing the needy, we destroy natural shame, and we abolish orderly, mature and complete sexuality, which does not exist without love, restraint and respect for the human person. That's how we opened to science great doors for our vision to serve us on our business of destroying the world.

In addition, thanks to the nature of science to progress, we have created the appearance of general and constant progress in all areas, we planted the goyim false belief, superstition, according to which over time arise better and better things, and it seems to them that what we are preparing for them is pinnacle of progress. So with myth of progress we literally make them crazy and turn them into insanity slaves who obey to every our will, to every our whim, which we call advanced.

We achieved particular success by subsuming a crazy theory, which, thanks to overemphasized authority of science, acquired the status of unquestionable truths. Well, we do that to them since 19th century. I only remind you on (hypo)theses about monkey origin of man, about the mysterious effect of the economy on all areas of humanity, even to the finest products of spiritual work. After we inspired a very complex, but in basis wrong theory of pansexualism (rejects the fact that there are only two genders), which intelligent and with far-reaching consequences developed by one of our comrades in Austro-Hungarian Monarchy. And what I can tell you; other our colleague, from Ulm, laid the foundations of relativistic physic theory, which served us well in destroying of goyim concept of eternity, and now we are on caution because some goyim began to seriously question it. We put it together even the doctrine of the economy of thought, according to which simpler theory is always true. It belongs here and the ingenious idea of equal truthfulness altogether different, hasty, arbitrary, on claims based on nothing . You know how useful illusions, deceptions, lies could build on such science! Mainly, we had no shortage of crazy theories. Even more than pure science, we served hers technical application. She turned out to be an irreplaceable means of destroying human dignity, complete dehumanization, including the destruction of self-awareness in goyim nations. We encouraged, and we still do today- we encourage irresponsible and improper use of scientific discoveries and inventions. With scientism, we also persistently promoted technicism as a cult of technique and belief in her omnipotence, and her, in any case, positive value sign. We discourage doubts in technical solutions and her morality. We explain it with claims about role of science and technology for the benefit of humanity. Whatever science and technology come up with, it must be good: we don't allow doubts and moral judgments, and we ridicule them as backwardness and theology. How do we work with technique against the goyim? Already with that , as I said, with her, like with scientist, we turn away from the Spirit. We encourage materialism in them. We turn man himself into a kind of machine, a pendant machine techniques. We complicate healthy and pro-life work of technique on man's liberation and strengthening, rather we are working on technology to conquer him, that from creator of technical inventions turn into their creature. Furthermore, we were particularly helped by the development of biologicals science, because they enabled us to directly on human body deny the divine origin of goyim people. It has become possible for us to mock the secrets of life. Our brothers came up with ways to human sexuality make independent from the act of conception of child and childbirth, and thus opens up the way to further brothelization (whoredom) of goyim societies. The biggest credit for that goes to our undead brother who is in the middle of 20th century invented the "anti-baby pill", instrumentality for preventive genocide against the goyim. And for those who still need to be born, who avoided the pill and forced abortion, we figured out how to get rid of them . We introduced a fetus in test tube, a pregnancy in someone else's body... We also came up with a way to goyim reproduce outside of sexually, by manipulation body cells, which we called cloning.

In the future, it will also enable us to mass cultivation identical goyim individuals, genetically modified in advance so that they best suit the different purposes that we have for them. We believe that soon we will make it possible male pregnancy, so let the little goyim for a change men give birth.

MESUQE: Hahaha! Like seahorses!

ZION: Hmmm. In the same way, our brothers are working on terms extinction of men. Until further let goyim only women remain. The possibilities are endless. They do on the one hand, it degrades the dignity of the goyim subhuman, and on the other, paradoxically, his arrogance raise up. He begins to believe that everything is possible for him (in fact, everything is possible for us!), and when it goes against both human nature and God's law.

Great hope we are given by the flourishing of cybernetics, robotics, electronic techniques. It will be easy in the near future feasibly create mixed Cyborg creatures, created by a combination of goyim and electronic devices, chips. We will implant in goyim chips in their brain, how we would completely master their beliefs, thoughts and feelings, and completely capture their will. And again, there will be no end to our imagination! As long as the goyim don't come to an end!

VI.

DOV or TRASH ART, TRASH INTO ART

These are the keys that open the door to literature territory. This area remains closed to many great spirits, who, disobedient to ours orders, they cannot enter it.

The Supreme Sage said: Today we will have a special pleasure - our aesthetic taste will come in. How did we throughout the 20th century, destroyed and finally beat art, our diligent brother Dov will tell us about that.

DOV: There, brothers. Let me briefly anticipate proud of what we had to do and what we finally did . Our goal was to deaden art, to kill in goyim will, feeling and consciousness for the aesthetic, so that they wouldn't have anything nice left, and how would we deprive them of comfort and hope, but also the possibility of ascent into something more ethereal and noble, of everything that beauty brings with herself. So, we worked on making art and artistic, aesthetic values, to cancel them and drown them in the world's garbage dump, and thus disgust the idea of art. Therefore, we abhor their goyim hackneyed culture, on whose production we encourage them! On the other hand, different types of garbage, with the same intention, we reluctantly and shamelessly called it by holy name art. You know, brothers, that the highest art has always existed-was a matter of spirit, of the highest spirits. They created her, but that it could be accepted and evaluated, to understood and enjoy in her, - and for things that man was searched to carry in himself a seed, a core of creative power.

Art was something exceptional and primordial aristocratic.
On the other hand, some of her multi-layered messages were also accessible to ordinary people. For example, a deep metaphysical shock, a sacred message of Beethoven's symphonies or Michelangelo's frescoes, or perhaps Comeille's and Shakespeare's tragedies, not everyone can experience. They are not available to everyone insight into human nature, into the truth of the human mind, what great art mediates to us. But also artistically uneducated, an insensitive person can teach something from a rich palette of colors, solid shapes, clear and melodious melodies, tense, interesting actions, what contain different types of art.
Therefore, traditional art, despite its aristocratic essence, with one of her visions also addressed to many people, , and she gave him what was available. We, on the other hand, made art to lose its own lofty place of spiritual discipline, and at the same time to become incomprehensible and repulsive even to the broad masses of the people.
At the same time, however, we succeeded art, paradoxically, to make banal, plebeian, vulgarity, to completely lower her rank and humiliate her dignity.
All over the world, with the help of cultural imperialism Of our preserved Oases and our media, we have spread different types of cheap mass culture, and treasures of all kinds bad taste, bullshit and pornography, which served us as a instrumentality of promoting dumbing down mythology of happiness and pleasure. That was the essence of our culture revolution, which permeated schools, universities, institutes, and the artistic work almost completely left in her hands to snobs and homosexuals. Not all, exactly. But work continues until complete success.
First, we started encouraging the esoteric, difficult to understand art. At first, valuable works were created in her, accessible only to a few people.
But gradually the artistic rank of that production lowered more and more, so that what remained was mere incomprehensibility without value. That's why we made sure that such a minor works and their authors in public, through our media, without any measure praise and exaltation, and so we created entire armies... uh, what am I saying: whole masses mindless, superficial, fashionable snobs, who the art that we imposed on them continue advertise, shaming those who resisted her as ignorant and primitives.

You will realize, brothers, that when I say this, I have In mind, for example, "new novel", abstract painting and specific music. In the first case, we narrate misunderstandings, we finish the fable, we play with empty words. In painting, we liquidated the subject plan, turned the object, the subject, and the image into a pure play area colors and shapes without external meaning. In music, however, we worked on it (and we had in 20th century, musicians that were our brothers!) to remove the beautiful melody, without which access to deeper layers of music is difficult. We gradually developed atonality (words that don't have tonal (height) accent), which, when she became independent, becoming from legitimate one artistic means goal by itself, directly opened the way the penetration ugly into music, which was our final goal.

Along destruction of classical music, we also worked on breakthrough of new, popular directions, designed specifically for lower layers and for youth. Here on first place comes so-called jazz, originally music of African nigger slaves, who conquered the world through America, and it's described by nervousness, boredom and ugliness, so everything we need in our business of destroying goyim souls, in order to goyim became dependent and submissive cattle to us.

Of course, we paid special attention to music work with youth, in constant agreement with our departments for the destruction of goyim youth and families. It worked in the past century encourage development of many styles of popular, pop music, whose common denominator is encouragement unbridled sexuality, extravagance, promiscuity, drug addiction, even satanism. Through music, as well in general, through modern life, we transfer as much as possible vicious and dangerous, unbearable, destructive, senseless noise. Replacing the melodious tone with an aggressively loud one sound, we goyim deny silence. We do not provide his right to quiet hours. We make him always hear something, something ugly, of course. And that man after all always more or less make crazy and make him eligible for our interventions.

The collapse of aesthetic taste and artistic level we have contributed a lot by spreading kitsch and shund (low-quality creativity that aims to appeal to as many people as possible and to sell as many as possible), in what as I said, the brothers who are in charge for media provided us with invaluable help. I don't know what we could do if there were no mass

tools available to everyone, such as radio and TV, which literally non-stop bomb entire nations with the lowest and most disgusting "artistic" contents!

I take this opportunity to thanks to brothers who are in charge for misuse media!

We managed to harness art to our wain especially incorporating into the matrix of hideous and ugly - selfishness, affected, bad, cruel, violent, rude, lascivious, scandalous, obscene elements, good for causing shock and scandal, which after a certain time are replaced with insensitivity, and then to the conscious and willful acceptance of swineherds that we offer as something "modern" and "advanced", and therefore valuable. We convinced goyim that there is nothing wrong with pornography.

We completely bordelized (bawd) art.

Our Hollywood collaborators - and we have legions of them, because

Hollywood is ours! – they were from the first decades of the 20th century imperceptibly introduced a custom, moreover an obligation, a canon, that movie must end with a passionate kiss. Over time we managed to turn the kiss obligation into obligatory sex scene. We show it in literally to every picture, and through TV we bring it into homes during the day, when may be viewed by underage children. It is unnecessary to special mention how that small thing helped us in the destruction of chastity and family, and corruption goyim descendants.

Of course, with persistent and vile actions through the media, we convinced actresses that undressing in front of the cameras, even on the stage boards, that that soft shape of prostitution, is actually a matter of honor and requirement of artistic professionalism. And all this is accompanied by strong promoting of promiscuity and independent sexuality through film, theater and TV. And we complement it with related offers ~ terror and sodomy, exhibitionism, sadomasochism, self-mutilation of lunatics, patients fall sick from the AIDS, on stage, with good prospects that their their blood infects the deluded audience etc. Movie also provides us with an excellent opportunity for promotion racial mixing, anti-fascism, and leftist ideas in general

. The film, with its suggestive power, manipulates the goyim more effectively than it could all our lying flyers and perverted arguments.
In general, with movies we encouraging goyim to lead a disorderly life and decadent behavior, and subsequently those effects, also with movie instrumentally, we describe and silently justify. Namely, pretending to be naive, we say that movie only shows real life, as it is.
But we made it the way it is!
What is left for us to do is the pornification of the presenters art to extreme consequences. Hard porn on movie has been self-explanatory for a long time.
But prostitutes perform there. However, they are still in our efforts to persuade ordinary, "honest" actresses in an unacted, sexual act in movie and theater, and especially in opera. We are also working on that members of the orchestra perform naked in front of the audience, and while performing music in places and events there would be obscene intermezzi (entracte). We would like to introduce animals into the game, let's say horses or dogs, suitable for Sodom relationship with artists on stage. it's not easy, but we're trying.
And strong faith is important: how we managed everything else, will we also all other succeed.
And, finally, just one more word about architecture.
We worked on her to be lost all trace of the majestic sublimity that adorn her in heroic epochs. Just think on Egyptian pyramids and Greek temples, to Gothic cathedrals or great Wall of China! For two centuries, thanks to the plebeian and materialistic spirit that we spread, there are no more comparable undertakings. Our comrades, on the other hand, worked on the project of converting the majestic architecture into trivial (irrelevant) construction. We introduced it under the guise under the name of architectural Modernism. We created works functional, even attractive at first glance harmony and simplicity. But we were counting on it that pleasure is short breath: as soon as molt layer of plaster and building darkens, it is flooded with moisture and the city unclean (impurity), it will look like the ugliest old building. That architectural garbage largely dominates in urban goyim agglomerations (densely populated urban area formed by the gathering of surrounding settlements with the associated city into a larger whole), in order to disfigure their life environment and further reduced their self-awareness. There you see, and let someone say that we were lazy and careless!
SUPREME SAGE: Certainly, dear brother Dove, you and your co-workers have complete right on your well-deserved pride, but remember, how you mentioned, job is not yet finished! So, after this our meeting, forward to new victories!

VII.

EPHRAIM or THE WAR AGAINST LANGUAGES

Chatters have the right to speak, and journalists are allowed to write any nonsense

The supreme sage then gave the word to sage Ephraim, who spoke about the successes in the field of abuse language. Here are his words:

Famous sages! It seems natural to all that we had the most success in that area, which is entrusted to the care to one of us. Congratulations on your valuable presentations so far. But I am convinced that I have particularly good reasons to believe that with language is mostly done. Because, wonderful God's instrumentally of expressing the truth we have turned, through the Government and institutions subjected to us, and especially through our media, by systematic looting, into the most reliable instrument of lies and deception. From the language we made a caricature, a perverted monster (Schein). We made him meaningless, and thus completely filled it with that kind of meaning that we intended for him. Allow me let me briefly explain how we achieved this. First of all, I have to admit that it worked for us contemporary cult of language. Recent philosophy has created the spiritual atmosphere in which it has become normal to claim that there is no opinion outside of language, to think only in language, and what is said (even tacitly) or written (even and illiterate), only that is thought. Don't need this teaching, please, equate with Heidegger's the idea of language as the "house of Being= material or immaterial existence of a thing". Here, namely, it's about the deeper, mystical role of the primordial language in bringing people closer together to the Thing itself. This, what I have in mind, is a positivist, superficial philosophy of language which distances us from the Being and from Thing, lying that language, as an apparent thought, leads to them. And from that false philosophy of language only one step away was until use of language in the service of lies. Language converted in blasphemy he helped us in our fight against God.

MESUQE: Enough of that metaphysics! Speak clearly so that we all understand!

EPHRAIM: I think I speak clearly for everyone. But here I'm done with this inevitable introduction. Just I must mention that we also worked on old plantations Greek sophistry, the skill of deception, proving anything with apparent reasons, and of course we based the work on the key features of human nature, on tendency of human beings to cheat and be cheated, on duplicity, hypocrisy, insincerity and deceit. And our work, my friends, was successful! Because, throughout all 20th century, language really played a huge role in the service of untruth and impute lies for truth. We devalued great God's gift - human language. This is also reflected in special circumstances, that word honorable, chivalrous word, besa- as Albanians call it, who also some of them were murdered for her - that therefore the word that man gives as a guarantee for his agreeing with truth, not even as worthless bean is worth anymore, and at least in court, where they laugh at her. Yes, man in advance swears that he will only tell the truth, but people don't believe him, and with reason (thanks to us for that!).

Allow me, brothers, just a few illustrations. We invented and permeated all aspects of human activity with her all sights of human activity, so-called baby talk, Donald Duck speech, simplified speech with which we dumb down the victim, is a moment through the suggestive action of this type of speech we infantilize and we turn him into a mindless child, making it easier for us to deliver him desired contents. But we also encourage victim to use children's speech, which includes that she is always careful and hesitant in her verbal statements insecure and shy. By doing so, we discourage her and prevent her from speaking truth and represent justice.

Another example is what George Orwell in his famous negative utopia »1984« he called newspeak, news talk. Orwell understood our very well our methodology, but he could not harm us, because goyim mostly read his writings as an entertaining and scientific fantasy, or they interpreted him only as a satire on the account of soon deceased Stalinism. During that time, it worked for us to fill all areas with new speech, especially the world of politics. Trick is simple: we change meanings of words. This is directly contrary to Chinese Confucianism wisdom, which requires "rectification of words", calling things with it's name, to be establish harmonious order in the world. We, on the other hand, simply mark thing with a word that otherwise serves for what is contrary in that thing: war is peace, slavery is freedom, love is hate, and vice versa etc. Look, what our army committed in the service of New World Order in Iraq. We expressed it in the words of an American president, who is our diligent puppet. We occupy Iraq to fulfill our goals, we destroy people's land, we slaughter children, we bomb weddings, and at the same time we blow into their heads how we bring peace to them, progress and freedom. And the genocide against the Iraqi people we call it "collateral damage". But that's already so well-established, that it is even trivial to talk about it. True and critical speech, on the other hand, which cares about accuracy knowledge and fair assessment of subject, we success vilified him as hate speech. You will hear about it later at the next meeting, but I also have to say a few words. Whoever, therefore, dares to attack some scumbag or indecency, whoever use stronger arguments, or rather polemically raise his tone, he has count on murderous answer that he is unbearable, and that he spread hate. As soon as someone starts defend himself, we accuse him of being a chauvinist, racist, sexist or something else, according to composition and need. (We also do with the nations: if they resist inrush of the exotic foreigners, which we send to countries to destroy their national indentity, we immediately declare those nations as chauvinist and racist.) That method helped us to establish emotional terror over goyim, and to shut up a huge number of our opponents, and in many cases, we neutralized them through court processes, and sequent imprisonment. We especially persecute "denying, belittling or justifying" the Holocaust - Auschwitz, myth that we invented ourselves, moreover, Turned him into a religion, attacking everything that Opposes her, as the climax of hate speech. True, we must install rigorous pro-Jewish legislation in countries where we don't have it yet. And word-bludgeon are also available for us. First we called fascism the greatest evil in world history, and then we encourage everything that is not good to us we call it "fascism", and thus becomes repulsive and disgusting - without any arguments or reasons. Sometimes word "communism" we use as a scarecrow, but far less, because communism made us great services, and in future we still count on one of his forms. That's why we kept the word "fascism". in the sense of absolute evil, and "communism" we mark only cheating, embezzlement, tricks, political monopoly, therefore all that he was; but his essence - the doctrine of general equality and the perfect society, with that derogatory word "communism".

we do not include, because for us utopia and lie of equality we still very much needed for our one world country.

On the contrary, the heinous crimes that we organize and encourage, we call neutral or positive names,

-euphemisms (when someone is lying we don't call him liar, we say he don't say truth).

So, murder by violence abortion

we call "termination of pregnancy", or even by name

»right to choice«, which in democratic age it passes particularly smoothly, and clears the conscience of mothers who killed their children through abortion, which we induce to that crime. All vices - homosexuality, prostitution, pornography and others, we show as alternative lifestyles, legitimate tastes about which is not discussed, and whole confusion we create in scale of values, by their negation and reversal, we call praiseworthy freedom, liberation, humanism and pluralism.

However, perhaps the most important success we achieved was the establishment of world language, which is in direct service of our project Holy World (Democratic) Empire of American Nations (to use expression of one of our blood enemy). It worked for us for all time reject any thought on possible introduction of Latin language as a universal tool for the international communication. That was out of the question already because of our enmity towards Rome, as classical,

as well as Catholic. An attempt at the artificial language Esperanto, which was compiled by our worthy comrade Zamenhof, it did not have the desired effect, and other are similar attempts were even less fortunate. That's why it was most profitable for us into the universal language, into the koine dialectos of globalism, promote precisely American English, in order to made people more vulnerable during the campaign of American Imperialism. American English we promoted not only in the language of the world, but also of the whole cosmos. In our science fiction production, literary and in film, androids from the farthest space galaxies also speak American.

Through language

all other values of Americanism is easy to bring to other nations. For that purpose it was important for us to wage decisive war against smaller nationalities and regional speeches. We are carrying out planned and systematic glottophagy (endangerment of smaller languages compared to larger and more widespread ones), language-eating, because it rang a bell for the people (they are destroyed)

when we crush their language. We already crushed hundreds of languages, and the remaining ones are wiped out in the next period. We suggest to small nations that they don't need to insist on their own lexicon, on their own language specificities, and that is good for them to accept (international American) language for love of better understanding, and in the meantime, as much as possible, some similar languages we mix. We Americanize the remaining languages, that tomorrow we could tell the nations that they don't have special language, and so that they are not nation anymore, but that they to integrate into larger units. And all those who dare to establish some kind of institutes and pass laws in defense of their own language, we condemn as the blackest chauvinists and fascists.

And just one more word, although our Comrades are talking about it , each one from his own point of view: and we, who deal with language, we worked throughout all 20th century to spread out one ethos of chatter has become established: dialogue, discussion, polemics, debates, exchanges of so-called opinions (but actually just commonly opinions, unfounded prejudices and mediocre stupidity), finally – inflator (it causes) (mis)use of language; ethos of the parliament, public forum. Because, what more they babbles, the less it is learned and work. We let goyim to speak, and during that time, we do what we want and what benefits us, we do for their damage. Therefore they gab, because they don't know how to be silent neither how to think, they are conceited and convinced that through mere chatter they discover deepest wisdom, but at the same time they don't listen each other, they don't understand each other, they create their own misunderstandings and unconsciously accept the ones we impose on them, they interrupt each other only that one of them can start speaking and enjoy the vanity of their speech. But that's why we listen, we listen to them as they stretch, and we, the only true sages, listen to the voice of our mission. The Supreme Sage thank to brother Ephraim, on those words and in his previous work, and said him that he continue where his services left off, because job, no matter how well done, is not finished yet.

VIII.

PHILISTEIUS or ZOMBIZATION

The goyim have made up with their minds without our scientific instructions. Therefore they do not know meaning of some things. Unlearned people blindly believes everything what we print (what our press say), and they trust in fake doctrine that w, instilled in them. Clean animal goyim intellect is incapable examine in detail concept and for observation. Apparently they look like tigers but actually they have sheep's souls, and their heads are completely empty.

As usual, the Supreme Sage opens the session with a few appropriate words opens the session, and this time he gives word to brother Philisteius.

PHILISTEUS: Let me explain to you, brothers of Zion what means word from the title of my presentation. By zombification we call the transformation goyim subhumans into something even less , into so-called zombies. This expression we borrowed from folks Haitian religion Voodoo (voodoo, voodoo, voodoo). It is actually African magic, with the addition of Roman Catholic elements brought by the French colonizers. That religion is nice to us because it perverts the ingredients of the Catholic faith, uses magical rites and procedures, witchcraft and magic against witchcraft (but she herself is from witches!), and believes in a multitude spirits (loa), for which is not known whether they are native or African gods, or they are spirits of ancestors, or Catholic saints. What are you going to better twists and mock of Christianity! It's also good that Voodoo foresees female clergy (we call their female priests mambo), which we still do not succeed to do with Vatican! Believers unite in trance with invited demons, whom they show various kinds of help, but they can also harm them.

So that this my speech don't turn into a lecture on exotic religions, here is what is important: a special place in Voodoo magic takes the procedure by which the dead who have been dug up from the grave are brought to life and they are processed in such a way that, neither the living nor the dead - better said, like the living dead, listless automatons ~ they can perform slave labor in the fields. Voodoo priests sometimes inject special poison into victims skin. But this procedure only zombifies the dead for a few hours. Permanent effects, on the other hand, are achieved only by magically action.

Well, dear brothers, we are some kind of voodoo priestess, who is engaged in production of zombies, "undead". Of course, we don't use poisons, neither we deal with magic. But with different methods, applied through education and school, through written, audio and TV media, through certain forms of decadence goyim culture - we systematically vultures (goyim) brain washing them

, we weaken their will and self-awareness, we spoil their character, we manipulate their emotions. We learned them that, as soon as passions manifest themselves, we will declare them mental sick people, so they are afraid. We censor some feelings, we stifle, forbid, declare impious, and some, those harmful to the goyim, to encourage. We introduced some kind of informal emotional inquisition, and soon we plan to create a real emotional police, which will carry out the orders of emotional legislation. It's our interest that goyim more afraid and be angry as much as possible, that they worry, that they clash with each other, that they are sad and depressed, to be slaves of lower greed... But, some expressions of hatred, anger and sadness will very likely to be found on list of prohibited acts. Especially joy! In order to get goyim blackguard out of their heads hatred towards what we don't allow to hate, and also different types of behavior that aren't allow to be called as hate , we introduced a general ban of "hate speech". This is how we train the goyim not to be passionate patriot, that he must not protect his people from mixing with other breeds (races), above all, that he must not recognize the enemy (we allow ours to hate, but in a decent form, to be more invisible while implementing our program), and that he must not even oppose. So prepared, he is powerless against our action: we do to him what we want , but his cattle mouth we shut up the that he can not cry out for help and express his healthy disapproval on our terror. As soon as goyim just opens his mouth to give an honest, spontaneous a break, to say what lies on his heart, we immediately shout: Hate speech! Hate speech! We succeeded by creating conditional reflexes that already itself accusation seems frightening enough, but we are working on it that she is often followed by a real punishment. Anyway, by suppressing goyim hate speech, we do not teach him to love. We only teach him to become faceless and lukewarm, incompetent for self-defense, totally useless but usable for our sacred purpose, in one word - zombie. In this procedure, so-called zombification literature is very important to us. We request from goyim to change, more precisely, to throw out from all those places in their books which we detected as hatred. This includes all the ugly things that Marlowe, Shakespeare or Dickens wrote about SuperNation or Tolstoy about Gypsies. All the novels that hate women are also on impact, especially we have already heard here, we demand that New Testament is cleansed from the places where they attack us, that we killed their

God or that neither in life nor after death didn't accepted him.
All of this is true, and there is nothing wrong with it , except that it causes antipathies, which hinder us in our work.
We dumb down them and fool them so that they can't anymore understand what is truth and justice. We spread, not only in philosophy, but in the overall spirit of Postmodernism, including publications belonging to her, in moral and in politics, and especially in aesthetics - skepticism and agnosticism, pluralism and eclecticism (eclectic is a man who takes and adopts everything that seems right to him): everything is true, and therefore nothing is true. We achieve this confusion, by encourage and flowering countless opinions, intellectual garbage in which atmosphere arise endless exhausting tensions (but correct, without hate, please!), vainly spiteful criticism that doesn't lead to anything good.
We shape goyim and train them, change their nature, so that they become like living dead, unwilling objects , lukewarm and soft submissives, slaves without their own personalities, - living dead: alive physically, but mentally and spiritually buried. They are just vegetate, like plant.
We call them free ghosts (open-minded), enlightened (enlightened).
We created a new personality: softened and lukewarm. She is always polite, self-deprecating, nice with everyone fine; don't get angry, don't raise her voice, don't engage in conflicts (not "conflict", as we like to call it), our zombie doesn't love anyone, and even less he is capable for hating. He doesn't even hate his neighbor not any unknown man to him (except when we direct him to do that), he doesn't hate women (if our zombie is woman, we allow her a dose of hate towards a man, because what man did to her, as we teach her , savagely exploited throughout history), our zombie doesn't hate other peoples, races and classes, he doesn't even hate himself . He is trained not to disturb peace that we are establishing at any cost. And all those characteristics act infectious effect on the environment, which imitates and takes them over as their own. So shaped goyim match exactly to ideal we need. They are shaped according to our measure, to be obedient to us and to serve us.
Opportunism, conformism, careerism entered in their blood. They become scary and blackmailable, we eradicated from them pride and honor. They are humiliated and humble, they are afraid to think with their own head and they are strictly forbidden to engage in questions truth and justice (knowledge of the world and correct behavior in it), because, if he tries something, he disturbs peace. If someone tries to adopt freedom that is worthy to man, we accuse him for encouraging world terrorism.

MESUQE: I don't understand why goyim are needed to dumb down and turn into slaves, when they already are fools and slaves anyway!

PHILISTEI: Well the right one has answered! You don't understand many things.
But, let it be, the question is not that bad. They are stupid, but we make them even more stupid. They are slaves, but we finish them off to be even more enslaved. it's not easy, but we can do it too!
Divine skill, isn't it?

But we implanted in them false consciousness that tells them the opposite of present-day situation: namely, that they are free, dignified and happy, and that they are in possession of the true knowledge and righteous life, and above all – because they think nothing - that they have their own opinion. Isn't that great?! And that's why they are satisfied slaves, who do not rebel, because every urge for justice has been eradicated from them
. We subjugated them gently, so they don't even notice, otherwise they would rise up to resistance, as they did it (as soon as they silenced fear in themselves) at time when we oppressed them with open terror. It would be more harmless to oppose us now , but their rebellious instinct is stunted. With everything they agree, they are endlessly tolerant in fear what others will say, what will say friend or enemy, what will someone say phantom "world" (and that's us!). They protest only then when we want and when we incite them, to use them to weaken and destroy their still more self-aware governments.

The zombie we create from goyim, that is our »New man". Human efforts have always been tried to create a "new man": from the alchemical homunculus and converted born-again Christian, till modern "total man" and Superman.

But, one thing we succeeded to achieve, despite their God.
Again we created the creativity. And as soon as it is there zombie-individual, it's just a matter of extra effort and time when entire zombie nations will be surrounded, up to the global goyim zombie-humanity under our command, which was and remains ours highest goal.

Instead of love, we learn "political correctness".
She is some kind of equivalent of forbidden hate speech . In failed communist institutions, political correctness we called party suitability, and hate speech we called enemy propaganda. See how our methodology is no different, whatever we used: communism or democracy! Our soul engineers have achieved big influence on goyim personality, which obeys as soon as she hears something that is opposite to nice. If some goyim don't want to be correct, we immediately impose a sense of guilt on him and declare him as "conflict personality", which there's no place to exist in normal civilized society. Blame forces him to always apologizing: I'm sorry, I'm sorry! That apology instilled in them from early age. Also apologize their politicians, weighted by our media for each little thing, and their Pope has already apologized almost for the entire history of his Church: for Inquisition, and for Crusades, and for persecution of our witches, and for anti-Semitism, And for I don't know anymore - what you heard from sage Antichrist. On the other way, we here take one's cue from old "terror of virtue", which was carried out by ours rebels and Freemasons, and we are misleading, as one of our enemy said, the "dictatorship of the good". Behaving politically correct, of course, the goyim don't understand how we enforced our will and our monopoly, because we convinced him that what he truly is doing is "moral politics". Political correctness is actually somewhat grotesque so-called caricature good manners. She wants to get out of politics all deeper and sharper conflicts, asks for renunciation from heated debate, from any serious polemic. On the other hand she requires a particularly gentle attitude towards so-called minorities: religious, secular, class, racial, national, sexual (homosexuals, zoophiles...), health (AIDS patients). Every frown on minorities we call slavery prejudices and hate speech, and we force goyim to love even the most extreme oddish groups, which for this purpose we actually call in life. We are particularly nimble at the following: we prohibit any highlighting of minority markers: for example, no one can't refer Jew as a Jew, homosexual as homosexual, a woman as a woman, because he discriminates them on that way. Such violators of our laws we successfully vilified as "anti-Semites", "homophobes" and "sexists". But at the same time they must be mentioned as members of minority, "suppressed" groups, otherwise they can't realize their minority-human rights! Therefore we are forcing goyim to live with these contradictions and absurdities, as well as with the fear of accidentally breaking the norm. All this is to completely driving them crazy and idiotizing them, and at the same time diverting attention from needs and interests of those who are normal, therefore primarily their people. In this way, we correctness towards minorities, we achieve injustice towards the majority.

Being politically correct means respecting taboos. We did in the meantime, of course, de-tabooed all sexual weirdness , question that matters life and death, goyim religion, etc. Everything is allowed to speak, about evil as good, about good as evil. But we introduced new taboos. Political correctness demands from goyim to unconditionally refrain from criticizing women, parliamentarism, Supernation (Israel) and Oasis. These last ones is, on the other hand, allowed to attack other peoples, but they don't do it openly, because it is enough to secretly work on their heads, dissemble their own goals with rhetoric about making happy barbarians with democracy, fight against terrorism and related shenanigans. If, on the other hand, goyim dares to attack their opponent ad hominem (attempt to deny the truth of some statement by pointing to the negative characteristics or beliefs of person who made such statement), he committed a mortal sin. Attack ad hominem is allowed only ours, but they don't have needs to particularly insult goyim, it is important that they destroy them and exterminate - even with method zombification , about what I am speaking to you today. We force Goyim to be correct in order to dumb them down and blackmail them; if you are incorrect, evil will come to you! But we paralyze them with that by dumbing down, so that they cannot defend themselves from us. But, we ourselves perform sympathetically and politely, so that cattle doesn't recognize us, and doesn't reveal our real intentions.

IX.

ISRAEL or GOD THE FLESH

Those chickens fall asleep as soon as they are satiate with blood, and then it is easy to chain them.

I think that today you will all be satisfied and approve the speech of our sage Israel, who will tell you in detail, describe how we take care of the welfare of cattle bodies, how we treat them, train, heal them and glorify them, hahaha - announced the Supreme Sage cheerfully.

ISRAEL: For a long time, brothers, we have been preparing goyim to reject any thought of the afterlife, on eternity and spiritual values. To lose their will for them, but also to have lack of time for them. To become incapacitated for normal life in family and community, in nation and in state, to pamper them, to make them unprepared for sacrifice, and thus self-defense. The spirit is tough, unfortunately, we all know that. In addition, he blows where he wants and where you don't expect him. And yet, for the most part, we have secularized the vermin and instilled in them the anti-spirit of materialism: things, flesh, bodies. If they are poor, they break down their heads how once they will succeed to get drunk and overeat: in such head has no room for noble visions and subtle (perspicacious) thoughts. If we allowed them to get rich, together with that wealth we also gave them worry to preserve it and multiply it. Fall in love in money, they easily fall in love with all material objects that can be acquired with money. They spend their whole lives messing around with houses, cars, wardrobes...

All this must be as big as possible, better, to leave an impression on his rival and cause his envy.

And above all, he must please his own body, for whom all these colorful antics are bought: so that he can enjoy in them, to feel comfortable, to cultivate haughty conceit. When we once made the goyim feel pity, love or take care of his body, we have done half the work. Body cult is one of our dearest and most precious long-term projects. He enables us, or make us much easier both zombification and brothelization (whoredom) and encouragement on use of decadence.

In this process, the ideology of hedonism is important to us.

Superficial goyim scribbles started, in the meantime, use the word "hedonism" as if it means carnal pleasure. But pleasure is not the problem. Pleasure - when carnal (physically) (or mentally) we simply feel good - it can be the consequence of virtuous life, fulfilling duties, respecting the will of God. A problem for them, and a success for us, arises when the pleasure of the body becomes supreme value and life goal. And that's exactly what hedonism means.

Every pig can enjoy its mud, but only man can declare that mud as the highest good. Well, that we instill in cattle. We impose them ethos of frenzy on them physical comfort. We teach them that the body does not represent other than a pleasure machine. While it provides them with pleasure, they love and exalt the body. When body, because of excessive abuse, stunted, then they get angry, hate him, so that they would be freed from pain and hatred and found for them compensation, they continue to take care of their body and they please him. This creates a vicious circle in which the body becomes from temple of soul, even of his dungeon, an idol that brings a curse on goyim.

We achieve the divinization (giving "divine" characteristics to some "earthly" person, entity, group or activity) of the body in goyim population primarily through our media. Through our different media, of any kind magazines and TV, suggestive and aggressive advertising, and especially through so useful to us film art (which is already today for the most part in our hands!), that's how we impose them mythology of physical health and beauty, so that even the sickest and ugliest ones can't resist. With that procedure we, first of all, rob them. What do you think, how much in total our journalists and publicists earn money, also quack, masters of toxic pharmaceutical industry, beauticians, massage therapists, manicurists, pedicurists, hairdressers, cosmetic surgeons and other employees our grandiose industry of destroying the world?

But, apart from the fact that we rob goyim like that, we sow among them illusions about perfect health, eternal youth, irresistible physical beauty, we turn them away from more important and valuable life contents, and finally, we actually physically destroy them with those same things, that we offer them for life and health: exercises, diets, or harmful medical surgery.

The body can enjoy itself only if it is young and healthy. That is why we also inculcate goyim an additional cult of youth and health - but not in order to have in healthy body be healthy spirit, but in order to healthy, young body served itself, completely suppressing the mental and spiritual life of its bearer. Therefore, it is important to stay young and when getting old. We instill an illusion to old women of eternal youth, so we laugh at them when they appear in public half-naked. The old man, who was in earlier times respected for his wisdom and strict authority - let's just think of our prophets and then let's look at ourselves! - in goyim populations we rule we have reduced to a caricature man, a semi-idiot, a miserable pensioner, burden of family, unnecessary creature that deserves only to be banished to nursing home and who deserves children's mockery. The old man is near death, his body is weak and sick, so he has no value as an instrument sexual and love pleasures, enjoyment in eating and drinking, material happiness in general. Abolition of the traditional old man helped us in our job of destroying goyim communities, their wonderful order and healthy upbringing that rests on awe.

Youth, if we deftly seduce it, is easily indulged with fornication and depression and distracts from everything important. In addition youth is rebellious, revolutionary, which we use in order to harness them to our useful goals. Especially we achieved beautiful effects by inculcating the cult of youth and physical beauty in a woman, which is her nature she is more prone to narcissism, vanity, arrogance and fornication. Convinced how young and beautiful she is, and how she should remain so, she manifests a miracle of suitability regarding to our intentions. First, therefore, we make her her selfish, self-infatuated. In order to constantly receive confirmation of her beauty, she changes men, which makes her incapable for marriage and family. She experiences her husband as a servant and a machine for acquisition necessary money, and her children are painful load, so them, if she even allowed them to give birth, she ignores them and raises badly.

We encourage men to participate in sports activities, in order to their bodies became muscular and athletic. They think it's good for them it makes them more masculine, but it's actually disgusting and funny. That's how we bring to the ground self-conceit and dignity of goyim subhuman. However, on our own great surprise, we managed to do it recently and with their wives. And they also started to devote themselves to "body building" and wasting countless hours in gyms, exercising on the machines like crazy, just to mutilate their body into a monstrous muscle, and we prank them that it makes them more beautiful!

Hahahaha! We really didn't believe in our success there! And regarding men, we have made them fools devotees of religion sport. Or we encourage them to actively do sport themselves in unconsciousness, which harms not only their spirit but also their beloved body - so they get sick from specific diseases and die young - or else we force them to passively observe sports, that it seems to them, how watching transmission soccer matches, learning the rules of the game, names of footballers and the results of matches going backwards five decades, they themselves become champions of the ball.

We have removed from sport everything that could affect Ennoble him: religious and spiritual dimension, as it he had during the Greek Olympics and other competitions solemnity. We robbed from sport his stylishness: we polluted him with drugs, doping, connected grotesque enriching athletes with money laundering performed by bureaucratized sports officials. Finally, we took away from sports competitions the only thing that can add a certain meaning as mass entertainment; national-symbolic content. National victory in the competition, which symbolically represents war conflict, namely, can very well serve for national identification, encouragement of national pride, strengthening national will. But, can sports games fulfill that role if we transformed the national teams into united nations, colorful societies collected from some exotics former colonies? So sport at the same time also serves us to promote multi-culturalism and melting down national consciousness.

We don't just destroy goyim's body through sports, but also through medicine. Medicine has advanced so much for us, that there is no longer a healthy person. We imposed on goyim cult of health, but along the way we convinced them that they all are sick. This is taken care of by our promotion through all our media. We taught them that they cannot do nothing to for their health (except what actually harms them, like senseless and dangerous diets, which fall for especially vain women), and we hand them over to mercy and disfavor of the medics, even for the smallest disorders that disappear spontaneously. Treatment with them usually very expensive, and the usual therapies, hospital stay (environment full of ill people and microorganisms), depression and fear that follows the patient - they take care of that goyim really get sick in the end, like that young man in Davos Thomas Mann. Because it turned out to be true that series of diseases-pathogenic - they are caused by medicine itself. It's enough just to think on entire legies of the uneducated, the incompetent and immoral doctors, and on harmful consequences of millions of so-called cures that enrich our pharmacology. However, we are working on that, sick, disappointed and unhappy goyim live as long as possible. That's how he will suffer longer, and disrupt the demographic pyramid: few young people will have to earn money for the mass of inactive old people. Politics consequences of this imbalance are incalculable. In order to make from body a cult object, and at the same time humiliate and devalue him, we thought that it would be good for us to force goyim to decorate themselves with a tattoo, which, thanks to our god Holo, is taking more and more among cattle. Before it was limited to uneducated primitives, and now more civilized part of the population surrenders to him, including women. Ancient peoples tattooed themselves for the same reason amulets are worn - to protect themselves from accidents, diseases, any kind of evil. Now we have achieved that with tattoos goyim beautify themselves. To the same purpose is served ridiculous and harmful fashion of drilling holes in the body (piercing), in order to insert small metal pieces into them. Traditionally, female (or pirate's) ears were inserting earrings, and nigger women put ring in their nose. Now goyim bodies are being degraded by piercing everywhere, especially in the genital areas, and are filled with metal. MESUQE: But our women are also drilling themselves in Oasis and in America. And not only that, Supernation is also infected with what we are talking about here that we have come up against goyim cattle. Aren't there hermaphrodites and decadents among our people?

They also perform at music festivals.

ISRAEL: Oh my brother! I know you're stupid, but I still want to answer you, for here presented sages and for our people.

Well, you sure noticed correctly. I guess we have to suffer something for the final victory. We are not isolated either from the world we control, no matter how much we fence ourselves with various walls. But everyone remember one thing: troubles we create to goyim will never completely take over us. We are made of different material. And, what is special important, we are protected and cleansed by continuous state of war in which we are. We are at war in the Oasis, but also outside her, against the whole world! It is guarantor of our health and our eternal youth!

ISRAEL: Allow me, brothers, to return to the subject and to bring this speech to end. Egyptian mummies were also tattooed, but they prepared themselves with it for after death, for eternity. Now goyim are tattooed in order to their bodies be more attractive in time, in order to hijack them from death. That's why we balsam them: our modern goyim mummies do not express eternal triumph over death, but the triumph of seemingly eternal earthly life. We don't let their leader go to death, but we balsam him and put in the shopwindow, let them enjoy him like if he's still alive. We have recently opened the possibility of hibernation to them, deep freezing of the body, so that it melts in some future, more advanced time and continued his eternally young and indestructible material, earthly, physical life.

Even more than a tattoo, however, their bodies we turn into artistic material by painting.

The body replaces the painter's canvas. It is important that body in that purpose must be naked, fornication effect. We do the same in a movie (in a serious movie, not only in porn!), but also in theater, and recently even in ballet and opera: we introduce naked bodies goyim women, rarely men, and we try to be, as often as possible, used for direct sexual acts in front of the audience.

They are still a little shy and resist, but not for long!

Thus, under the guise of art, we use bodies for promotion fornication. And please keep this in mind: we at the same time don't depict bodies as in traditional painting or sculpture. We don't express other content with them, as in acting, which also uses body movements.

No, we just literally use them as art content. In the meantime, we also do this with dead bodies.

One our favorite German artist some baron, who peels off skin from male and female corpses, and remains of their corpses he balsam to turn them into amazing works of art.
 We also achieve a certain artistic impression by transforming bodies in commercial panels: we bring goyim in front of TV cameras, or, if he's athlete, wedress him up like a circus performer, and we stick advertisements for Coca-Cola or cigarettes... I know, I know, Mesuqe, I can already see what you want to say! We no longer advertise cigarettes in order to goyim see us as moral, but at the same time we promote more easily that is more harmful than cigarettes. It's not important, something is advertising with body , owner of body earns his own, but we even more, and his dignity is mocked. And finally one particular nice example: some crazy goyim came up with an idea - and now his example will become a school - he transformed himself into a tiger. Yes, tiger, why are you looking at me Mesuqe?! He tattooed his whole body with tiger colors and stripes, he went to plastic surgery to shape his face to be like cat's appearance, I think they transplanted his tail and improved his teeth-fangs, and I guess there are also some metal inserts. Or at least sharp claws.
 Man is reduced to body, this time on tiger's, and the body on an object, on the object of media curiosity. We will work on that soon we will have whole armies of people-crocodile, people-monkeys, cockroaches (in style of "Gregor Sams"), rats, worm, and a woman-cow or a woman-snake. We gave them the right to freely choose a lifestyle, I guess they will be grateful to us!

JUDAS or BORDELIZATION (whoredom)

Their youth is spoiled by premature debauchery.

When the Supreme Sage announced the topic, MESUQE immediately jumped up and said: I am ashamed to hear about such things. Can I go out until you finish?

SUPREME SAGE: Look, look! It's a shame to listen to you how we destroy cattle! How you are not ashamed that you are ashamed on that! Sit there, shut up and listen! You know very well that we are all obliged to attend sessions, no exceptions. Brother, start!

JUDAH: Magnificent brothers of Zion, famous sages!

We have done everything, we are doing everything and we will continue to do it
 - so god Holo helped me! - from goyim do-calves (baby cows) ! But he should be worse than animal, which actually is neither good nor bad. As a man, he should live with life of an animal, and that's the worst, because by that he betrays his own human mission.

There is no better way - congratulations to all of you and yours famous Departments - but the best way to achieve this is, get involved in goyim sexuality, show it as the most important thing in the world, as a prerequisite for personal fulfillment and the meaning of life, overwhelm him with it non stop, turn him into an unfortunate, primitive lecher, impose during his whole life with fornication and sodomy, to make him wicked, to prostitute himself in all its manifestations, on every step. Thanks to the innate power of sex instinct, as well as the advanced process of secularization, dying of spirit, flourishing of materialistic civilization ~ well, we have succeeded in realizing our intention that proud and thought goyim, higher than the angels themselves, self-aware, free and creative, created to image and likeness of their God, - reduced to the genitalia - and I could use a more rude word.

The real moment of our most decisive performance has come when one of our invented sacred Pill.

This brilliant, epic-making invention, only he, truly revolutionized sexuality, and thus literally opened the door wide open to sexual revolution. Sexual order was already spoiled, because we sold them doctrine of individual pleasure as the measure of all things. Natural shame - as a defense against of reducing our body to an object, and personality to physicality - we already largely destroyed, which is glorious victory for itself. And then comes the Pill!

Do you know what that means?! Oh, what condoms, what spirals!

Pill!!! Suddenly everything is allowed and everything changes at the same time. The woman swallows Pill and is no longer afraid of child; therefore, she can now relax and peacefully do fornication. We turn the mother into a prostitute, what sublime alchemy, huh? This change of role instills in woman new self-awareness, she begins to choose men for temporary entertainment, therefore behaves as how once man were behaved. Now men become dependent on her grace, they adjust to her demands and obey to her will. In one word, they feminize themselves ! With the pill, we achieved that sexes became more similar, we put hermaphroditism into operation! And now let me someone says that it's not revolution!

Sexual revolution, like any revolution, soon we have turned into a dictatorship and terror. We are intrusive. aggressive and annoying. We attack, irritate, seduce, we promote. Through action of social conformity, no one can resist us. Old and young, male and female, black and white: everyone is only coitus (sexual intercourse) in mind. Those idiots give themselves impression that they discovered sexual benefits in the 20th century, like if in the past storks indeed brought children. It is important that naked, independent sexuality - impoverished to accompanying emotionality, from all complexity of male-female relationships, as well as from for goal of reproduction, used only for the purpose of short-term pleasure

- we serve in the most rude form. We release offer of sex and last remnants of beauty and taste.
We try to provoke, shock, scandalize, even though I have to say that it's becoming more and more difficult for us in the meantime.
The thing gets a little boring, and the variants are not inexhaustible. And yet we try to exploit sex in all its colorful forms and variants, as much as we manage to squeeze them out.
Most of our media survive (earn money) from sexual content , as well as perverted art that we produce in heaps, both - openly vulgar one and the other which is equal to vulgarity, but we hide her in aesthetic appearance. We permeate in both - art and ordinary life slang bareness of sexual meaning.
Our boys developed the entire film industry in Hollywood, which became a model for the whole world. Through film art (however much our enemies against our will succeed to exploit for transmission serious decently messages) we systematically spread propaganda of fornication. We respond to complaint that those films they only represent today state and customs. But that state and those customs are actually produce, along all rest, with those movies.
Nor science lagging behind as a lever for brothelization; just think on insane, manipulated polls about sexuality that we carry out at any time, at any place. Everyone has to find out, for example, which position (sex pose) prefer cattle housewives and typing women (women who work in office), do they like alone or with another, with woman or a man, with a man, or perhaps still rather with his best four-legged friend – dog! After all, we have expanded across continents doctrine and practice of psychoanalysis, invented by one of Ours. She claims that root of all our mental disorders is in area of sexuality, and through therapeutic practice we also give priority to sexual. And it should be known that psychoanalysis has managed to do a lot popular thanks to our promotion (by our media) by which every man is more or less mentally disturbed.

Even in earlier times, there were always women who were prostitutes - because of poverty, yes, but even more because of sexual passions (because poverty and hunger are not possible to endure, you can go to monastery!). But prostitution was cornered into special city quarters, but also in some kind of polite oases, where she was persecuted and punished or tolerated, in any case considered as something ugly and unusual. Since when have leading role in the world, there may not be prostitutes in the literal sense more than before, but their business is less and less considered by felony, not even a sin. We succeeded also show prostitution as one of the equals alternative ways of living, as honorable, moreover, a desirable and virtuous way of earning for bread. We from hogwash we almost made a rule and norm. At the same time we benefit from our lying and seductive terminology: sin and vice we call "progressive", "modern", which must not be left behind if one wants to be "contemporary"., a "freedom-loving" woman, and the matter is settled. Sexologists as experts positivistically (understanding according to which the content of human cognition can only be what was experienced) relativize sexual outbursts, including this one, , they look at things from the other side of morality, and they laugh at religious preachers as backwards (outmoded) and moralists. We are working on legal organization and association of prostitutes, we originate and encourage them, like other types of fornicators and freaks, and all that we call fight for human dignity and human self-realization. And bearers of healthy resistance against prostitution, as well as our entire prostitution program, we call stubborn reactionaries, slaves of the overcomers prejudice. At the same time we show prostitution as a private matter, which the state should not even need to openly help, so that the poor prostitutes would not be "stigmatized" and "ghettoized". What ingenuity! And then who can oppose us? Who can beat us, huh? On the other hand, we encourage the flourishing of paraprostitution occupations, which include all types of earning money by using your own body. It doesn't have to be complete sexual submission. The body can only be shown directly (striptease, theater, "happening", installation...), or through pictorial media (photo and film). Whole legions of young girls today live on such undoubtedly prostitution jobs: as photo models and "actresses", various misses, TV cheerleaders, female presenters, models and similar. We organize national and international exhibitions, women's fairs. All these jobs take place in the name of ubiquitous pornography, which has become one whole lucrative industry.

Thanks to her, many of Our people have acquired great wealth. And her benefit to our cause is priceless. Not only with her which further encourages sexualization and prostitution,

- spiritual and secularly decay of goyim communities- not only that we reduce women to object of lust, but we also humiliate men - consumers, we trivialize their sexuality, and over saturation and boredom which creates unlimited continuously intrusive offer, we make them impotent. The result is...

MESUQE (calling in eagerly and speaking beautifully): The result is - less born goyim!

JUDAH: Haha! He answered anyway, he's not shame anymore. It's ok dear, it's good, you said it nicely this time.

It's especially fun with the models. At the beginning, they just had to wear some parts of the wardrobe from their fashion shows of current production, in order to interested people to buy. In the meantime, they wear exclusively eccentric, quirky clothes which is not intended for mass production and wearing, but for admiring viewing. Fashion shows, which we have flooded goyim world and their media, we represented as some kind of "artistic" performance that serves as boundless manifestation of narcissism and exhibitionism (in our classic psychoanalysis: partial sexual urges which, independently, represent wickedness), nurturing the cult of body and creating a suitable atmosphere for the flourishing of prostitution-homosexual tendencies.

We invent as many obscene "pop" stars as possible, who charismatically impose themselves on silly goyim audience, destroy them shame and encourage them to debauchery. As an example I am mentioning to you that somehow insane woman who has part of our blood, which travels around the world doing missions feminism, globalism ("a world without borders", because coitus, like business, don't know for borders or races!) and sex, through her tasteless and indecent »vagina monologues

As much as we can, we strive for that kind of shamelessness also take over men, where dealing with it assumes, but also succeeds, the homosexual-feminine personality traits, which, compared to their female colleagues, further humiliates. We also pay them a special social welfare so that they can achieve their human right to prostitution and pornography. All of them, male and female, they enjoy a great reputation in goyim settlements. they become famous and make huge amounts of money. Harlots become role models with whom we seduce new contingents of young age goyim girls, we turn also them into harlots, that's how we break the families and destroy victims mentally and moral health.

Dear Zion brother! I still have to describe to you two particularly important forms of fornication that showed to be great in destroying goyim scum. First let me say a word about the famous pedophilia, whose development we devoted ourselves wholeheartedly in recent times.

Obscene love, moreover, carnal lust directed towards the children it was a little bit always, just like all evils. But we added a new quality to that practice (and by God, the quantity!). We give to pedophilia big publicity. Every single case of this disgusting thing we record it with all the relevant details, we announce it and dramatize it on all pages of our yellow press media, and also on other our media. With this procedure, we actually induce her, we cause her, artificially produce her; suggestive acting we encourage her where she otherwise wouldn't be.

We simply give people an idea. And indeed, we achieved that pedophile has reached unprecedented proportions.

With her we further destroy integrity of goyim creatures, and most importantly, we make him commit a crime, we do him accusable and punish him. And then we raise the hysterical panic. We persecute those who, in liberal democracy, we can not longer attribute political crime or verbal tort. A special delicacy represent to us to gull pedophilia – real one but most often invented - to Christian priests, who moralize so much against sin.

We immediately give it on big bells through our faithful media. If nothing else, let the Church justify herself.

This is how we destroy her polite and financially (money for lawyers, compensation...), and religiously we completely undercut her.

I know that our brother Savao will also return on a legal point of view on this topic, when he would talk about our manipulation of judiciary. We stage pedophilia by showing pictures and films of little girls, whom we encourage to imitate their adults role models with make-up and hairstyle, challenging movements, obscene themes and songs, etc. That's how we please to pedophilic tendencies those who work with them, we encourage and even create pedophile urges in viewers as well.

This is how we construct pedophilia, in order to, when she spreads, we blamed on goyim. We brought one in a state to rape and kill his own little daughter, from who previously, for a TV contest, he did make-up Miss. Just don't tell me it's not a first class trick! And one more thing: In the front lines of fight against pedophilia we push the loudest, precisely those hell-grandmothers , who love children so much, that they kill them a lot in the mother's womb, unborn. Top of perversion, hahaha! We are more perverted than them, you have to admit! And again; it is unnecessary to tell you how much from it earn Our (lawyers, social workers, co-called "pedagogues", fighters for children's rights and others). That's why we strive that every goyim country fulfills our pedophile quota: it must not fail!

However, we do not stop at turning children into (real or co-called) sexual objects; they must be also sexual subjects. We try to bring in as many young goyim as possible to secrets of sexuality, and that in a rough, mechanical way, with cold school instruction on that physical skill. On that way, we commit violence against their intimacy, feelings, ideals, imagination, longings, secrets, rights and to untouchability of childhood... What can I tell you about, we reduce their offspring from childhood to machines for achievement cheap, miserable pleasure.

The second form of fornication that I have already announced is called sodomy, sodomism. But it is better to call it zoophilia. Because those two words not refer to all sins in general fornication, according to the city Sodom - you know. About what is it? About love for animals, including sexual intercourse. We will try to make it legal by marriage. And the rape of an animal, let's say a goat, already now we pursue the unwillingness, taking into account also the possible mental pains she suffered. It's not here at work inclination towards God's creation, with a sense of obligation to protection him from the destructive effects of modern technique, civilization and environmental pollution. On the contrary, this harmful effect we ourselves originate and make sure that through him animal species also suffer. We want something else to do, to the point that with a sick attitude against the animal we pervert goyim man. We got him hooked on neopagan cult of animals, on zoolatry. We also came up with slogan: whoever doesn't love an animal, doesn't love a human either.

We play the tenderness and care of God's creation, and at the same time, we kill with genocidal abortion "crown of creation" - subhuman goyim! Actually the one who loves an animal in wicked way, he does that because he cannot love a man, so he puts an animal in its place. So our zoophilia works directly against harmony and solidarity in goyim dwellings. Well, you know what we did:

dog manicures and pedicures, and hairdressers and clothes, taxis, dogs oncologists and surgeons (who implant them with artificial hips), animal graves, human-animal doctors and psychiatrists, dog biographies...

JUDAH: We instill in goyim habit of calling dog his son, and to cat they call out: mom is calling you. Through the media we assure goyim that animal may be worth more than man, and we always find their fools which accept that and continue to spread it. That's how we make crazy and mock goyim cattle, who are presumptuously proud by their origin from their God. And of course, on zoophilia we also make money. However, we are still experiencing great resistance in the Arab-Islamic world: you remember how that Iraqi shot a group of Americans who broke into his house with a dog. But there how it is, we continue work...

Allow me a brief conclusion: The effect of our diligence consists in fact that it's no longer shameful to indulge to unbridled debauchery, on the contrary, it became shameful not to agree to it, to renounce it, to hold on to integrity and the dignity of his personality. And here, as well as in politics, it showed: the more liberalism, the more tyranny.
Our victims suffer in many ways. We are driving them into a frenzy or hypocrisy, we confuse them, distract them from everything importantly, we break down their list of values, and finally we still persecute and punish them for different types of fornication. Many end up in drugs, depression or suicide.

And some drop dead - from AIDS, and so on diseases to death and diseases to disease, meta-diseases, which by destroying body's self-defense, it opens the possibility the emergence of any particular disease. She is ultimate consequence and at the same time top of our sexual revolution.
Some think we created it by using those African monkeys.
Maybe. Let it stay my sweet little secret, mine and my Department. But maybe you admit that idea is genius. And we also offer an equally genius therapy; condoms and the Enlightenment – like that disease shallow, humanistic, hedonistic enlightenment did not created! Long live AIDS! - we infected not only with it not only goyim, little male goyim and little female goyim, not only their bodies, but also their whole disgusting cattle world! Uninfected homosexuals already get complex of lower value, so they advertise in our press-media that they are looking for a partner who will finally infect them and thereby rise up into the society of real people.
That's how we from that hideous disease, which humiliates and kills them

, created a sign of rank on the social ladder. And now can anyone tell us that we have no sense of humor and how we are not able to rule the world!

XI.

AND HERMAPHRODITISM

Our women seduce goyim in places for pleasure. But this also includes the so-called ladies from societies, which do not lag behind them in terms of levity and luxury.

Opening the session, the Supreme Sage said:
Their God created man and woman different (He created woman from a man, and the following women up to today - from our Eva). They are different in order to harmoniously supplemented, which they did in healthy times. We however, in the name of our great god Holo, we cancel that difference, we equalize the sexes, to start war among them. We also invented - the male climacteric, mockingly the fact that a healthy man is potent until death and fertile. And now male goyim truly began to suffer from supposed "climacteric problems"! Hahahaha! But, well. Brother Cain!

CAIN: Brother sages, shalom! Just one remark to this, what Supreme Sage said: We set fire of war between natural women and men, but also between a feminist and a normal man. The only ones to whom we allow mutual harmony are hermaphrodites. But, on topic! Ever since the great upthrow that took place two centuries ago, we worked on a very important task: to spread feminism and establishing feminat. Therefore, we started a women's Crusade military against man and overthrow him from power (not only political), and we put woman in his place, but in meanwhile disfigured by turning her into half-man. We managed to convince the masses of the goyim-female population in that the entire history with woman played cruelly, didn't allow let her be free and creative. We have presented the entire history as a period male domination and violent domination over women. We dumb down female goyim in her bird goyim brain that only evil envy and the tyrannical power of men are reason that there wasn't women in politics and philosophy, women's symphony or drama. Everything that distinguishes woman from a man by nature (and there is a lot of that, so I won't tell you now, because you know!) we called it fruit of artificial decrees, with the aim of subjugating her and becoming an object of merciless exploitation. In this way we twisted countless women, turned them into dissatisfied, unhappy, depressed, frustrated, exasperated freak that during her whole cowardly life devote to hate against man and fight against his alleged oppressed role in society.

In the beginning, we acted cunningly and cautiously, connecting "women's question" with great revolutions which we were Godfathers; civil and communist. We started with the story of "women's rights".

It was enough of asking for the introduction of rights for women to vote, so get them to start getting involved a little bit into the world of male politics. Throughout all 19th century we prepared that strike, so that sometime during World War I, that draft would be put into action. One by one goyim state at a time, by law of dominoes, she yielded to the suffragettes requests (movement fighting for women's right to vote), and generously granted to women honorable status of women voters. This achievement contributed immensely breaking up the goyim family: the family began to split according to the parties to which some of her members are leaning, and the woman, with the right to elect and be elected, gradually separated from home, betrayed her husband and children, abandoned them at mercy of themselves.

It is special for us, due to action of feminist ideology, we managed with women to disgust exactly her original self role - motherhood. We mock motherhood, we make fun of women who have remained true to their nature we call them "birthing machines" under male command, and in every way we dumb down their empty female goyim head how they will fail their meaning in life as wives and mothers, which is guaranteed to them if they respond to that call (say, as cleaners, typists, journalists, professors or doctors). Instead of a child we offer her the entire pallet of our contraceptive offers: our anti-baby pill, "spiral" or sterilization, and about mother and queen of all contraceptives - abortion - not to mention (after all, we are eagerly waiting to hear from our wise brother Šilo on this topic).

As one said our angry enemy, the pill and the condom have become the hammer and sickle of culture revolution. And that's how female goyim is freed and emancipated, which means - indulge in fornication and promiscuity, whereby the little goyim, if they happen to be born, are eradicated from a normal family nest and become easy prey our processing.

But let me return to the short history of our feminist subversion. After they got their right to vote, it was easy to involve women step by step in every areas of public life. Where it would get stuck, we invented "women's quotas": our parliaments vote everywhere laws that force the employment of women, regardless on their qualities and abilities. In many countries woman as a woman has an advantage, which must be highlighted on competitive ads. That's how we drag woman away from house, at the same time we teach man to take over women's role: maintain the home, wash clothes and dishes, wash and breed goyim brats. In some countries we succeeded, and in others we will succeed, legally force man to do housework, and in case disobedience legally prosecute him under the threat of serious penalties. Therefore we made caricatures from sexes, perverted them, we hermaphroditized them, turned into an object of ridicule of all those who still remained healthy.

The woman we create is cold, cynical, affected, selfish, arrogant. We created from her, as some scribbler said "opposition gender". He can't stand her woman role, does not agree to any sacrifice for her husband, children, family. She is stubborn, bitten; only her "rights" are on her mind". I mean, her rights modeled on men's rights. We make woman to become a man.

But in the meantime we started another one, although with this compatible current in feminism: we liberate woman as a woman. So, woman can and should be feminine, in the sense of a vamp, a man-eater. When these two types of feminists (men-suffragette and a self-aware harlot) combine in one person, it's created an explosive mixture capable of destroying goyim world! An example shows us on one feminist association, which enrolled in their program cutting male genital. Use, then cut. In that creature we restored to life took some form of character from old Amazons.

We are also restoring the matriarchy, bringing women to power. We mock the proud, contrived goyim politics: every day in some country for head of state or Government, the minister of foreign affairs, a woman came.

MESUQE: Well, didn't we have one in Oasis?

KAIN: Well now. We have to swallow something too, we must also set an example. And the one you're thinking anyway was a man.

But it is important that, through our feminist propaganda, we assure goyim both sexes that women rule gentle, motherly, feminine. So we drive them crazy so they don't even remember that some of the bloodiest historical rulers were - women: all those Elizabeths, Catherines and Marys, and I could also mention our Ester.

We also know that women are in borderline situations, when circumstances gives way to slaughtering passions, far more cruelly. Women in power are nothing more peaceful than men, and if they are deprived from strong male advisors and slightly more male components in her psychophysical constitution, will certainly not rule better than man. Set them to be goyim leaders, we make a joke with the proud goyim and we weaken their state institutions. However, we integrated the feminist offensive into a broader front of left subversion, with which we destroy goyim community from within. We also use different movements directed against healthy and strong state, as well as against natural manifestations of humanity: anarchism, pacifism, homosexuality...

Let me talk more about this last one, because it is some kind of feminism, and for us it is exceptional important. Homosexuality has always existed, of course. It used to be considered a disease or a sin, sometimes it was tolerated, but never before our action hasn't been movement. We used to support strict persecution, how we would mark the unteachable as freaks and thus distance them from society. We concluded that this leads to abuses and does more harm than good, so we changed tactics. Today homosexuality makes us not only one among possible equal elections (we call it freedom for sexual orientation), but also something desirable. We are working to ensure that homosexuals gather and organize in associations and movements, they self-consciously go out into public. They massively organize challenging, disgusting, vulgar processions and "parades", which attract a large number of supporters, homo-converts, as we call them. We carry out aggressive homosexual propaganda and agitation (you remember se: agitprop!), and thus we make goyim fools that fashionable and widely accept all that. Agitprop quite often are led by normal men and women, our agents; because, many real homosexuals are still ashamed. We also have famous people from Our array who, although normal, publicly portrayed as homosexuals. So we homosexuality mount, induce. Then we publish through our media the results of their success, and, of course, exaggerating them. We claim that 10-20% are already homosexuals in goyim cattle (and it will hardly be them more than 1-2%, as always in the past).

When all this find out empty goyim heads who haven't hooked on "change of orientation", it affects them as well as a kind of obligation to lean towards to advanced trend... and thus a vicious circle is created.

We are infiltrating militant homosexuals into culture (especially theater, "famous actors and singers" and "show business"), but also in politics. We achieved that people who in public said they are homosexuals, to become mayors in important cities. Next are: ministers prime ministers and head of state. We will soon, according to the percentages which we invent and create, introduce quotas: for example, 20-30% of employees in a certain area, members of parliament or university professors, they will have to be homosexuals.

You are wondering why this is important to us. Well, how could it not be important! We are breaking the goyim's pride, morals, values, culture.

We infect them with AIDS. In some places they will finish behind the lock. We pervert cattle, we make them funny, weak. We mock their religions that condemn or persecute same-sex relationships. Moreover, we introduce same-sex marriages, so we mock to monogamy heterosexual marriage. (By the way, we also plan incest marriages, as well as human marriages and animals, humans and objects.) We destroy goyim offspring, we give goyim for adoption to homosexuals, so this is how we encourage pedophilia, which is important to us, and we limiting number of newborns. We have heard, and we will hear more - men, homosexuals or not, will be able to give birth to children. We'll implant in them uterus, we'll feed them with female hormones, they will give birth by caesarean operation - we will manage in other ways. We'll figure it out always everything we need!

MESUQE: Hahaha! Like seahorses!

KAIN: He likes that. But you said that already. Shut up! -

We denigrate heterosexuality as socially transmitted disease, as a result of perverse pedagogy, as propaganda of the ruling classes, moreover, as fascist terror similar to racism, chauvinism or sexism. And all that we transmit through: media, educational institutions, feminist and related movements; we mobilize, activate, in the name of tolerance, liberation and freedom, in the name of right and emancipation, progress and self-determination, and against repression and oppression - to use some more seductive words from stocks of Our sages and gurus. How we separated sexuality from the function of giving birth, it is easier for us to that this wickedness show as one possible path to legitimate physical pleasure. And goyim silly, instead of they laugh at us, mock and make fun of us, they slavishly take it all for granted. If someone resists, moreover, if he answers harshly to challenge, we declare him as reactionary homophobe (therefore a shame of the human race), so that our agents can continue to spread homosexuality.

LUCIFER or DOWN TO FAMILY!

We will destroy all family ties among the goyim.

Below we present the protocol - reporter of our brother Lucifer about way how we destroy goyim family, which is, as Supreme Sage says, one of Ours called - fascist, because it cherishes and preserves traditions conservative values. Well, brothers, there are no more families like that, thanks to us! - said the Supreme Sage, leaving the word to referee.

LUCIFER (cheerfully, energetically): Wise mens! We destroy family, we destroy marriage. We corrupt the youth, we invent children rights. We bring into the family principles and practice of democracy, we overthrow authority, turn the husband against women, wife against husband, children against parents.

MESUQE: And children against children?

LUCIFER: You shut up! What does it matter?

MESUQE: Why not! That brothers kill each other.

Well, isn't it our brother Kain, who last spoke, named after one such case?

LUCIFER: Yes, yes, but... when was that!... Oh, listen me, so everything will be clear to you. So: destruction of cattle family represented to us first-class challenge due to a series of advantages that her destruction brings. There is a demographic benefit in the first place: small goyim are born less. In addition, crisis of family leads to conflicts, quarrels, hatred among her members.

Outside family fornication and promiscuity is increasing...

Well, what can I tell you! You will have to agree with me after this speech, that we have done miracles!

But we continue until full victory.

Industrialization enabled mass goyim migrations from village to city. Urbanization, on the other hand, disoriented them, mentally weakened, forced to laboriously, with complex and hard procedures, they ensure themselves what they had in front of their noses as peasants: instrumentality of mere survival. As one of Ours would say

- here is influence of multiple alienation. Who will in such state, filled with worry and restlessness, nervous, neurotic, and also often poor, in a confined small space, start big and happy families (get marry and have lot of children)?

No way, gentlemen! More goyim unborn will die then will be born alive.

We shaken marriage in various ways. We humbled his dignity by excluding sacred, we indulgent marriage to state. And we discourage such marriage, we spread the belief that some kind of paper is not important in order to man and women be together. We encourage trial marriages, which contributes frivolous and superficial approach to bisexual communities.

We are introducing homosexual marriages, and at the best way we are to start a completely serious discussion about legalization of marriages between man and animal, man and objects (we already married one with a television, and to our great satisfaction, we confirmed that there wasn't too much laughter or protest). We are working to make it possible incest marriages, up to the closest relatives: brother and sisters, father and daughter, son and mother. Certainly, it will be the most difficult, but nothing is impossible for us.

Generally speaking, at the expense of the emotional and polite term of marriage, we emphasized the legal one. Here belong legalized divorce, which we diligently encourage, whose difficult procedure costs our goyim a lot of nerves and a lot of money. We introduced marriage contracts, in order to reduced marriage to a type of business and emphasized its materialistic dimension. We subjected every part of family life with paragraphs, and over the marriage community and solidarity, paternal authority, maternal love for children and on children obedience we put rigid paragraphs; we put in family the court.

A woman sues her husband for violence and rape (imagine! We invented wet fire - rape in marriage!)

LUCIFER: ...and children sue parents because of temptation, corporal punishment, emotional abuse, - what in practice we have introduced can also mean any innocent are guilty look or raised tone. We encourage children to sue parents for alleged small debts, for "non-payment pickpocket" etc. At the same time, we make abundant use of the phenomenon children lies. It's nothing easier for a child than to, when it's expected from him, even demanded, to falsely report his parents. Kids will do it because defiance and revenge, for revenge, imitate other liars, pursue with curiosity how that will look like when father because of him finish on court, from feelings of his importance given to him by goyim laws... And in that laws goyim will not think of including childrens mendacity!

Instead of organic, intimate community where prevails trust, we created scene of hatred, selfishness and court trials; we sowed suspicion and fear in family.

Side effects: psychosomatic diseases, alcoholism and drug addiction, murders and suicides - understood by themselves.

We have perverted all the ingredients of the family, so that the whole would failed. To father of family we abolished the last sign of authority or we are on the way to achieve it where else we didn't so far; we softened him, turned him into a listless hermaphrodite who is doing women's work (housework) without complaint.

We subjected the mother to feminist brainwashing:

she thinks she's only happy when she's doing anything outside house, she took masculine features, commands her husband, and avoids and neglects children, so that she also seek her own sense, but also her teachers, outside the family home.

We also break up the families in a special way; we introduce in homes civil war. Namely, father decided to be member of one of the countless political parties that we impose on them on political market, mom for another political party, and offspring for third or fourth. In old days, the father used to vote in the name of family. She was organic, now we mechanically broken her into ideological fronts. Can you imagine better caricature? At the same time, precisely by serving pluralistic democratic offers, we depoliticize the youth, we make them indifferent towards the state and nation, we use her individualism to make her revolutionized for destruction. Especially this political division along and across the family helps us in mounting generation war.

But let me return to the question of violence. We care in fact that family as a community of protection, trust, as protection place from cruel outside world, and make cruel by ourselves. We start by making our servants with the help of goyim servants to mount false, but suggestive statistical data on the increase of violence in families. Goyim media day and night bring unbelievable inflated data or pure fabrications about the masses of beaten women and abused children. We organize via our courses, rapid-fire schools, so-called education of woman what will make them easier in every husband's gesture discover the abuse. We introduce for women - as well as for children

- special speed dials that they can call to unknown people to them - Government bureaucrats – and report family violence. But when this promotion lasts for a certain period of time, it will no longer be needed a lot to flam. We simply bring things to life:

Husbands beat their wives, and they beat them even more, because women towards men show more verbal aggression. With anti-authority education and with feminist indoctrination we expanded are among goyim - the type of woman who cannot and does not want to restrain her impulses, she is disobedient to her husband, she does not respect him him, nags and criticizes him for everything he does. It, of course, creates hatred, and especially in many cases serious leads, as I said, to murders and suicides.

By fabricating (lying about) family violence, but also encouraging on him, as well as what we encourage it in our media, we largely succeed in destroying family peace and harmony, we eradicate authority from family, love, sacrifice and selflessness. Under the excuse that we are saving the family from violence - we are actually destroying her.

We have perverted especially what purpose of family and marriage is, the birth and upbringing of children. How you seen, the children of goyim people are being born less and less, the majority of them were slaughtered even before they were born and before they saw light of day for the first time.

Formerly big families in modern towns give place to couples without children, and most often with one, maybe two, which arithmetic means the inevitable extinction of the people. What is born, we largely leave it to the street. We discouraged goyim parents as educators, so that goyim children in many countries, already in third generation are completely uneducated, and when they grow up, they accuse their parents of bad upbringing, with which they justify their failures in life. That's the one- that "anti-authoritarian education" that Ours preached. State and school don't raise family. The consequence is that children or raised "alone", left to their own nebulous ideas about goals and values, or they lean on to most often senseless, violent and weak-minded youth clique, or they fall into hands, as easy prey, to the first freaky guru who appears in their neighborhood.

We don't care who it will be: some Westernized Eastern sectarian, satanist or rock singer; drug dealer, copulation (sexual association) missionary, feminist or anarchist. It all comes to same.

On the other hand, through our media and our goyim slaves in politics, we train their offspring to oppose their parents, which is not difficult, when we have already softened parents and taken away their good sense. They are disobedient and self-willed, determined to fulfill their every desire. And since we stopped them at the level of natural state, protecting them from touch of civilized educational measures, wild goyim children surrender to their natural urges: the pleasures of each kind, and especially those inappropriate for their age. They have a common denominator, thanks to our hard work- sex, drugs & rock'n roll, and we are glad to say that age limit of these vices scrolls down from year to year. We trample them with printed material, seductive colorful images, obscenities and pornography, with aggressive tones, killer rhythms, we are dumbfounding them in discotheques, we enslave them with various fashions, youth conformity, terror of sexuality. We literally and completely separated children from their parents. Physiologically, we almost managed to squeeze out puberty: from childhood they jump directly into adult sexuality. But that's why we extended social adolescence: offspring until his thirties spends his days idle in his parents house, fighting against parents. We created, as once said troublemaker who used to be our- "age class", the youth as a social category, as a revolutionary subject who "rebells". We implanted in children, even the smallest ones the illusion of some kind of "rights". Parents used to have duties towards children, now they have rights, which includes the right to know their rights. And we sincerely make sure that they find out about them in a timely manner. We organize children's demonstrations, in which more and rights are demanded. We incite them against their parents in various ways, for example surveys asking if they like more father or television (so far the latter is always good passed by!), do they love more their parents or their friend's parents, etc. They have been in front of the TV screen since early morning, so that media we use abundantly to introduce little brats to "abuse of children", so that while they are still young they will learn what for to report father or mother. Before enrolling in school, we undergo them interviews in which they have to answer suggestive questions about possible sexual violence they were exposed by parents. We teach them that can report parents for the smallest trifle, but also that they can blackmail them, threatening them with criminal charges if they do not comply some childish wish. We are parents from educators turned into criminals, into enemies against whom is being made a pact with a cowardly goyim state. And state believes that with that conviction it's a child protection program. More often, goyim Authorities by simple excuse kidnap children from parents, and parents in mostly unsuccessful attempts to get them back spend huge sums of money on our lawyers, counselors, psychiatrists and similar parasites. Children are mentally depraving, perverting in state homes, that they would be thrown on the street, where from unemployed homeless people soon become criminals. Or instead of state home, we sent them to adoption to homosexual married partners, faithful executors of our program. And so we impose ourselves to goyim on place of their parents, and there is no escape for them! Poor goyim, if all their natural conservative reflexes haven't evaporated yet, in any of their political proclamations and programs they are happy to refer to the value guarding family. That's fine and entirely appropriate to our intentions. Let them keep this pervert and destroyed family; it would be bad if they tear her down and create new, healthy family worth keeping.

LEVI or DOWN SCHOOL!

as for education, we have dumbed down the goyim youth, and spoiled her, raising them according to principles and theories we knew were false.

Instead of teaching about classics and ancient history we will introduce the study of the problems of the future.

We will erase from human memory

all past events that are unpleasant for us, and save only those that point to mistakes of goyim Government. Students with theirs parents will be allowed to gather in school buildings as in clubs, and teachers will hold a lecture of so called free lectures.

The Supreme Sage said; here's your teacher! Now we bring protocol of presentation of sage Levi, who described what we are doing to destroy goyim education and pedagogy.

LEVI: The way we destroy parental authority and upbringing mission - about which we were listening to colleague Lucifer - also the same (allow me as head of our Department and program), maybe even better, we do that work in the area of education. We have reduced the role of the teacher to the lowest level

(to the lowest branches). Public and high schools, junior collages, universities, we crushed everything. Not quite, there's still more to do, but great works are in front of our eyes. We completely democratized the school. We re-educate children in the spirit of equality and sameness. We already achieved great victory by introducing co-education of sexes: there is no more male and female, let them get closer, let them melt into each other! Nerd that today learn knit, tomorrow will give birth to children, when we implant uterus in him! And besides, he will become homosexual; if he does marry, it will be known who is boss in the house: the same emancipated woman (woman wants more than her former role of housewife) which we, in the same bench next to him, we raised her to take over male role.

We put into their hollow goyim heads that everyone has the same the right to an opinion, even though they have neither knowledge nor mind. When everyone thinks that he can irresponsibly think, we will eradicate thought from the world! It's important to us to be discussion, debate, chatter, and that everyone is authoritative. Not only students, but also students largely decide on curriculum, about the content of the lessons, they evaluate teachers and professors, and themselves. At the lower school age level, in our work on democratic liquidation of education we are also helped by crazy goyim parents, who interfere with the activities of school according to our holy principle that everyone decides about everything (and those are mostly uninformed and irrelevant).

We turned schools into an institution that serves exclusively transfer of knowledge, therefore teaching, not upbringing purposes. Of course, the knowledge we transfer are selective, largely unnecessarily, imbued with our interpretation and tendency, distorted according to our needs, so that include large deposits of unconfirmed lies and half-truths hypotheses, hollow ideologies and political manipulations. It's important that we indoctrinate into goyim from his childhood in the useful spirit of liberalism, democracy, equality, indifference against great questions of God and man, in the spirit of pacifism, feminism, cult of minorities, termination of states, nations and borders, sentimental mists about humanity, and similar intellectual garbage, which only serves us to better master over their softened brains and harnesses on our wheeler. Good illustration for this is provided by our campaign »Let's disarm textbooks". We are raising goyim for utopian peace, how they would be unprepared for wars that we impose on them to our benefit. We do not provide them with any goals and values, we leave them to themselves in this area, only we instill in them instincts necessary to serve us. Of course, along the way, we also pass on them many idiotic special knowledge so that they can manage to survive in their cowardice life, because what is the use of dead slave!

Brothers, keep in mind that our entire work is one great educational revolution, a single training goyim vermin. That is why it's not difficult for us upbringing in narrower sense. We use all kinds of weapons, especially our media, we have no problem from conservatives to make liberal, from puritan (morally strict man of evangelical purity) to make pornographer, from opponent of abortion we can make become his advocate.

When we mold grown-up goyim like that, how couldn't we do the same with his wretched offspring! At the same time, school was the most dangerous rival for us and that is why it was extremely important for us that to take her in our own hands. Upbringing role of school, which school had from the very beginning, followed up on parenting, in the meantime we succeeded almost completely stop. We convinced parents that children don't raise by themselves, but leave it to the school, and school raises them even less, which only makes confused goyim parents to fruitless attacks on school. To all that we can only laugh with satisfaction. Instead shaping his character and develops personality, our school corrupts goyim offspring, allowing harmful things to become established in him.

We made sure that the law prohibit the use of punitive measures, from traditional whipping up to the most banal reprimand, warning or threat.

We allowed everything to the student, even open insults and humiliation and often physical abuse of teachers, but to teacher is forbidden even to raise his voice, lest he hurt tender, sensitive soul of the young being.

It was easy to achieve this: teachers, educators and professors under our influence simply arrived to the conclusion that upbringing task of school is something doubtful and problematic, and that efforts in this field is the best throw out completely. That's why today's students don't get either ethical or aesthetic education, they don't teach what is good and beautiful, rather, they serve them only facts, and bare facts, when we select, adapt and interpret them, they are not facts anymore; therefore, goyim with goodness and beauty we forbid them the truth itself.

Here is one particularly dear and important example to us:

You all know how faithfully we gave to the whole world this propaganda what we called "Holocaust". Now Holocaust has to memorized and learned as a compulsory subject almost all over the world. First, we provide inaccurate, multiplied numbers of Our victims. Second, we silence a whole complex of facts that brought to those victims. Third, we portray the perpetrators as absolute demons, who have nothing human in themselves, and whose act can only be explained as an expression of mere senselessness hatred, will to destroy, enjoyment in others suffering. There's more, but I won't bore you now, and you know what I'm talking about. And when that historical event that's how we present him, then it doesn't even remain in him anymore factual authenticity, but he serves as sentimental falsification of history, and emotional extort of sympathy, compensation and obedience from fools goyim.

However much we have emancipated the students and installed in school their dictatorship, we took care of it that in school is preserved the traditional atmosphere of fear and a breeding ground of trauma for whole life. School goyim go wild, they think they are allmighty, but at the same time they are afraid - they are afraid of idea of school and school building, they are afraid of teachers and bad grades, they are afraid of their classmates – and that fear also through frustration, urges to additional aggressiveness and arrogance, and the consequences of this rampage is new born fear - that's how we created vicious circle. Because our school is permeated to the core with violence.

It used to be natural for students to fight sometimes: it was an expression of natural combativeness and competitiveness spirit that arises in the development of a healthy human personality. Today we have those innocent fights, which is traditional pedagogy more classified in the rubric of games or at least allowed to hang around, banned, and persecute them as a part of our campaign against all types of abuse.

We invented percussive terms-beatings with which we suppress that innocent nuisance: bullying and mobbing. Under that we mean violent, cruel, tyrannical, humiliating behavior of individuals or groups towards their school colleagues, forcing them to take certain actions, etc. Here we also include ordinary mocking, gossiping, avoidance some little goyim. But, on the other hand, we encourage much greater violence that manifests itself in a truly insensitive, sadistic torture of goyim students, or in their merciless aggression towards teachers. How you had a chance to see, we raised the rate of murders in schools incredibly. And believe me, it won't pass long, and we will turn them all into bloody battlefields! Stupid goyim won't know when he goes to school in the morning, if he will return home alive!

There were also disobedient teachers who did not want to fit in in our school liquidation project. But we easily get rid of them.

Because we put them under strict surveillance students and their parents, it is easy to accuse them, for example due to the unfair evaluation. A student, with the support of goyim father, justly rebel, it was found on teacher that he made a mistake in the grade a little bit (grades must now be expressed with two decimals), and he's gone, there's no rescue for him! Because you can sue over the grade, brothers! And grades are subject evaluation! And there is another, better way: accuse the teacher for violence or rape. Goyim girls in schools already from childhood are harlots, clever seductresses.

They seduce, actually rape the teacher, so if he for his own sake he doesn't resist weakness, which means that he may retaliate with what an ambiguous look, they immediately report him, and we portray him as a pedophile monster, and we rush him headfirst out of school and send him few years beyond the lock (in prison).

The most fun is to follow their university exams:

the professor no longer dares to question female student in his cabinet, as it was custom. It's not enough even if there are present other students, but he leaves open, or at least ajar door to show that he is not afraid of possible witnesses, which means that he has no dishonest intention. So we're driving them completely crazy! And, they became blackmailable: if he gives to girl a bad grade, she accuses him that she got bad grade because she rejected his call for sex act. They have to give good grades, and thus send into the world unlearned experts (and also women - so that they are not ready to role of mother and wife!), with incalculably favorable consequences for us.

Instead of at school, with wonderful polite teachers with whom goyim identified themselves, we raise goyim cattle through "show business", movies, and other forms of popular culture, which we control. In that shitty world of vanity and snobbery, fashion, trash and kitsch, we create fake stars, vain and famous athletes, singers, actors

and actresses, models, announcers, fictitious sizes and false authorities. And all those arrogant, narcissistic ones, spoiled, vain idols, whose cult we impose, and who transfer our views and messages, brainwashed goyim cattle are uncritically admired, accepting them as their role model. That's how human garbage multiplies, appropriately for using.

The result of such our educational activity can truly fill us with pride. We changed the profile goyim offspring. Instead of mature, complete, responsible personalities, we goy population fill surface with spews of the spirit of time, sick animals creatures without roots in values and without the meaning of life, freak that would only be pleasant and stupid, selfishly vegetate, trying to defiantly provoke and shock their surroundings with cheap extravagances, conceitedly despise the whole world, especially what is worthy commitment in it, sublime, noble and classy.

The only educational procedure that we left to school (but with supplementing it with the action of the entire way of life in Goy settlements) is sex education. In our great successes is fact that we hijacked him from parents, so we young goyim left in questions without the much-needed parental warning and advice, which built in themselves conscience, prudence, sense of responsibility, truth. And with sex "education" is also about transfer of knowledge. But indirectly we educate, in the sense that we develop personality hedonistic and selfish, which puts sexual pleasure on top of the value ladder and understands him as priceless obligation, as a mandatory norm. Sexual education we nurture from an early age - we strive for him to introduce in kindergartens - and in the most vulgar form. In lower school classrooms we apply the division method of roles, like. acting out certain gender roles: this is how children, for example, learn to enjoy the role of a homosexual. We present sexuality as technical skill, we ignore its sensory dimension and place as a whole in mature person. And here, as usual, we separate pure physicality from spiritual contents. With whole approach we offend, and then, with the passage of time, destroy natural shame, which is our bitterest enemy in the process of whoredom of goyim settlements. So we we are preparing goyim cattle for an early start sexual activities and adult fornication in promiscuity age. We disable him for an orderly marital and family life life, we burden him with an overemphasized role sexuality and with it we degrade what is left from his human dignity. That's how we integrated the school in our process of sexualization of Goy societies.
The point is in what my colleagues were talking about in other areas: we force them to debauchery, in order to degrade and weaken them, but also in order to, if necessary, could be prosecuted for the same debauchery. That comes to us in handy for shooting down the disobedient and unfit: priests, conservatives, nationalists and other enemies.

In the future, we will have to use this method of neutralization in much greater extent.

With special zeal we intend to destroy goyim universities. In the 1960s, we estimated the moment is ripe. Beatniks and hippies already did their part in inciting the youth and making them independent into a special social class: one Ours, Lucifer mentioned him, who escaped from our control, he called that youth "class by age".

Through our reliable Sages, in the center of their goyim lands we began to "feed" them with heated Marxism, in order to encourage them to take up arms rebellion, to cause chaos in their countries, and on the wave of democratization, we take key positions and achieve full control.

But, with first victim of this movement of university students, inspired by the extreme-left (for Idols we imposed on them red eastern rulers like Stalin, Mao Zedong or Ho Shi Min!) became university itself. Traditionally, he represented a harmonious community of teaching, learning and scientific research. We broke it all! On the place of science was replaced by our ideology of equality and plebeian revolt. Nothing was learned anymore, except - how to overthrow the hated "fascist" order. Professors are, in Paris as well as in the city of Beijing during Cultural Festival of revolutions, became an object of ridicule, lost every authority and in democratic decision-making processes in Universities.

They were tied not only with university students, but also with cleaners. In the meantime the passions are, of course, quieting down, but the Great March through the institutions, which was encouraged by the student movement, germ by the unstoppable penetration of the "sixty-eighth" masses in all the pores of goy societies and states. They, in our name, now rule over them, and they are the most reliable guarantor that our global and globalist project of the New World Order soon turn into an indestructible reality. And new contingents Goy youth - after their politicization in the second half of the 20th century showed us as full hit, we are now trying to depoliticize them thoroughly as possible, turn them into complete idiots, who care only till fulfillment their momentary whim, who are silly laugh at everything serious and, completely unaware of themselves and others, of this world and afterlife, they fully execute all our orders.

XIV. METHUSALEM or LET'S DESTROY PEOPLE!

All this will serve us to make goyim so tired , and we will force them to offer us international power. When we finish our shot, and say to the nations: Everything so far was wrong, everyone suffered. But now we have destroyed the causes of yours pain, people, borders, different currencies

When the Wise Methuselah began to speak, the silence could almost be felt in the solemn hall of Zion

- so everyone pricked up their ears in order not to absorb everything thought, every word, even what a wise man will keep silent, that's how important today's topic was and that's how they were gathered were aware of its importance. Because, the liquidation of the world of the people is the necessary precondition, on which rests i with which our whole big plan falls.

METHUZALEM spoke like this: Dear and respected brothers in Zion! From what I am going to tell you, you will see that we have reason to be happy, but also gives a big one, he said I would even, deciding part of the work is still ahead of us.

You know that we have been waging a holy war for about a hundred years against the nation and nationalism. They welcomed us, moreover, we heartily encouraged and supported them, when we intended to destroy and sweep away centuries-old, mostly multi-ethnic empires with religious overtones. We destroyed Catholic ecumenism and reached out to nations that we revitalized with the French Revolution. It's here for us nationalism helped, as it helped us later, in the 20th century, during the collapse of communism. But, ours is the motto dissolve et coagula (dissolve and coagulate). We separated a lot, now is the time to reconnect what was separated. When is it the work was therefore done, it was time to squeeze out and then throw the lemon in the historical dump. True, tough is that lemon, and continues to brazenly defy us.

Because, I guess it is clear to you that the nation is the biggest the enemy. Let's not forget that the nation is theirs

God, because, as one of our opponents wrote a long time ago: "God created the nations according to his angels". We want to unite the world, to make it one and unique, a nationalisms are tearing it apart for us, tearing it into pieces parcels. They think and act locally, we think and act globally, our goal is not some kind of national sovereignty and provincial statehood, but great and brilliant Cosmopolis, Cosmopolitan Republic of the World! We knock their cowardice out of their heads, theirs petty nation, and we impose internationalism on them, cosmopolitanism, a higher, more human cult of humanity - in the name man, humanity, humanism and related miracles, which we ourselves have to secretly laugh at. we find out however, that individuals are rising among the nationalists who understand the power of globalism and want to harness it in their goals, seeing that they can only oppose us globally. Therefore, they invent some of their own nationalistic ones international, trying to connect national movements in the fight for the survival of nations and national states, to beat us that way. Yes, the challenge is serious, but we will see who will win in this bloody showdown.

I think, however, that we know the answer.

(At these words, the Sages are Methuselah rewarded with sincere applause).

METHUZALEM: We infiltrate countries, nations, we delegate spies and provocateurs, rob, hunt in murky - as usual. We got off to a good start, u this period after we removed communism, which we no longer needed. It serves us much better today liberal parliamentary democracy. But relapses are strong nationalism, and we had to allow it, because democracy was not enough for us to overthrow the reds. And how, gentlemen, can we put an end to nations and nationalisms? By propaganda, by the power of an idea! It is important that their with the leading layers we persistently blow into the empty ones goyim heads that nations and nationalisms are not valid, as nor all that they bring with them: traditions, diversity and an unrepeatable wealth of particularities.

What should we tell them? Well, we have developed the whole theories, and our intellectuals devotedly help us, write book after book, and since the authors are ours, we don't have any problems neither with editions, nor with translation and advertising. We lie that nationalism is a lie. We show the nation as nothing, as a mere breath of air (flatus vocis = breath of voice), or, at the very least, as a historical category (here to still stick to our guru by whom we were inspired communist movements), as something that arose, i that artificially created, and that will also disappear; as obsolete and an unnecessary form of human association. We claim that nations are "dying off", when in fact we are sending them to death - as far as our modest strength allows, understood!

We repeat a thousand times that nationalism is primitive and retrograde, but also bloodthirsty, violent and dangerous. We emphasize that he is the main culprit for unnecessary, how much and murderous wars, we attack its exclusiveness, obstinacy, its limiting, narrowing function human horizon. We claim that nationalism is actually collective egoism and narcissism, intoxication with myths instead of helping my people, citizens, regardless of their bloodlines. To that end, fine we have our favorite words "chauvinism" and "xenophobia". «. We present nationalism as a pure product and, at the same time, the cause of hatred, and we judge or ridicule its connecting role; love and solidarity, selflessness and readiness to make noble sacrifices that he enables.

It is especially important for us to portray the goyim as repulsive the word "nationalism" itself, and we suggest it to them rejection, in order to replace it with a civilized, unencumbered one the word "patriotism". But we know that is from the replacement of words to the replacement of the very things that they mean, just one step. And when he is self-aware and militant nationalism - after we reduced it to mere chauvinism, which is only one of its forms - replace it with vague and lukewarm, purely emotional patriotism and patriotism, the nation rang out: it will not not even a mere habit left for him. Because, without nationalism, as positive defense of material and spiritual prosperity, as a guarantor of national education and greatness, as leverage with which the nation gets its unique and incomparable mission and rise to a higher level Battle - there is no nation. What remains is the unconscious goyim mob, which we can model according to our taste and needs.

Therefore, we teach goyim bastards already in public school, and in preschool age that they should not be proud on some merits and the supposed greatness of his people, because anyway they are not even personally deserving, but theirs herd, with which they are identified thanks to the regiment in case they were born in it, not in somewhere else: just like everything else in their life it's not "random": language, gender, name, parents, children... But they fall for it. We are completely erasing their national consciousness, purifying it their historical memory and remembrance, we teach them as their past is full of evil, we instill a feeling in them guilt, historical sin, and we are training them to be in the present be tame. For this purpose, we strive to in their Historiographers should emphasize exactly those places which serve to their shame. Of course, that's it for now it's easier with small nations, but now with big nations it's time for that, don't let them imagine anything! Special attention we dedicate to the destruction of historical rootedness, teach them that they will only be freed from historical ballast become truly free. We invite you from one place side to a critical and penitent review of the national one of history, moreover, we impose ourselves as the only ones authorized interpreters and assessors of their history.

But, on the other hand, if dealing with the past still threatens to grow into proud self-awareness, right away we warn them not to live in the past and from the past.
We reserve that right only for ourselves, that's how we dumb down theirs heads, saying let them leave history - to the historians: just like if we were allowed to think and write about Marxism only marxists, on sports Olympic record holders, sexual maniacs about sexuality, and nutritionists about food.
Goyim peoples, with all that cunning pedagogy, we eradicate their national individuality. We stick to the tried and tested truth that the people, if we take away their past, will not have any the future.

At every sign that they try to get back on their feet, we crush their arrogance by warning that the "world" is doing it it's Us!) will not allow this brazen flight of their sovereignty.
We have exiled the nation, as well as the religion, into the private sphere sphere, where it can be treated as an unimportant detail, like cheering for a football team or an election which ties to wear. That way, we are well on our way to destruction little people. We tirelessly prove to them that it is theirs the greatest honor consists in being able to choose between the two or more masters; and actually, of course, we don't we leave that choice to them. We repeat to them that they are weak and small, weak, that they have to rely on something bigger and stronger, more capable and better; that only in favor of some boss they can also find a way to realize the national interest. When we manage to integrate all of them into larger units (European union, NATO...), in a short time we will completely swallow them.
In those communities, where we abolish the internal borders, universal mobility will lead to peasantry those remnants of small nations and to theirs gradually assimilation into the larger.
But we also force larger nations into supranational communities, we are cutting off their sovereignty piece by piece (together in common army, together foreign policy, together currency...), so that they don't manage until suddenly they have to assert that we have reduced them to nothing. And all these integrations we paint them in bright colors and create an impression as they are not only desirable, but also inevitable. We are working on suppressing the natural consciousness of individuals nations, if only they are well and wisely governed, they can survive in autarky, social isolation, and especially in undamaged independence and freedom, and prudent by choosing the types of bilateral cooperation. We have achieved that today all nations, both large and small, both rich and poor, they think they can't do anything on their own, and that there is no alternative restrictions (and eventually abolition) of nation-states sovereignty.

We are overwhelming larger nations (and hopefully, soon, smaller ones as well). foreign, if possible completely foreign, exotic element. Help us multi-cult ideology, we weaken the resistance of larger nations, by forcing them to provide refuge to millions of other people, who they bring with them their customs and tastes, ethos and religion.

We are exposing those immigrants to the systematic threat of theirs of national identity, imposing western standards on them decadence, liberal democracy and decadence.

All this leads to dissatisfaction on both sides, until of conflict, and finally, to the concession of the host nations.

This is how we destroy the already well-conceived substance of old European peoples, we exhaust their strength and ability of self-defense, we paralyze their healthy instincts and we are preparing them for the final sinking in our Cosmopolis.

But we did not remain indebted to colored breeds either. We divided national states into parts (Germany, say, but also Croatia, as well as some Asian ones), we are African tribes, pulling absurd intra-African lines borders that corresponded to our colonial ones and political interests, on the one hand we also have them shared, so that the same tribe can be found in two or more state, and on the other hand, we crammed different tribes into it common state frameworks, which we programmed in advance tribal wars so dear and necessary to us, which, along with the carousel uprising, are cannibal dictatorships and the scourge of Aids, made it possible to beat Africans continent.

For the whole time, however, we swore in our love for black people. We are more to the extremes border developed an anti-racism program. Thanks to the war the victory of our united forces (people's democrats and liberal-democratic parliaments) in 1945, we succeeded not just to shame militant racism, but to put it outside laws and any scientific research into nature and differences human breeds. We create the belief that they are races essentially equal, and that he must rule between them principle of brotherhood. It is free, even desirable, to mix them, because in this way a new, hybrid one gradually grows the race of the world's population which, when fulfilled, will all prerequisites, complete fall into the hands like a ripe one pears. All that, of course, does not apply to us: we don't we mix, and where this happens exceptionally, we the ingredient in the mixture it remains unquestionably dominant. As for the great nations, we destroy them and theirs breaking it down into parties, associations, interest groups, classes, regions, administrative centers and competences, and especially by advocating the so-called minority rights. We promote all kinds of artificial and artificial things minority: racial and national, religious and ideological, gender and generational. Through its ideologues and spokespersons we prepare people to be immoderate, unreasonable and often completely grotesque or absurd demands these minorities will spontaneously begin to be perceived as untouchable law, far superior to all their legitimate national interest. We pierce their ears with talk about humanity and human rights in such a way, that finally truly they no longer manage to resist the attack, and become ready and to national suicide, just to please those nonsense that we impose on them.

MESUQE: You presented that program beautifully. Only you one thing slipped through the cracks: did you sign for us that way too death sentence?

METHUSALEM: If I were you, you imbecile, I would listen a little more carefully! Haven't you heard the exhaustive presentations? our Abel on the first day? Didn't you notice? That today I said clearly and loudly: We do not give up our history? We do not agree to racial mixing? didn't you hear? Or you are, so you're pretending to be crazy. And by God, you are crazy.

Did I say that, brothers, or didn't I?!

The Wise Mens shouted in unison: You are! You did!

METHUSALEM: I did.

NATHANAEL or LET'S STOP THE RIGHT-WING

The new government simply takes the place of the previous one, which is strengthened by liberalism. Today all governments are swaying, but ours will be stronger from everyone

Famous choirs!

In the unfortunate 20th century, we, the laborers in the field of politics, we managed to corrupt not only theirs to the goyim cattle politics, but to destroy every political one for their passion and delight. Everything that made politics noble and sublime human activity, trivialized we, degraded and perverted, so that today goyim, on the mention of the word "politics", they wave impatiently and disdainfully by hand. They are already doing it because we have discouraged them to actively engage in politics, by showing them that engagement is dishonest. Don't get involved in politics - we say to them, so that politics would be completely left to us!

You will hear from our brothers Onan and Pinhas how miserable they are when goyim politics looks like in positive practice. I'll tell you about the negative, destructive part of the task - how we clipped the wings of right-wing politics (and others – there is none in essential sense!): left-wing is counter-politics, because it is against the state!). First of all, we did not succeed in lowering the rank of individual goyim leaders, but we have devalued ourselves the concept, the idea of a leader in general. That's why they are goyim because we are them inculcated such a view, became averse to political leaders, and in matters of politics they are now looking for a wider and unrestrained democratization, the participation of the people in literally all political undertakings, and as many rights as possible and freedom at the expense of duty, respect for authority and hierarchy, at the expense of respecting differences in abilities and powers. It is ours to destroy all their aristocracy of will and spirit, every elite, as well as the very thought of yes it is given to the best to rule the nations. We are collapsing them

Governments and states that raise their heads; there must be none if they are not ours, and in order for them to be ours, we have to amend everything in them and trivialize. We don't allow them anything big, solemn, sublime. This is how we will impoverish them from the inside so that, brain washed and beaten, they fall into our hands like those mentioned ripe pears.

We implanted in the bird brains of the goyim the belief that how it is dishonorable, dishonest, to be a people's leader, and yes anyone who would try to shape the nation's destiny is suspect as a usurper and deceiver who strives to achieve only own benefit. We took away the last prerogatives from the ruler that which is mythical, sacred, without which there is nothing policies. We imposed on the goyim that their leaders first of all, they choose themselves (which means that they are not respected, knowing that, as they elected them, they can also replace them), and according to

to choose them from the ranks of ordinary, mediocre people without prominent features and any charisma. Goy in his coward to the president or prime minister now (rightfully so, after all) he sees a rotter like himself, no he listens to him even when he accidentally declares or does something good. This is, of course, death for the state. Governing they are despised and ridiculed, they are insulted, they are forced to do all kinds of things excuses to humiliate them as soon as possible, they are on trial on the pages of "free media", they are demolished even when it is needed and when it is not needed, and that to ordinary demonstrators (we don't even need a revolution anymore!) - and it's a state job does it sloppily or completely neglects it, for what it is more frequent and meaningless election rituals. But the aforementioned two brothers will say more about that. To return to my narrower task. We are almost mortal a blow to great, dignified politics, the one that doesn't he babbles but makes manly decisions, even if it's ours with the war victory in the Great War in 1945, the Goyim thought that they will get new Caesars, but we broke their power, relying on both types of democracy that we have created: the western, capitalist one, and the eastern, folk one or communist. In the famous coalition of the seemingly mortal enemy, these two anti-fascist forces defeated orders of national health and safety, of which we suffered so much. But they should have been let loose, so that we could more easily grab them by the neck and knock them down. Of course, we couldn't reach them completely. It's fighting continues. Their organizations, wherever we can, we outlaw them, we cut them restrictive election rules; we kill and arrest their people, criminalize them, marginalize, ostracize. We are inciting to crimes, so we attribute them to the right-wing. In addition, we pathologize them: we show them, through our media, not only as criminals, but also as madmen. Not we let them say nothing, not even the apparently more moderate ones. We know very well that all of them are radical and extreme, they are all the same fascist bandits, only not they all always perform loudly, out of opportunism or tactically reflections. As soon as one of them dares to touch the anti-fascist taboo, we immediately raise big ones, including international ones scandals, we force everyone to repent and apologize were at least a little close to them, who praised them, or them they did not condemn, and we shoot them down politically for eternal times, never to rise from shame again and the humiliation we inflicted on them. Our special area of work is the hunting of old "wars".

"criminals", soldiers of the defeated, fascist side. Them it must never be lacking, even if they are guilty, how come we see, or completely innocent. Arresting and convicting you half-dead people, we achieve a multiple effect. First, we show the world that our justice is always attainable, even with a delay of half a century. 2nd, we humiliate and discourage the right-wing opponent portraying his heroes in public as aged and weak people. Third, the most important things, we constantly guard I live in memory of our victory, of their defeat, and to what we call fascist crimes: "to never repeat again", as our formula reads, that is, that our power over the world is no longer and never will be be called into question.

Cultivating the mythology of Auschwitz serves us for this purpose, incorporated into the religion of the Holocaust. Jewish election in God we have replaced the elect in suffering. Of course, everyone knows very well that we with the figures of the dead merciless, almost grotesque and extremely rude we exaggerate. But we don't allow anyone, not even you let it speak and write. We do not allow them that Jewish victims compare with others, to relativize themselves. Each try in this sense immediately, through a staged international campaigns, we strongly condemn, in order to cut historical revisionism in the bud. Only the Jewish victims will remain the greatest, they will remain - absolute, that agree with elevating the holocaust to a pedestal deity, the Absolute.

MESUGE: But isn't it really a sign of the absolute held only for God?

NATHANAEL: Clearly, you fool, you are not listening to me! About that and it is said that we declared the holocaust to be god, and therefore and the Absolute. We don't need the old Jewish religion anymore, we can hang it on a peg. How would we use it could oppose goyim's Christianity?! But with the holocaust we can. With that we go directly to theirs cattle hypocritical conscience. And once we accuse them that they are unscrupulous, that they are Zionists, that they are anti-Semites, our work is incomparably easier. Because I can't nothing to us. Whatever they object to us, we will shout: antisemitism! Holocaust! And that's where every conversation ends.

The biggest victim has the biggest right to dominate the world.

Anti-Semitism is our greatest ally. Where him it doesn't exist, we invent it, challenge it and create it.

THE OTHER WISE MEN {applause enthusiastically}: Well done, well done! Truly virtuoso! Long live us, Natanael, a thousand years!

NATANAEL: And what I'm telling you, we're not just spreading us through our direct media. We did yes this Holo-rhetoric of ours is unanimously accepted by their intellectual cliques, their left-liberal mafias, which are our most tested ally in our anti-fascist campaign crusader. They are our mainstays in the fight against right-wing. We right-wingers talk about the holocaust we try to disable, and we also add direct ones pressure, blackmail, threats, including many right-wingers we get on our side. Basically, we keep them as prisoners, hostages; we never trust them, never we don't forgive them, no matter how loud and loud they are tried to distance themselves from their openly extremist comrades. We will never allow them to become something more than our useful idiots.

WISE MEN: Well done, hero! God bless you Holo!

NATANAEL: Besides, we don't just persecute the participants of that war. Let's also persecute today's fascists who in they did not participate in it. We have already introduced a kind board games for established snobs: who's next for shooting down? That's how we staged the hunt for one old aged Latin American dictator, who, I must to admit, he fought heroically against our usurper and his helpers from that, but also from other countries. After that I had already voluntarily given up power, encouraged we are two Spanish judges, our fanatics left-liberal servants, to demand his extradition from Britain, where he went to visit. We crashed and a young neo-fascist in the middle of Europe; he dared to have a father who bought a property cheaply from one of Ours. In addition, this handsome young man dared join the coalition government with our liberal-democratic one henchmen. We made a fuss, and packed him in his province. He is gone! He still passed well.

We are issuing arrest warrants throughout Kosmopolis, and there will be more and more: who we take on the tooth, nowhere in the world they won't feel safe, they won't find refuge anywhere.

No more asylums, no more borders; we took care of that!

THE OTHER WISE MEN (applause vigorously).

NATHANAEL: They will be judged sometime, anywhere, by us it doesn't matter! The world is ours, and it will become so in our time to the end and forever!

ONAN or EQALITE

Civilization cannot survive without the absolute despotism. The nobility was destroyed by our leadership

Brother, rejoice! Annuncio vobis magnum gaudium! (I announce to you great joy!)
It's a wonderful job for us. something happened which we did not even in our wildest dreams dared to expect: we have democratized the world! At two o'clock phases - military victory over fascism and removal communism with a bloodless revolution - succeeded we seduce a democratic monopoly. Where are there any remains of former tyrannies, be sure that we will deal with them too sweep quickly. We are even most of the former monarchies democratized, and we humiliated the goyim kings to play tricks protocol, ceremonial marionettes, those, whom Hegel called the only free people, today, in the countries of the crowned monarchy, be the only ones citizens who do not enjoy our boundless rights and freedoms: kings have no right to an opinion! Woe to them if they ever dare to express their private opinion; our media does not forgive that!
We did not allow anyone's politics to dominate us.
On the contrary, we slipped into their ranks, into theirs politics, so that we master it completely. We democratized the whole world! Extreme, extremist. We turned people into untouchable holy, we declared him God,
sovereign. But be careful: not the people as self-conscious, a proud, homogeneous nation for itself, as an organic one a community of soil and blood, history and courage, rather people like cattle, street mobs, voters' meat endless subject to our manipulation and modeling. Such therefore, the nation is sacred, the nation as a community of those who don't know what they want, who are apolitical, who care only to bread and games, which cannot do without water and which they accept any strong government. They are all equal, equality, equal rights! Roaring, juhuhu!
MESUQE: But isn't the nation a community of unequals, isn't it heterogeneous, a mixture of everything and everything, of all kinds individuals?
ONAN: It's clear, you fool, that the people are heterogeneous. AND our supreme nation is heterogeneous, which everyone will easily conclude an observer who compares me and you. But, for the practical purposes we have the right to assume that all goyim are, more or less, in essentially equal. To the extent that they are not, we are we equalize, through our manipulation, destroying theirs size and impose equal voting rights on them. But, you interrupted me, as is your custom. So, to finish: everyone is equal, but the majority decides, and in the end anyway minority rule, Our minority, blindly loyal to us and submissive! What, isn't that genius? Democracy is for us by name the rule of the people, but in essence the rule against of the people, non-people's government with which we suffocate and destroy Goy people! While they are our slaves, we drive them away into politics, what will they say, we mobilize them as voters meat. When they show that they would get stronger and raise their cattle heads, we spread the rumor that politics is dirty, unworthy job. And all that is not good? are we please maybe they made a mistake somewhere?

THE WISE MENS; No we did not! Excellent! Bravo! Bravo!
It is difficult to list all the advantages we have achieved forcing them into democracy. Stifling the truth, we are stifling justice, instead of values, we introduce majority agreement;
we exhaust cattle in empty, formal procedures, we alienate them from real politics, we milk them huge sums of money needed for the development of democracy circus, we corrupt them and weaken theirs character. We will encourage the psychology of the crowd and the law of the street.
We terrorize their best people democratically conformism and reduction to the middle measure. Equality we stifle freedom and rank.

Dear Sages, we are, that you without surroundings I say, we have turned politics into trash. That's why she is became hideous, but also goyim cattle, which is getting smaller and smaller to the number of turnouts in the elections, which only makes it easier for us job. There are no more strong countries, proud armies (except Oases and our Reserves, you know!), and there are even fewer charismatic ones, strong, authoritarian leaders. We trivialized everything, softened. We introduced the minimum state law: what utopian anarchists dreamed of and preached about classical liberals, we put into practice - of course, to the extent that we need it. Because, totally The dissolution of the state would have known consequences:
a wild state of general war would arise, a state in which there would be no profit for us either.

It is important, namely, that democracy completely weakens the people, but not so that there will be no power, but that there will be power we take over. We let everyone decide about everything, so that no one would actually decide anything but us.
Instead of deciding, they babble like grandmothers. For that purpose we created their parliaments and media for them.
We smear their eyes with the myth of free and fair elections:
it seems to them that their cowardice means something countless anonymous voice, but they don't know, cattle, that we already in forward decided that elections serves us only in order to weaken and destroy their regimes even more continuity of their power.

THE WISE MEN (applause strongly): Well done! Bravo!

ONAN: we assure the people that they rule themselves in the most direct possible way, that it is democracy for them unquestionable value, absolutely good, the best of all political institutions, and in fact it only serves us to spend a perfect, as imperceptible, naive do not allow despotism over goyim animal posterity. But that's why we need chaos and anarchy, which we only achieve with our democratic method.

We are still their democracy in a particularly cunning way made attractive. Namely, we took over the platitude about the "Third Way", which the rightists of the 20th century used as a label for an alternative to tyrannical communism, as well as liberal democracy. We stole that formula from them, and now the Third Way we call something bloodless and the boring, completely redundant combination of social democracy and liberalism, therefore, by chance, the first two "path", but actually our old path. And that mish-mash, which in any case, it marks the post-modern, post-communist tendency towards us left-wing, we show it as a discovery, like something fresh and new, never seen before. don't think goyim fools don't fall for it!

Our services have compiled, and consolidated, a list of characteristics that the government we impose should have.

as a democracy and we consider it good; good, it is understood, for us, as the rulers of the goyim countries from behind.

Here are the components: participation, consensus instead of conflict, the rule of law, predictability, inclusion of all minorities in the administration (not only national ones), transparency, responsiveness, sensitivity to needs people, political responsibility in the narrower sense, openness, availability of information, efficiency and professionalism. Allow me a short comment. As you can see, the list is completely unsystematic and confused, like all our documents.

This is how we achieve the creation of as much confusion as possible, we confuse the enemy and facilitate the penetration of our own lies in empty goy heads. Participation, participation in power: we are just repeating the key democratic principle the dogma of the rule of the people, which is a mere illusion.

We require consensus in order to goy politics they diluted it as much as possible, deprived it of creative passion, and exhausted it and put the brakes on with endless struggles and meetings and idle chatter. The rule of law means the so-called rule of law state, which is still to be advocated for since the 19th century, in order to ease the seriousness of the unjust States. Predictability mostly means nothing, because what could it even mean that the people are allowed to power predict the moves of their leaders? It could also be done here to interpret by force, but it is not important. They are much more important to us minorities: national, religious, ideological, sexual, class... On the one hand, we show them as discriminated and vulnerable, which is a great relief, because it serves as an excuse when one should undertake and justify the demolition of the goyim authorities. On the other hand, their large number, with the powers we give them make political life chaotic and unfathomable, indeed unpredictable; heavy it is to monitor and manage it. In the noise of marginals people can't hear legitimate voice of the majority nation, which we destroy. Transparency doesn't mean much either, it only serves to convince the goyim that everything is clear to them, they don't really understand anything when they arrive. Accountability is simple platitude; in the countries we rule, no one is responsible, but to us, otherwise it flies. And those other words are not I don't even need to comment: it's all a deliberate combination of demagogic lies, phrases and tricks.

They helped us a lot in the classic phase of democracy political parties, and unnecessary, random, bland ones mutually unrecognizable, unscrupulous interest groups, which serve us to break the national unity. Now, when we are in place of the old one democracies put nonsense, undefined democratization as its unlimited, endless expansion to the point of absurdity, non-governmental organizations are even more important to us.

They were created from former pressure groups, but their role is far more serious. We networked with them Goy society up and down, so that we can succeed complete confusion and powerlessness, discord and conflicts.

The role of these non-governmental organizations is irreplaceable in overthrowing the government. And we destroy every government that thinks so she can be proud, dignified and strong, to lead politics in the national interest, sovereign and free, or, even more, openly defies our conditions, orders and pressures.

Today, it is very easy for us to overthrow a government with staged revolution, people's coup, bloodless and civilized, which does not even need revolutionary organizations neither agit-propa (agencies for propaganda), nor strategies nor tactics, nor leaders neither systematic work with the masses, nor theory or ideology. Lenin claimed that there is no revolutionary theory without it revolutionary movement. Tempi passati (Time passed)! To incite street - and everything is done! Today, the regimes are our merit more vulnerable because they are decadent, rotten, and they are rotten because they are democratic.

If we demolish them, we demolish them to make them even more democratic.

Simply, therefore, we start talking about democracy and human rights, and accuse the rulers of violating them, i we will bring the mob to the streets. Here's how we do it (a the model has already been successfully tested on a many number of cases you know):

It all starts with a campaign through the media that we rule, and the uproar of our non-governmental organizations that I mentioned them. Our media write about the crisis and collapse where they are not there, affairs and sensations are invented that inflame the imagination of frustrated goyim. Sometimes the Catholic Church also helps us church, through its left wing. The same goes for trade union centers. We seduce young people at rock concerts. We attack the regime, portray it as tyrannical and usurper, we claim that he forged the last elections, and we invite "citizens" to disobey. We induce dissatisfaction, our services organize mass demonstrations. Seduced mob our promotion, over of »independent and free media«, portrays them as honest, enlightened and prudent people. The opposition we bring comes to power with false promises. In the important moment, the army and police - which we are timely proselytes with our agents - deny obedience authorities. We stage in such an electrified atmosphere with new elections, this time certainly manipulated and half falsified by necessity: our "observers" take care of that, those same NGOs, pressure groups that we mobilize. And that is how we bring, without any trouble, to power our puppets! If they prove to be immature, the procedure was soon repeated without any difficulties. In this way, we actually demolished Eastern European ones as well communism, taking advantage of healthy nationalism as well forces, which we then replaced with our agents.

We applied some of that and overthrowing the Latin American caudillos, and today you can follow ours postmodern revolutions everywhere. With them we will conquer the last corner of the globe. In the West for now we don't have to apply them, because we keep him on the reins limited sovereignty and totalitarian liberal regiments, which do not allow national interests to express themselves, and national leaders to strengthen. With democracy, we completely disable them. This is precisely one of the most important applications of democracy. It does not preach equality only in theory it realizes it in practice primarily by excluding any true greatness. Everything is gray, boring, left to lowly people, and in the best case - mediocrity. Exceptional people with attitude and belief in values, individuals carried by passions, ideas and visions, inspired and creative ones, we thwart them by all means. We stage different legal violations, we challenge them we envy them, we destroy them with our media, we proclaim them excessive, ridiculous and provocateurs. We don't allow it large enough to spread and strengthen; everyone must be equal. We managed to make the people laugh at noble idealists, to classy heroes, sublime geniuses, yes they are despised as someone once despised thieves and cheaters, prostitutes and pornographers. Such, however, have become ours heroes, after the world of values has succeeded for us turn upside down. To vacant positions exceptional husbands we have placed mediocrity. That's how it goes both in art and philosophy, and especially in politics. Because, small people guarantee that politics will also be small. They stretch, trifles, they trumpet, they don't make up their minds - we stuck all decisions for us. We don't let them think, consider or to make big long-term plans. Everything is under control. nothing should surprise us. We do, of course, and further; there is still a lot of unfinished business. But we are on the right path and don't want to stop until the last one the country of this world does not get political parties, parliament and free and fair elections!

PINHAS or WHY WE ARE LIBERALS

The idea of freedom is unrealizable. After we injected the poison of liberalism into the state body, his entire political nature has changed.

The states were gripped by a deadly disease of corruption blood. We just have to wait for theirs agony.

MESUQE: So what is the title of your lecture?

Are we liberals?

PINHAS: Come on, brothers, shut him up! What mode is?! So far he has interfered with his interventions (better said: interrupted and interrupted) afterwards, during the presentation, and now he, the Lord, would have the first word! Listen, dumbass!

Listen to the end, then judge with your bird brain, if you really think you have to! Who told you that do we believe in liberalism? He is just a means for us authorities like any other, and that's all. We wish goyim impose liberalism, as well as democracy, that more of them to devour, and that is why liberalism is dear to us. Are you now understood ? Shut up and listen, or I will ask the brothers to kick you out of our meetings!

Good. So, here is why liberalism is for us so useful. Let me just say: In the 19th and 20th centuries we were not communists, just as we are not liberals now, as this fool is plotting against us, but we still came up with a. But we lure them into the liberal waters, especially by going up their vanity. All of them - the goyim, namely, are convinced that they think something, and in most cases, they don't think anything, just they have certain prejudices and repeat what they have learned from our newspapers, experiencing our deceptions as the fruit of his own critical intellect. But they, therefore, think that they think, and we support them in this by guaranteeing "freedom opinions". We grant everyone the so-called right to (own) opinion. That's how we mislead them. Each one of them suddenly feels he is important, and consider himself as - "thinker"! We freed everyone to "think", freely and differently. We are fooling them with that. But that's where we added two catches: first: under our regiment, every goy is not free to think what he wants , and what just comes to his cattle mind.

In the network of liberal false freedoms, we are imbued with a special one another network, the network of prohibitions, taboos, liberal dogma. No one, for example, has the right to refer to freedom of thought, writing or scientific research in order to question our Auschwitz mythology and our religion The Holocaust. The same goes for those who find good ones sides in the ranks that we removed from the historical scene

In 1945, nationalism in general, and at its most flamboyant dose, out of law. Our historiographic versions are stronger then the Holy Scriptures. All those who try to bring them in the question, for eternal times we compromise as unscientific liars, "Nazis", "anti-Semites", the last scoundrels and scumbags. So who dares to get hurt that sacred untouchability, it's over: we will shame him as a villain, he will end up in prison, and on public activity he can't even think anymore.

Second: in the multitude of incoherent and completely redundant opinions, which arise from the logic of liberal unrestrainedness, no one can manage anymore. There is a complete mess confusion and disorientation. Relativism and permissiveness arise: everything is equally valuable, everything is allowed and welcome. But that also means that nothing is special worthy of extreme conviction and sacrifice. Nothing is finished valuable, true and just; nothing is untouchable and sacred.

Once we have established such a state, we are in our element. We can imperceptibly and with impunity hunt in the murky of their unchanging freedom, and, while they didn't even manage, we manage to help exactly those opinions and decisions that suit us.

In fact, offering freedom for all and sundry does nothing means to make man truly free. A heroic endeavour arduous, dangerous liberation from slavery provides a deeper experience of freedom than when you have it, without any effort and risk, without a price to pay, is ready to serve on a tray. Liberalism is useful to us because it - having freedom always in the language, and precisely serving it on a platter (even seemingly, of course!) - in a political one practice enables much stronger, deeper and more effective, more total terror but communism and fascism together!

Because, look, brother: while authoritarian orders, against whom we fight with all means, their opponents they were still taken seriously when they were persecuted and imprisoned and killed, we can use these means to some extent deny. It is often enough to show our opponents unimportant and stupid, so that they can see who we are successfully trained simply start to laugh. None of ours is not afraid to run away from us. All they think that we bring them the greatest good. We don't do it gladly martyrs and heroes from their enemies - that's how they are always the seed of future rebellion, with prospects of success. No, we make comedy characters out of them. And such will never win!

On the one hand, therefore, they are funny, they work frivolous. People will not join them. On the other side, we convinced them that we offer them maximum freedom and rights. We enslaved them like no one before in the world of history, and they feel free! Actually they are unwitting happy slaves. And that is the highest possible level submission and submissions. However, when they fail the soft ones we will not give up the way, persecution and imprisonment. We are not crazy.

First of all, we established and used liberal movements that national independence and creation national states, we break religious ones - Christian and Islamic - Great empires: Germany, Austria-Hungary, Russia and Turkey. With liberal democracy we destroyed, after all, at the beginning of the 20th century and the great Chinese empire, to promise him (through Sun Yat-sen) socialism and nationalism, and leave it in reality for decades international and civil war and separation on two countries. Today, with liberalism, we most certainly destroy nations. Because liberalism has two faces: the individualistic one, and the cosmopolitan one. Liberalism advocates the values of the isolated, lonely man-individual, teach him that he can socialize only on way of global world connection. Between lonely creatures, and world empires there is no place for nation, we are cutting its roots, squeezing it out and we shame her as an inhuman community of primitives hatred, as we heard from brother Methuselah's beautiful presentation.

Liberalism, however, leaves no room for the state either.

It was exactly when the more intelligent goyim understood the essence of liberalism included it in the phrase "anarcho-liberalism":

liberalism is essentially anarchic. He is against the government, against authority, against the state. He is satisfied with the minimum state. So we through the mediation of the liberal lie, we manage to goy nations are shedding, that their rank and dignity is being degraded, yes weak, to be left to long-term decay, because everything is allowed to the members of those nations.

Without a strong state, the goyim remain devoid of an organic community which protects, cheers and uplifts him, which moves him to greatness work, which instills great ideas in him. Indulge, very much liberally, goy creatures to themselves, we undermine the basis of their survival.

Besides false freedom, we serve the goyim with liberalism and false rights. We put it into his head that he even has some rights. In this way, we paralyze him, we do him incapable of grasping those rights himself which really belong to him, and which he cannot have if they are does not usurp. We, therefore, lull him into a pleasant illusion that the liberal system takes care and does its best, how would provide him with some of his own, how about them we call "human" and "citizen" rights. As if liberal the organization has no smarter job than to take care of the welfare of his victim!

MESUQE: Ha! Ha!

PINHAS: You shut up! And you, brothers, keep in mind that our vain rhetoric about rights achieves two more very important ones effect. First, clamor for rights, we goyim break out of their heads that he has any duties at all. We teach him that the state exists only to satisfy his needs real or fake needs, his whims, to his pleasure. That's how he learned that all he has to do is ask, demand, that actually others, that the state, have towards duties to him, but that he has no duties, is only a subject of law. So he began to experience the state as a kind of public lady. Whether he paid or not paid, she is only there for him to enjoy.

Second, our talk (dumb down) about rights always has it in mind individual rights, we have only individual rights before our eyes man, and never and by no means a human community. So we train the goyim not to think of the collective at all, community, national, state rights, but he he actually understands his personal rights as a rule something that is opposed to community, state and national survival. So we immediately got it for conflict with one's own people and their country. So he becomes an anarchist, an egotistical rebel or an apathetic private citizen-townsmen. And basically, it's all the same.

But what I said is far from everything. Human rights, which we managed to impose on the whole world as indestructible, as much as trivial platitudes, they serve us as an excellent means of humiliation and enslavement. Human rights, we exert pressure on the goyim peoples.

If they don't follow our orders - and exactly how we formulate them! - on nurturing and protecting human rights, we invite our authorities to deny them support, subject them to sanctions, to, in other words, excommunicate them from that what we call the "international community". On each a sign of disobedience, we swing the baton of human rights.

That is how we force the country-victim to comply with our demands, to accept our standards but that is how we weakening country from inside and make her blackmailable: whenever she breaks our commandments, we accuse her of violating human rights and we punish her. We praise her only when she at the end completely fulfills our program for the realization of human rights, what in in practice it means complete national-state capitulation, renunciation of one's own interests and unconditional submission to us as masters of the world.

Of course, we are not "human rights" and related shenanigans invented for us. We have our rights. Those platitudes they only serve to subdue cattle. It is to understand also that we, in our work against the goyim, we do not uphold any "human rights". That goes for us, as well as for all those global bodies (international organizations). Supreme Governments that we invented and put into operation. In order to weaken the Goy nation-state communities, but also the corruption of their people, we imposed on them Libera's cult of so-called tolerance and dialogue. Instead to search for the truth and to respect values, we train them to embrace the mere multiplicity of opinions as a goal towards themselves, and that they consider all these opinions equally valuable and equally worthy. We teach them to be tolerant towards everything, which practically means that they despise everything equally, and to endure our tyranny. That's not tolerance for people, but for illusions; for opinions, random beliefs and so-called lifestyles. And again, therefore, like liberalism, like "human rights", so tolerance is something we invented for them, to destroy cattle. We need tolerance to make them tolerate each other, therefore, that their self-defense reflexes do not start to work, but also that they tolerate our terror, our ideas and actions. Otherwise we are perfectly intolerant. As you know, we introduced the principle of intolerance for the intolerant, and that means for everyone what is still valid and what still dares to believe in truth instead of tolerance.

And the dialogue is a separate story. We created an impression that true insights are not created by the effort of an individual spirit, but in dialogue. But in really in the dialogue is nothing creating - except babbling and yielding in front of power apparent arguments. Where the dialogue begins, we know very well, that is where a bell rang to religion, philosophy, and politics. That's why dialogue and tolerance are the pillars of liberalism worldview - the most effective means of struggle against truth and justice.

Political ones come in handy as purveyors of liberal lies cliques of today's Goy West, which we are raised and enthroned themselves, then, representatives of the left-wings of the Catholic Church, which - as you have already heard - persistently we are calling for the Third Vatican Council to be held that would finally end and destroy Catholic Church, then intellectual lumpen proletarians, snobs and fashionistas of all colors, contemporary "artists", some minorities that we forced to look for their own so-called "rights" and similar vermin. In one word, we weakened the goyim and their peoples by action liberal principles and practice, and when we completely weaken them, then we show them that state as a reward, as a merit that we recognize based on their cooperation. When we have exhausted them so completely and humiliated, when they have completely submitted to us, we point them out - to their delight - the highest honor by that we allow them to be with their faded, melted states to include in integrative processes and structures which we prepared for them in order to beat them to the end.

RUBEN or HOW TO CARE MISERABLE

Today, all the wheels of state mechanisms are set in motion by one driver, which is in our hands. That driver is gold. It is in our interest for the worker to be hungry and weak, because of scarcity submits to our will, and the weak will have no strength not even the energy to resist us.

The sage RUBEN began somewhat paradoxically:

Our goal is to encourage poverty, but also wealth. How it? In both cases, we equally promote material values, money, the need to give it is acquired, owned and spent. Isn't also one goyim-the smart guy- noticed that the psychology of capitalists and proletarians is the same?

The only difference is that one has,

and other one don't have. They both want to have it, and we support both of them:

they only deal with material goods, let them only deal with material goods, consumerism and false needs that we instilled in them, and let them go to us to create the spiritual profile of the world in peace! And to make some money along the way, of course! After all, didn't we come up with both ideologies - capitalism and communism?

Certainly, misery has special advantages. Holding on a large part of the world's goy population to be miserable, we make them dependent on the source of money, with which we can blackmail them we degrade their dignity and hinder them their possible subversive actions against us

Order, which cost money. We discourage them, we spread defeatism.

We let others get rich in order to get more money out of them, but also knowing how seductive it can be possessions, which distract a person from everything important i valuable, and turn it into a selfish shopping machine cheap (and expensive!) pleasures, encouraging conceit and vanity of every kind. If the poor goyim is a slave to hunger, rich goyim easily become a slave of abundance, and his an addict, of course. Money and wealth become the goal to himself, suppressing all other, higher and nobler goals. It is an old goyim -smart guy condemned as "chrematistics" (the art of trading to acquire wealth in the form of money), but nothing helped him: we make sure that she will continue to be nurtured. Both times we dumb down the cattle and thus make it easier for us to rule over her.

We promote true idolatry, the cult of money, we seduce peculiar monetarist fatalism: we are spreading, namely, the illusion that everything is influenced by money and that without money there is nothing to do absolutely nothing is possible. Yes, it is true that you can't do without money you can't even move away. But some things can be done so: thinking and planning do not cost anything, and who boldly begins to do the deed, he knows that it will happen to him afterwards - get the necessary funds. We, however, such discourage ventures. In addition, learning that the world is ruled by money, we turn our attention away from circumstances the world, for the most part, and hopefully all of it more and more, in fact - we rule! And with our money, of course, and with their money that we rob them of, and with all that we buy from them for nothing, but also with our boundless will to rule, with our own conspiracy mind and our network that we crossed the world. In money-financial businesses that goyim do we are bringing in as much corruption as possible, so that they can be contained punish and imprison. We ourselves, as always, are looking for us the highest commissions and interest, so that we with our usury impoverished the rich and beat up the poor. It was especially important for us to poison the goyim economically life. From the very beginning, we encouraged the mindless industrialization, destroying organic structures harmonious natural life. With Cannibalistic capitalism, we developed on one side type of a greedy and heartless monster, and on the other side a type of modern slave, who earns money in the most difficult conditions a dry crust of bread, and in his misfortune he indulges in vices, neglects and destroys his own family, and finally dies prematurely from such a deadly disease. This situation helped us a lot on the other side as well: as the reaction, namely, it was called into the life of a radical totalitarian movements of so-called earthly salvation, which are through the politics of the 20th century brought unprecedented misfortunes to the goyim.

Agriculture as a primordial economic branch, as the radiation of man's unity with nature and God, as framework for the creation of traditional folk culture, as a guarantor healthy conservative roots in the soil and blood - either is a particularly important target for our destruction. A peasant we correctly understood it as a mortal enemy. That's why we are act on three plans, should we not suppress his challenging the threat of everything that is sacred to us: we worked on forced urbanization, which would eradicate the free peasant from his country, placed him in a concrete house - the jungle, in which he would lose his identity, strength and self-awareness and he was turning into a dependent hired worker, a small twist in the monstrous machinery of the modern alienated survival. Second, we went for the termination of special benefits family farms, industrializing agriculture and organizing it into large corporations. Finally, we collectivized the village, "nationalized" i.e. nationalized, and thus destroyed the peasant's intimate relationship with the land, depriving him of the fruits of his labor at the same time.

We further destroyed agriculture with mechanization, by introducing toxic substances into the processing process land and livestock breeding, or, in recent times, by the production of genetically modified food, which in addition a small commission to their corrupt politicians we impose on the lands of the goy peoples in turn. Anyway, we managed to pollute the total human the environment to unprecedented proportions. We turned the rivers into sewerage, land down to the garbage dump, and air we made a gas chamber!

On these words there was thunderous approval from those gathered sages, who enthusiastically shouted: Well done! Bravo!

However, for speaking inevitable appeared again:

MESUQE: But, if all that is true, they will poison us too!

RUBEN: We watch what we eat and breathe. Except of that, we are working to take over a complete monopoly over world water supplies. The day will come when we will sell clean water to the goyim at an expensive price, but also pure air. There will be possibilities of blackmailing goy vermin, of course, become limitless. Furthermore, we have our own natural reserves. And, my God, something has to be endured for a great cause. But don't interrupt me again. Let's go further! In addition to the topic of the environment, let me just add this: Pollution of the planet Earth, which should be carried out systematically, it also enabled us to act as advocates pure nature, environmental protection. We are an ecological idea actually stole from our opponents, who used it on strategies to protect God's creatures and order. And we have perverted it in our favor: the environment we do not save, but at the same time we loudly call for protection plant-animal world, and so we leave the man-goyim perish: We urge the salvation of every tree and cats, and we expose the unborn goyim to the plague.

In our grandiose undertaking of ending the goyim nation, we use proven supranational, global ones instruments with which we further destroy economy and finance of the goyim peoples fallen into a crisis that we prepared ourselves beforehand. Through that instrumentation, which includes the International Monetary fund, the World Bank and the World Trade Organization, we have already mostly succeeded in destroying the Third World, a we try to do that with the former Other (communist) the world, which is now in the process of the so-called

"transitions". After we used the national energy for the abolition of communist rule, nationalism we again outlawed, and put in power in We have brought to these countries countless cliques recycled ex-communists. They are our leverage now implementation of our destructive economic policy in those countries.

And while we manage the World Bank in order to directed their economies in our favor, and at the same time we as much as possible exploit them, and Trade Organization worked to break down borders between nations and states, and thus on their globalization (capital and profit they have no borders, nor nationalities, and gold is the driving force all state mechanisms!), - I liked the special role our darling, the IMF.

The general rule is: suck money out of national banks victim countries, and then impose usurious loans on them.

However, we provide loans only on our terms.

We blackmail the victims, make them dependent, so that they cannot don't even think about independent, sovereign management of their economics and politics. The victim in their stupidity and powerlessness us see and experience as a savior, so whatever we did against their livelihood, it looks good to them too and welcome. Under the guise of help, we ruin them primarily economically and socially, and then politically and morally.

The conditions we impose on our victims, developed countries would not accept. And we impose them ultimately, autocratic; no talk of democracy, to which otherwise we force them. Here's what it looks like: we give it to them loans if their financial, economic and trade policy is completely subordinated to debt repayment obligations.

In this way, however, it affects their economy irreparable damage. They, for example, have to drastically reduce the national budget, state subsidies vital industrial branches and imports. Not even across the necessary equipment must not be imported. For encouragement export, the victim must devalue the national currency. State the industry must be privatized (we subsequently accuse them for criminal privatization, let them argue and to sue!), and radical cuts in social welfare must be implemented giving.

All this serves to easily obtain the money needed for repayment of our loans, and along the way achieves a whole series of fatal consequences done: economic collapse, social disaster, general poverty... Pensioners are dying of hunger, mothers don't want to give birth to children, the ill people die in front hospital doors. Victim countries are forced to lay off many members of the most important services - army and police. Redundant is to explain what enormous advantages it brings us! Privatization leads to priceless sales, and liberalization capital market outflow of money. Market determination of prices causes an increase of prices, and additional impoverishment, so free trade causes the destruction of the natives economic branches and forces the import of cheap garbage.

We "save" the victim from this state by so-called reprogramming debts with new interests and new blackmails. If they do not submit to blackmail, there are no more loans. If they don't return the money, we rob their property. So they more they can never get out of the vicious circle in which we put them drawn in, and can never be free again. And because we instilled in them the spirit of slavery in time, they won't either come to mind that they are building their future by developing own economic infrastructure and on the principle of self-sufficiency, and with prudent bilateral agreements with countries with which they can agree on mutual uses.

With the described methodology, we managed to settle down an annual installment of about twenty million darkened goyim, who die out saving on health care and fundamentals infrastructure, so that they could pay off usury debts to us. We managed to bury some rich countries as well and less rich countries: we finished the economies Poland and Argentina, Brazil, Mexico and Indonesia, and a good part of Africa. Botswana was the only one to wrestle, a there is also one Slovenia in Europe, and the goyim see that there is nothing wrong with that

. That is why our work must continue. Perspectives are bright: we are already destroying poor countries with that which are not competitive on the international market, so they must open the borders to the influx of foreign, low-quality goods which destroys their domestic economy and thus makes more of them the poorer ones. And we find even among the ultra-poor even poorer, so that we could send them the cheapest ones labor force and thereby created armies of the unemployed, who can only hope for a quick death from starvation. And I believe that it is clear to you that the economic decline is already i generates the destabilization of goy states by itself, incite crises and riots, up to coups and civil wars. And that's where we are completely in our element: we offer new economic and financial aid, and we place the so-called saviors at the head of state, but in fact our goyim servants. Money, brothers, money rules the world. Gold, gold! Of course, the spirit rules, in this case our spirit, but over the gold. The goyim spirit could rule, too, if they weren't such fools what they are, and what we make of them. Because we convinced them as the economy is a key world factor. They think they have deftly exposed us when they whistle about the oil that runs the world and our need for that and such oil. Yes, we also need oil, we also run wars because of oil. But they overestimate it: we don't have to to destroy the regime and occupy countries in order to get hold of each other their oil. Whoever is in power, everyone, the regime is happy to sell oil to us. So if we over reserved Oasis attack some oil-bearing country, that's it this to beat our Islamic-Arab bloodline enemies, and oil comes in our hands as a dessert.

XIX. SATAN OR LET THE DISGUSTING PRESS TO FLOURISH

*The press serves to inflame useful passions to a frenzy our intentions and party egoism.
The press is often empty, unfair and lying. He embodies the so-called freedom.
We achieved our influence with it, but we are still stayed hidden. To make the public opinion on our side, we need to interweave it from all sides throw up so many conflicting opinions, so that ignorant goyim get lost in that labyrinth and so they conclude that it is better not to have a political opinion.*

The Supreme Sage announced the report with special enthusiasm sage SATAN, pointing out the incomparable the importance of his service in the job of finishing off the goyim nations and individual souls of their people. Satan is with a cheerful and energetic voice began to present, and in no time won the undivided attention of his grateful ones listeners:

Wise brothers! I think I can boast of a special one successes in our field of activity, and you judge ! We act through our people in particular countries, through governments that are already completely ours delivered to mercy, but also by pressure on governments through our supranational centers. As you know we announced that I would talk about successes in the field on press, and don't blame me if in report I also include audio-visual media, because we also work on them equally, and we will have to in the future. You will hear what difficulties we are facing when it comes to the latest media, but don't think anything will stop in fulfilling our complete task! (powerful applause). All media are mainly in our hands - both newspapers and radio and TV, not only in the private Oasis, but also all over the entire cattle world. To make us rely on media would be fully effective, we made sure that we turn journalists into holy cows, untouchable priests of freedom, which according to their rank stand even higher than our democratic politicians and related gangs. Journalist is the supreme authority and woe to who opposes him and stand on his foot! But at the same time, we drastically lowered the level journalistic literacy and education. What are the the dumber the scribblers are, the more susceptible they are to our manipulation, and thus more successfully dumb down the goyim vermin. But let me start with the press. I can tell you we are that media developed and adapted so much that at least 90% of it the content serves our needs and carries ours promotion. We have established a monopoly over information and comments, which in some countries - such as most countries of former communism - almost complete. We are constantly brainwashing the goyim we lie and deceive them, we drive them crazy by manipulating them their already unstable and crazy opinions. And the press helps us implement our democracy like a monkey circus, like a mere overexertion, like the reign of disinformation. Newspapers are also used for hunting innocent, but our unwilling individuals, ours attested enemies, whom in the press, without every court, we bring murderous accusations and final judgments. About the role of the free press in our mastery the judiciary will say something after me, respected brother, sage Savao, and I will come back to that topic. Just to add to this part of the report, our press was - with other in general, of course - in the past period was the most reliable instrumentality of setting up and overthrowing rulers in goyim countries. You, brothers, are certainly familiar with how we are in the past At times, the press was largely used over and over what he is to keep quiet. We used, in the West, different types and measures of censorship, and also in the East, in the communist states, it was applied the most widely prohibitions imposed on information and commenting. After we used the national and nationalist ones movements to destroy communism, which has become us useless and unnecessary, we concluded that it is far from us better instead of restraining the press to install unlimited freedom. In fact, we can't do anymore a lot of things in newspapers kept silent; every secret today they find out easily, even without the media. Therefore, more today we lie not so much by concealing the truth as by direct imposition deceptions. [soon we will introduce again bans and strict censorship, as soon as usability is exhausted of the current model, because through the sea of lies it leaks some part of the truth. But for now we stick to the absolute model freedom. Everyone believes, it seems to everyone, how it is complete freedom of the press, as everyone writes what he wants, and they think that this is also a guarantee of truthful reporting (or they think that freedom is more important than truth), a in fact, we have never had better control over published opinion. (of course we do not allowed publish contents that we do not allow to appear freely, and we eradicate them by all means: but more by mockery and by ignoring rather than direct persecution.) At the same time in this way, all garbage can be expressed. and thus poison the goyim, their political institutions and theirs cattle soul.

This freedom, through our agencies, should be expressly praised, in order to encourage journalists to continue, consciously or unknowingly, remain in our service. We promote ruthless ideology of press freedom. We assure ourselves victims, as I mentioned, that formal freedom of press is more important, more valuable, than truth and justice, honesty, good taste and national-state interest. Good said in Croatia our comrade Dienstbier, whom we sent to make order there: Let here be freedom, even for immorality. That, that! That immorality is exactly what we need. And what else purpose would ours be for our freedom of the press? We play a special role in our press management we intended for lighting and titles. So it's not all in to the text of the article itself. It is also important to title it that way that the reader's attention is immediately captured by our message, so he reads the article in the way we expect from him. With title we will in forward highlight our lie, which the content of the text does not necessarily need to match. She is less important. The titles are summarized messages that we most effectively spread as far as possible we care about: dissatisfaction, apathy, defeatism, despair, or rebellion and resistance. With this, we destroy not only goyim souls, but also his institutions, incite him to revolution where and when we need it. We shoot our enemies with headlines. Namely, let's declare them guilty already in the title itself:

pedophiles, rapists, thieves, murderers, etc We illegally accompany all this with a personal name and with the last name of the victim, so it doesn't even matter what is written in it article, and it is even less important what the court will say: ours media are the supreme court! That's how we punish one group misfit, and we warn the other, so that she knows what awaits her if she does not submit.
And about the use of photos for the same purpose
I don't even need to tell you anymore. With tendentious scenes, now we have at our disposal electronic,
computer montage, far more colorful than the former primitives, clumsy and easily recognizable photo montages, such as, for example, we used after II. World War, in order to spread lies about Auschwitz and related shenanigans. The only one is, although a serious problem with today's electronic montages in that the audience has learned not to to believe, and experiences them as a frivolous joke.
But now I have to tell you specifically about television, although this applies to her so far - with that with the difference that we do not allow her the freedom they enjoy press, because we think: who doesn't read newspapers and doesn't fall prey to the colorful pluralism of nothing that they bring, he will be affected by the selective method of television.
Well, the radio worked for us, but it lost on popularity. Mostly, while cooking, they listen to the radio dumbfounded goyim geese, dull housewives, to whom, subliminally, with an imperceptible and often inaudible suggestion, we inculcate all the dogmas belonging to the spirit of times.
And we expose the youth over the radio, as well as in discos, crazy, exhausting rhythms, disgusting music which empties their already half-empty heads, and fills them with animal instincts. But television, television - that's something special! Isn't there everything there!
MESUQE: I don't even watch it, it's horrible!
SATAN: Well, that's not for you, you fool! We do it for the foolish goyim! Television is our greatest masterpiece and a first-class helper in our mastery over cattle, the key pillar of our global power. That a complicated technique, which could very well be used and to the good, we use it excellently to convey the most trivial, moreover, the most disgusting, vile contents. Especially it is important that we have achieved that the television set which, not too long ago, was a luxury for the privileged, they enter every house, even the last shack.
Who doesn't have enough for bread, will have for TV. She is democratic the instrument with which we penetrated all layers goyim scum, and especially to their cattle offspring. TV is real high school of hedonism and brothelization, permissiveness, relativism and agnosticism. It is important for us to train the goyim that everything is allowed to him and that he believes in nothing. Here, I have an ideal draft of the daily routine at hand TV program, so I will read it to you. Of course, more we cannot completely stick to it, there are some details still difficult to implement, but we are trying... Here, like this:

8:00 a.m.: To start the new day, News; selective, it is understandable, tendentious, with a lot of silence about that most important, and with the latest lies and gimmicks. The only truth is the weather forecast. It will be more and more »naked news«, which means that they will be read gradually while undressing of the reader (male and female) and their subsequent capitulation.

8.30: Commercials. In them we combine stupid lies about advertised products, most often harmful or useless, so that we could sell them more easily and thus better robbed the goyim, - with treacherous promotion of materialism, pornography, promiscuity; body cult and money. Advertisements, don't forget, also have a strong dumbing down effect effect. We make sure that there are not a lot of ads without the sight of a naked woman, or even a man (whose barrier shame is much harder to break through). We will try in future in as many advertisements as possible install realistic scenes of sexual intercourse. 10: (As you can see, the first commercials last an hour and a half because are of inestimable importance to us. During the day we repeat them and expand several times.) At ten o'clock goes Talk show. The ideal instrumentality of dumbing down and losing time. In such shows, we gather a large number of interlocutors about current topics related to various aspects of folk life. It is important that the interlocutors as incompetent as possible, to indulge in superfluous and meaningless things verbal conflicts, to talk nonsense as much as possible and say nothing important. The goyim will conclude that in this endless nonsense dialogue something much more important than the male to bring decision. In addition, the goyim will gain the belief the capable experts take care of his fate, which we want. Because they don't worry, they don't study, they just talk nonsense. That is the essence of the democracy we are introducing to goyim fools. Sometimes the talk show is more political nature, sometimes we reduce it to an intimate confession and a fight in front of the cameras. We're working on it that in the foreseeable future such shows finish with sexual intercourse show host with his obsessed victims, male or female, it doesn't matter. 12: Advertising, business, sales, tourism. It all comes down to it on trade in low-quality products, encouraging consumerism mentality, implanting false needs, manipulation with deceptions and obsessions. At the tourist office propaganda, it is important for us to get the goyim interested in other people's country, to forget about one's own, but also to embrace a foreign one in a completely superficial way. We lure him there not to acquainted with the greatness of other civilities, and gained respect for different people and customs, - than to spend money for cheap pleasures, sex with underage prostitutes, a mindless tour of the monuments that will instead of him see his camera, etc.

14: Midday porn movie. We are working on it finally introduced the screening of a "hard" porn movie in a reasonable, available term, in order to even children could see it. From an early age, namely, we practice goyim in fornication and extravagances, so that we would put an end to them and already shaken cattle family.

16: new portion of fake news and targeted comments. Sacred Purpose: Disinformation and Indoctrination.

16.50: Sport & Fitness. It's about a several-hour sausage-show, which boringly and dully guides the viewer through all sports disciplines, showing current football and other matches, pointless conversations with athletes and redundant comments of their performances. That's how we contribute creating an absurd cult of sports and athletes, with which we mock religion, and the wretched goyim, instead of doing recreational sports on his own in measure in which it is useful at all, and nurtures nobly competition, we tie him to the armchair, where we teach him exercising the body, but actually we are destroying his health, as well as common sense. That's how we achieve paradoxical effect: infatuate goyim with sport, doing him, by the same procedure, perfectly non-sporting being.

20.30: Commercials.

22: The movie. We show mainly third-class works our Hollywood brothers, suitable for the spread of immorality, and encouraging kitsch, junk and nonsense. The more sex-and-crime. Through the film, the easiest way, without resistance, they absorb the dogmas of our globalist-individualist ideology.

Film, in particular, is a deft tool for promoting multi-culti-insanity and racial agenda mixing. We manage to send that message, as well as others using the human need for identification; goyim, the viewer will identify with each character we made him likable, and therefore with all vices which he does in the film.

24: Series. We prefer idle fun, cheap and miserable soap operas that give birth to an irresistible slavish addiction and are closing goyim in a fictitious, fake world, turning away from that which is real and essential, - that ground floor, vulgar comedy without spirit, to spoil the taste and manners of the goyim. This is how we train the goyim, weaken them and in general subject them to our influence.

2-8: Porn without end. Hard porn, of course; why are we going to spend time and money on soft imitations! We stop all shows at any place junk music in the form of obscene and satanic music videos, perversely refined cooking (we are mocking with this God-given food and we encourage dull hedonism), with stupid quizzes, nonsense we sent it to goyim offspring, and astrology and related superstitions. We are working on that soon in almost every show sometimes a shorter, sometimes a longer adverb is inserted under under the title "Holocaust Actual". That's always and everywhere good he came to shake the goyim's mind and strengthen him a feeling of guilt, and I guess you won't say that we can't find at least ten current contents per day related to Holo. There, that would be it. This program is subject to change and additions, and possible improvements, all in with the goal of maximum efficiency. But we stick to the rule that TV brings as few (and fewer and fewer) serious, honest and valuable content, otherwise all our efforts will go to waste! Holy rule: less political seriousness and good music. And even when we bring them, they are only there to shade simplicity. So, we also allow some religious shows, but only if they promote conciliar Christianity, ecumenism and religious tolerance.

I hope it is from my presentation so far it became clear that one of the most important goals of our The purpose of mastering the media is the destruction of the goyim family. In it we have achieved great success. We re-educate children, we encourage narcissism and arrogance in women, we dumb down men, we soften and make addicts. Family collapses not only under the influence of devastating messages from TV screen, but also thanks to the circumstances a TV set became the central person in the house. When he speaks, the others fell silent. There is no family togetherness, no conversation goyim parents with their own animal offspring - none no place or time for goyim upbringing! The best we can wish! You have certainly heard the result of one of ours survey that we conducted in America {America is for us admittedly an ally due to his special attitude towards us, but we can only be the bearers of future world power we!): it turned out, namely, that American children in the majority they like TV more than their father. Well done, kids! No, I have not forgotten that TV, along with other media, they help in our political promotion. That goes without saying. But TV has a special role in that he, in figurative language, imposes politicians on the goyim which are to our taste. Let's make them cute as hell, calves, as we say, immediately be accepted. What elections, what majorities! Fools choose scapegraces imposed on them by our television! And at the end of this speech about the media, I have to say something about the internet. We mustn't bypass the internet, indeed! It has proven to be a reliable ally so far. Through it we manage to spread pornography like never before, but also to manipulate pedophilia, so that we completely innocent, and to us unremarkable individuals, succeeded accuse and condemn for that evil, and thus neutralize their hostile behavior. The Internet also brings the sea others wicked, hideous, stupid and us in every way useful content. The trouble, however, is that that on internet can legally appear a lot true informations and healthy views. Exactly our enemies: nationalists, traditionalists, right-wing conservatives, honest, honorable and dignified people, they flooded the internet their wisdom outgiving and promotion. We are here for now quite powerless. We call them, of course after the well-established custom, fascists and Nazis, we denigrate them and slander, but we fail them to eradicate only by this method. If we destroy their sites in Europe, they are re-buttoned in America, where they are protected by the almighty First Constitutional amendment, which guarantees unlimited freedom of speech and opinions. And, as I said, America is now our ally, she is our base - but in her also act goyim, and we will succeed in realizing the dream of the Holy World (Democratic) Empire of the American nation (by the way: expression it's not ours!) only when we completely master over America, which is not the case yet. Therefore, it remains our task to effectively master the Internet, to tighten him so that nothing happens there in the future without our supervision or against our will. We will also need to parliaments and governments that are under our command order to bring some truly effective laws, persecution mechanisms on a global scale - but I admit that is still not entirely clear to us how to do it.

XX SAVAO or DEATH TO THE DEATH PENALTY!

Although according to the existing laws ~ we only distorted them with contradictory interpretations - created we something magnificent, and achieved wonderful results. It is important to wrap up that decisions with such words, that they act as an expression of the most sublime principles of miracles (a form of social consciousness, a set of unwritten rules, folk customs, habits and norms) and rights.

Sage SAVAO began his report like this:

Wise brothers! Since I am a lawyer, you will not I believe, be offended if I distributed an overview of our work into clear sections. You others also spoke less or more systematic and orderly. So if I do it in to an even greater extent, don't accuse me of sniping and excessive pedantry: I don't know any other way!

§ 1. DEATH PENALTY. I announced my presentation as a speech on the topic of death penalty, but that topic will serve only as an introduction to a full consideration of the problem justice as we understand it, direct it and we plan to reform. And as for the death penalty itself, we have devoted great efforts in these hundred years that there would no anymore be death penalty. Through our submissive high schools, legal lobbies and the media, we systematically spread sophistry "arguments" with the goal of presenting the capital punishment the most ordinary crime. We spoke: man to man he must not take his life, because he did not even give it to him. Of course, one could answer that man to man for the same reason, he cannot take away his freedom, not even his money, which would mean that prisons and fines should also be abolished . We would meanly turn a deaf ear to these counter-arguments, or retaliated with new sophisms. We ignored and the serious claims of supporters of the death penalty, that she, as well as any punishment in general, pronounced in the name of God, that on big crime should be repaid with appropriate retribution, that is legitimately taken life from another in war and self-defense , finally, that the death penalty, if with her does not exaggerate the application, it really has a frightening effect and preventive... of course, one could answer that man to man for the same reason, he cannot take away his freedom, or even his money, which would mean that prisons should also be abolished fines. We would meanly turn a deaf ear to these counter-arguments, or retaliated with new sophisms. We ignored it and the serious claims of supporters of the death penalty, that she, as well as any punishment in general, pronounced in the name of God, yes on the big one crime should be repaid with appropriate retribution, yes is legitimately taken from another in war and self-defense life, finally, that the death penalty, if with her does not exaggerate the application, it really has a frightening effect preventive...

And why was it so important for us to abolish the death penalty?

- which, to be honest, we haven't been able to do except in the countries of Western decadence? We do it in the name of morality, in the name of humanity, and this is how we present ourselves to them as friends of man. So we hide that it is we who despise and destroy human life wherever we can: imposing otherwise superfluous wars if they are in our interest, genocidal campaigns on populations that we consider harmful and redundant, and especially with our favorite method, violent abortion. It's far easier for us to kill goyim, if we falsely introduced ourselves as friends of their lives.

At the same time, by removing the most serious, the death penalty, we we encourage criminals to commit crimes useful to us, and we devalue the idea of strict, deadly serious justice, in order to master it in our own way, by finishing it, by destroying the judiciary - which I will explain below.

§ 2. OUR INVISIBLE REFORM OF JUSTICE.

Instead of the death penalty, we encourage the use of mild punishments. Of course, along the way we kept very inhuman punishments like long-term imprisonment, even life imprisonment. We will not stand for the humanization of the judiciary here, because that punishments are useful to us. But, to a large extent, we direct

instructing the courts to impose minor sentences even for the most severe, the most cruel crimes, what we say with our theories about a good man, about an innocent criminal who is victim of "society", about his repairability, his rights etc. However, we punish minor offenses with disproportionate punishment strictly, how those in the media would act more dangerous and repulsive than the serious ones. We judge the right ones, we release the guilty. All this contributes to overcoming abstract utopia of humanism, but also destroys natural, spontaneous awareness of injustice. That's how the spirits get confused and they soften their nature, and all this makes the goyim more resistant to our final blow. Furthermore, it has managed to create a belief in omnipotence and the inevitability of the law. We turn the law into a god.

We multiply laws, according to that Chinese saying that empires which stand on the brink of ruin pass numerous laws.

That is how we are working on demolition with extensive legislation goyim state. We cover everything with legislation, we try not to leave anything for free human judgment, ordinary decree or moral consciousness. Namely, we cannot absolutely influence these, but through the law we keep everything under control, from family relationships, behavior at school and at work, and we subordinate everything to our goals. Everything you would resolved spontaneously under the auspices of a healthy organic community, we submit to the cold and impersonal intervention of mechanics paragraph. Children sue their parents, and wives sue their husbands - because of "sexual violence" or because of the most common slap, which they often deserve with their stubbornness and unreasonableness and challenging behavior. That's how we end the natural ones human bonds and feelings among the goyim. We also managed to expand the jurisdiction infinitely courts. We have developed a crazy habit of suing because of the most banal little things, by which we increase anyway no small amount of selfishness and hatred in the world. But there is also other beneficial effects; we incite, for example, patients to sue their doctor for every failure of therapy and they demand a high compensation from him. Who do you think will be so brave as to heal goyim cattle? We also make sure that work of courts becomes more complex, sluggish and meaningless. We have made it possible for completely irrelevant processes would be needed thousands of pages court files. From that amount of paper, if and when manages to process, it is unlikely that justice will ever come. But a mess will be created, which will help us to create our turn and we hunt in that murky that we are alone created. Processes become long, unclear, ineffective. In addition, we have introduced the possibility of remission of the sentence so-called protected witnesses, whose betrayal we reward regardless of their crimes. We provide an opportunity anonymous appearance to witnesses already before by court: that's how they can accuse our innocents enemies, without their statements being able to be verified. Finally, we diligently nurture corruption in the judiciary, and so we take it completely into our hands. But it is above all important that we create an atmosphere in which anyone can be tried on trumped-up charges, arrest him and leave him to prove his innocence - instead of court, according to the Roman principle rights, proves the defendant's guilt, so that, moreover, in doubtful case, acquit [in dubio pro reo].

§ 3. EXTENSION OF JURISDICTION. We took care of it that, wherever possible, the regular courts do not rule, but an irrelevant or incompetent ones. One is an example at the end of the 20th century we hastily established International Court in The Hague, designed to judge alleged war criminals from the territory of one former supranational European state (which we by our hand created and once again restored), and from the area African tribal wars (which we instigated with crazy by drawing intra-African borders). That is the court above national legislation, its goal is to criminalize legitimate defensive wars, and eventual individual crimes, as they are in such conflicts normal, turn into a permanent collective national's conscience; finally, shake state stability and national pride. Therefore, we are destroying with such court national-state sovereignty and in that way we are preparing the World Empire. With this "ad hoc" court, however, now the permanent International Court will also work, with the same goal. But we didn't allow that court to judge on our ally our dear base and reserve Oasis =USA, not to mention our home Oasis, hahaha! Second, we achieved that outside and before the court judges from us incited "public opinion". It's actually just "published" opinion of our journalistic servants, but we show it no less and no more than the opinion of the whole nation. And our servants goyim journalists, comparatively with our blood brothers in the media, thanks to freedom of press, which we gradually succeeded in the 20th century spread across the globe, effectively liquidating ours enemies. Enough is enough, against the goyim laws, even before raising the indictment mention their name, to extract some sensational half-truth in the title or a bare lie about them - to create prejudice which will influence the court itself, and stigmatize the victim for whole life. That's how newspapers accuse and judge. Finally, we turn entire nations into communities informers, spies, trained to report and sue.

§ 4. JUDICIAL SHOOT OF GOYIM LEADERS. In

Our job overthrowing goyim governments and states judiciary is useful to us. We managed to create it only recently a climate in which political activity is easily criminalized. Until recently, even democratic politicians enjoyed a certain immunity measure, which made it difficult to start court proceedings against them. Of course, they could be demolished because of the verbal delict and counter-revolution. But that could only be done in fewer cases, and as I said when crimes anyway don't exist anymore. Now that has fundamentally changed. Today it is possible for us to shut down the hideous goyim politician if he kept silent about receiving an impermissibly valuable slightly more expensive gift (nothing above a tie or some kind of souvenir) or he allowed himself something negligible protection, like a free flight. In the atmosphere we impose, we punish even the smallest financial felony, even when it was not committed out of personal gain, but for selfless concern for the political party and her own goals, which exceptionally can even be in the service of the people. We impose corruption on everyone, but the least of all the really corrupt ones. If nothing, we accuse them for "abuse of position and authority during the performance of the service", which can be determined to anyone. We incriminate and banal sex trips, which was before, and far away in more conservative periods, it was completely tolerable, i looked through the fingers, even with a certain sympathy, when a prominent man would keep a mistress. God forbid to keep quiet in front of the "people" some story from their private life ! They must confess to the electorate, and that through our media, which, as I said, at the same time accuse and judge. And only if the politicians dare to use a harsher word, we immediately accuse them for hellish hate speech and violation of the sacred principle of politics correctness. Woe to them!

That's how we make politicians blackmailable, usable for our purposes, liars (because we make them defend themselves from true accusations) and changeable at any moment: if not because of the offense itself, then because his denials. We take away their sacred aureole, which in all places and times accompanied the work of policies. We destroy the last remnant of their authority and reputation in front of their nations. Moreover, we incite people on them, raising plebeian envy and malice, jealousy and greed. We sway the political elite goyim, we overthrow their self-awareness, that they don't strengthen themselves, that they can't rule normally and undisturbed. We don't allow anyone of them to stand out, to be loved and respected, to be a plebiscite and charismatic leader, whether who rule over them: healthy governments or miserable democracy we impose on them - because sometimes, by accident, they can give to goyim a great leader. (however, our special specialty is recently invented institute of universal extradition. That one means a lot to us. The asylum for refugee national leader is over. That goes parallel to the liquidation of nation-state sovereignty and erasing borders. Should we overthrow a leader Goy's pack, that one can no longer hide in the "friendlies" country". There are no such ones, they are all obedient to us. Our lawyers will blow up some offense (and man on power position can't avoid them, even if he stands on his head), so they will invent some kind of crime (legitimate persecution of leftist subversion they will call it "genocide")/ and every government is obliged extradite him to be tried in the country that most wanted him considered as a criminal. Thus, the goyim leaders will no longer be able to feel secure for even a minute in their work not even enjoy their personal inviolability. § 5. PRO-JEWISH AND ANTI-FASCIST LEGISLATION.

Through governments loyal to us, we flooded Europe cruel laws that positively discriminate Supernation. We forbade doubting in Jewish myths, into exaggerated figures about Jewish victims during 2nd World War. We turned the so-called Holocaust into an untouchable article of faith, and "Auschwitz" in the biggest execution ground innocent in world history. We don't let them Jewish victims to compare with other victims, to relativize them. They must be absolute and the greatest, which is priceless to us used when creating identification for the establishment of the New World Order. And the sacrifices they made goyim can be silenced, denied, belittled and make fun of, actually. Well, it's not the same when Germans die or Arabs, - and when the Jews die! So, who doesn't submits to our Holo-religion, we declare him as anti-Semitic criminal and he's done! True, Anglo-Saxon countries still resist the introduction of the pro-Jewish paragraph, which an enemy called by a name of one Jewish strongman from Germany - »lex Bubis« . We still have a long way to go great work in regulating non-European goyim as well.
Only someone in the middle of Syria and Arabia goes to long-term prison for joking about the Holocaust, we will be able to say that our efforts have procreate with success.
On the other hand, in order to additionally privilege the Jewish people, and at the same time strengthened democratically monopoly created in 1945, we carry out persistent nurturing "anti-fascism", and with a series of laws we protect ourselves from restoration authoritarian right-wing orders. Since our the allies won that war in coalition with communism, and we included communism in the anti-fascist front and never we did not attack him seriously. Even when we did it destroyed, as you know, we refrained from criticizing him and debunking, and we pretrained his supporters and included in our ranks, so that, with another sign, they serve in the construction of the New World Order.
And let's persecute fascism even now when he's gone. Always we heat up the "fascist danger" to discourage efforts at its restoration. At the same time, with the help of positive laws we also use those to hunt for half-dead officials who served in defeated regimes, portraying them as horrible criminals, and the youth in the former fascist states turned against generations of fathers and grandfathers, we instill in them complex of indelible national guilt and we train them to be a role model - democrats. While communist crimes we hide and do not let them to be talked about, for example we ask the Croats to immediately forget the huge crimes what the Serbs did to them ***

- we show the fascist crimes as the biggest in history and most timeless.

PLEASE, I WANT TO STOP TRANSLATE HERE FOR A MOMENT TO EXPLAIN THIS ***, because I translate this to whole world for free and I think I deserved this what I'm going to write.

Last picture below of Croatia shows 1750 mass graves (but prediction is that are more then 2000 mass graves of Croats because not all of them are discovered, almost every month new mass grave is discovered) that communist partisans and Serbs did to Croats in 1945 A.D., Main massacre filed is in Bleiburg, Austria, when hundreds of thousands Croats army and civilians surrender to British army (because Great Britain ratify Geneva Convention, but when Croats surrender to British soldiers they surrendered all Croats to evil satanic communist partisans and Serbs and started to shoot at all of them. Few hundred thousands Croats died on Bleiburg and others during Cross Way of Croatian people – you see mass graves in last picture.

(A lot of concentration camps were also made for Croats during and after WW2). Everywhere communist partisans and Serbs came they murdered people on horrible ways, from hospitals they moved wounded people and throw them alive in pits, all women raped and then ripping parts of their body with knives etc. There is so many of crimes that almost no one in world knows for this, I could write hundred of pages but here's only few of them, please read (because this is also that evil Jews hide from all world):

-At Dravograd (today is in Slovenia) PARTISANS BROUGHT 300 PEOPLE INTO THE BASEMENT OF THE BUILDING, THEN THROWN BOMBS THROUGH THE WINDOWS.

-A Slovenian partisan on his deathbed 1984 A.D.: "We raped a girl, killed her, cooked her and ate her!" (published also in press Democracy, Ljubljana, Slovenia, February 27, 2018) Miss Friede Paulitsch (Pavlič, picture below,) captured in Donja Koruška, Slovenia, refused obedience to the partisans. Then the girl was declared as a spy, and 42 partisans raped her, and then he took her to the forest and killed her and made meat soup from her flesh. Today official history is that she is on list of people who was killed by evil nazis!

-Matija Žigrović, Croat Catholic priest 1886 – 1943 A.D. he was an ideological opponent of Bolshevism and often used to speak against it in church. “Antifascists” partisans tortured and abused him a lot. They cut his skin and peeled it and salted it. The partisans then tied him to the horse, his head was on the ground and his legs were in the air. And already on the way to forest his head was completely smashed and his brain leaked out.

Grozno ubojstvo župnika Žigrovića onjekovječio je jedan krapinski fotograf koji je potajno snimio izmučeno tijelo župnika, čiju fotografiju ovdje donosimo, a on ju je čuvao 47 godina. Vidi se da je tijelo župnika Žigrovića potpuno iznakaženo

-Grozda Budak, young girl from Zagreb, at age 18, in 1945 A.D. along with several other girls and young women was raped, tortured and killed. After the partisans repeatedly raped her and brutally abused her, while the female partisans wholeheartedly cheered and mocked her and helped their male "comrades", the "young female partisans" sawed off her limbs part by part with a carpenter's saw, cut her sternum and removed her heart (so many people don't know that one of biggest crimes in history committed female – female communist partisans on Croats after WW2). Afterwards, they skewered it and grilled it. This was claimed by the then head of the army Military Court II. Gabrijel Divjanović.

-this is one example how genocide on Croats was doing: During 1945 A.D.; in hole on ground named Jazovka, (In Slovenia) prisoners, wounded, hospital staff, nuns and others were brought over the pit by trucks, and then the two men above the pit and threw them into it. Subsequently, hand grenades were thrown into the pit, after which moans could be heard from the pit for a long time.

-Huda Jama. Near small place Laško in Slovenia. It includes the Barbara's trench, the place where one of the biggest crimes in the world was committed immediately after the Second World War. The South-Communist army (partisans - 1st KNOJ battalion) liquidated about 3,000 innocent people, among whom there was a large number of civilians - children, women and the elderly. They were walled up alive!

-I also must mention one of many like this – victims from other nationalities together: At the location of Košnica near Celje from pit was found a lot of victims of partisans in 1945 A.D. and they were Croats, Slovenians and German soldiers. German soldiers were buried alive.

- must mention also at least one case because genocide on Croats was continued even months and years after World War II. More than 664 Croat Catholic priests, monks and nuns were killed on horrible ways.

Miroslav Bulešić, Croatian Catholic priest and martyr born 1920 AD, killed 1947 A.D. he was killed in his home with stab wounds to the throat, and his blood splattered the wall of the foyer of the parish office in Lanica. According to eyewitnesses, Bulešić when he saw communists coming to him and feeling that he will die, called out: "Jesus, receive my soul".

Picture of so far discovered 1750 mass graves of Croats – genocide of Croats in 1945 A.D. that almost no one knows. Compared with census made in 1931. – in the 1948. A.D. census shows a loss of 639,000 Croats. Many believe communists lied about census in 1948, some demographic experts think loss of Croats is 1 459 040. Compared with census made in 1931. – in the 1948. Serbs are even more of them (like Jews! World almanac in 1938 A.D. shows in whole world was 15 748 091 Jews and in 1948 A.D there was 15 763 630 Jews). Compared to losses of all British soldiers and civilians: about 450 000, or compared with France losses – 567 000. But Croats were 10 times less inhabitants compared with England and France! I hope now you understand why I wrote all this. Thank you for reading all this and let's continue to Protocols of elders of Zion for 21st century.

N § 6. ON THE PROSECUTION OF SEX CRIMES.

We used to prosecute homosexuality and so on using false denunciations managed to remove a large number of our enemies, we now switched to another tactic. The Goyim, in fact, saw through the abuses it led to application of anti-homosexual legislation, and they abolished it in most countries. Therefore we are brought the lesson that we propagate homosexuality and we advertise, so that as many goyim as possible would accept this disgusting perversion - as the wise brothers have already told us. From a legal point of view, however, I also have to look back to the problem of pedophilia. We have already seen how we work on inducing her. The publicity we dedicate to her through our media, as well as pedophile use of minors girls, that we show them in public on the general way (the media and entertainment are full of them), - in fact by creating a favorable atmosphere, they contribute to the growth of pedophilia, so that she is talked about and written about even more - a vicious circle, then! And when we pedophilia once for all goyim get in their head, there is nothing easier than our enemy, nor neither guilty nor liable, to be accused of pedophilia. Everyone now believe the allegations to be true. And goy nice goes to prison! Of course, we can introduce him to drugs, corruption... Everything it is a substitute for political trials, which we cannot start because we appeal to democratic political freedom. By the way, the increase of pedophilia brings us also benefits in another way: it enables the whole army of our parasites to put them on important positions in goyim state (and we are their bosses) - psychologists, "Social workers, lawyers, and some other "experts". profile.

Like pedophilia, our media also encourages rape, for the same reason. We managed to have more rape than ever before, when they didn't provoke so much in public power. First of all, we encourage rape with the passive rape: half-naked women (whom we raised in the spirit of the brothel) in public and their coquetry behavior, but also an intrusive sexual charge of our public media, which, of course, we do not incriminate. When a man cannot resist seduction, we portray him as freaky monster. Of course, we are not looking for anything special evidence: the statement of the allegedly raped woman is enough for us, and you can always find some kind of prostitute for purposes false accusations. But we don't pursue only classics rape. We also introduced the absurd crime of "rape in marriage". «. We invented, encourage and punish a series of rapes ostensibly similar, but far milder acts. We speak about sexual harassment, say at school or at work place. Sexual harassment, on the other hand, we also call ambiguous words, even looks, as abuse (lookism - rape with a look), and, for example, an invitation for coffee, or some innocent joke from the group the so-called "sexist" ones. Of course, we make sure that women with theirs with a seductive attitude, they cause such reactions, that man who falls for it, (which we trap), accuse and throw out from work, so as not to harm us with their upbringing, educational and other work, but completely with another excuse. We don't accuse women of being sexual harassment; we need it in order to caused male reactions. And with sexual abuse, as with pedophilia, we manipulate so that through our own media we inflate statistics incredibly. We claim that is, for example, 93% of women "mistreated" in the workplace. With such statistics, we suggest awareness of crime but just as suggestively we will encourage him. At the same time about office rape, we destroyed every normal human communication between the sexes, and entered among them mistrust, fear and revenge. What used to be normal in the West and it was breaking the monotony of office spaces, and women, of course, liked it tickling their narcissistic vanity and raising self-awareness, now it has been made in a crime. Good, right? Are you satisfied? MESUGE: I'm not! You didn't explain what if female seduction does not cause desired reaction of a man. SAVAO (translated to english name Savao is apostle Paul before his conversion-Saul of Tarsus): Well, nothing. We will act as if it was caused.

XXI.

ŠILO or GLORY TO ABORTION (translated to english name Šilo means Awl)

An terror is coming from us that eats everyone. Goyim are a flock of sheep and we are wolves. By that it must not think of the number of victims, which have to bring good to the future. We the victims of goyim animal offspring have never count

Supreme Sage said while he smiled : since this our sessions is coming to the end, we here for you today prepared a small surprise, you will hear it yourself, but I don't want to tell you right away what it is about, so I can Hold you in tension. I'll just tell you this much, that our Šilo has a poetic gift. Without further extend, here I am giving word to wise Šilo.

ŠILO: Today I will talk to you about an extremely important topic. Abortion, which we declared to be the most normal thing in the world, so it can be done almost anywhere like on flowing ribbon, is not just an ordinary instrument of our killing goyim cattle; it also contains deep symbolic beauties. He summarizes all our methods in a poetic way, all our endeavors - because in all abortions is our effort to finish (kill) the innocent. Yes, innocent, but he found himself on our way, so we should exterminate him, and enslave.

Abortion in a certain sense connects the mortal punishment and war: unnecessary goyim we condemn to death in forward and we are liquidating them as part of an undeclared war we lead against them. The Gentile must disappear because he dared come to life. They will disappear either physically, or by canceling their dignity and freedom. Let's destroy him, destroy, alive or not-yet-alive, or that not-dead zombie, about which you listened. And abortion, of course, has its advantages:

it's easier to kill a goyim before he was born, but to spend huge sums of money and invest efforts in order to to re-educate them, manipulate, trained. But we also need alive ones, and in terms of costs, we are trying that they bear most of costs by themselves.

We, brothers, would never succeed with our program popularization and widespread use of abortion, if we did not eradicate with exceptional skill consciousness injustice that accompanied him in healthy periods. In our time, however, almost no one notices anymore the self-evident truth that abortion is unjust, that it is in conflict with the principles of religious morality, as well as with the request survival and strengthening of the nation. We created an atmosphere that abortion is perceived as a woman's right to disposal of her own belly, and in the best case as a relatively mild violation of sexual ethics such as prostitution or pornography, and it's not seen as that it's the murder of an innocent, unborn human being. So, therefore, at the same time we fight our battle and against goyim religion, and against his morals, especially against his people - which through abortion we genocidal kill. We invested a lot in abortion propaganda:

we are waging a special war through the media, through the school, politics, even large parts of Christian churches: many priests, if you have an abortion in principle, they condemn it, trivialize him, demanding not to be punished. In Islam, on indeed, the resistance to abortion is still far stronger. We hope that things will get better there too when we finish their fundamental regimes and bring democracy to them. Then we will make them happy when we bring them legions of

doctors, psychiatrists and atheist theologians who are in our services. We also came up with an excellent linguistic trick.

Namely, there are still plenty of cattle that cause hysterics resistance to our abortion project. Such perform under the slogan "Pro Life" (for life), in order to presented us and our devotees as supporters of murder. Of course, we cannot respond to them with the slogan "For death!", and even a shout "For abortion!" would work for the undecided repulsive. And here's what we invented: we invite them to be "Pro choice", for choice. So we are not looking for freedom for abortion, but the freedom to choose abortion (or no, but that is becoming less and less). Of course, the thing is the same, but better sounds.

Feminism, about which spoke with inspiration brother Cain, made that our rationalizations and sophisms of abortion as an expression of women's rights pass almost without any serious resistance in the broadest layers of the goyim cattle. Moreover, we have succeeded in criminalizing and demonizing resistance to abortion, when such resistance still sometimes occurs and appear everywhere. Whoever rises against him voice, we, through our media and loudspeakers, immediately accuse us of regressing, which is human progress left behind long ago. Opponents of abortion we denigrate them as staunch fundamentalists, as opponents unrestrained sexuality, female emancipation, freedom and the happiness of the human race. When the priests as part of religious education shows children movies about abortion, we make noise that they should not shock a delicate and sensitive child. That's why we shock them with horror on TV, we shock them showing the corpses remaining after the slaughter that took place in that war that hit Supreme nation. And most of all we shock tiny unborn goyims - by abortion itself. The countries ruled by our children were communist ones or liberal-democratic, competed in endurance against abortion, on the other hand, in its direct encouragement. They brought, one by one, permissive the laws that most often allow abortion not only in completely exceptional cases, in which it is asserted deformation of the fetus or there is danger to the mother's life, rather, they approve it almost on a doctor's prescription. In order to ease women's consciences, we have introduced some advisory offices, where the mother tries to dissuade from the intention of abortion. Actually she under the impression of public opinion that we created it, which advertises abortion without any restrictions, most often he does what he intended from the beginning anyway. If even if she goes for consultations, they will only help her that she can convince herself that she did it anyway all so that a voice of the unborn can be heard. But we are also introduced advisers who, in criminal regimes in which is abortion still prohibited or difficult, that give women advice how to get rid of the unwanted belly, and avoid criminal liability. In addition, we have developed abortion tourism: women travel to developed, liberal countries, to do "the work" and return home, without anyone investigate that of find out. Where there is no other way, we have hell-grannies who perform illegal abortions. Of course, against that we fight as much as we can: let everything be done neat and clean, and above all lege artis and legal. For example, we falsify surveys showing how is the public prone to abortion. Democratic politicians, who, in order to gain power, promise even the greatest crime if they get a hint that the electorate approves of it, in their campaigns they announce the liberalization of abortion, so, when they come to power, they implement it. Let me tell you one important example: our man a doctor, he once served the media one fake news how out of one million women who have had an illegal abortion was killed 62 thousand. We performed that trick back in the time of the great student rebellion, which opened the door of neo-leftist ideologies, and neo-feminization was still in its infancy. Then in America only 6% of citizens supported the legalization of abortion. But after historical lies of our doctor (and in the past period even bigger figures were lied to!), the public overnight turned to the side of legalization.

We occasionally suggest maintenance in some countries referendum, so that the majority would declare in favor of abortion, and we systematically control most of them. We use at the same time their instilled democratic delusion that it what the majority approves must be good: so with the majority votes could, with some publicity and brainwashing, also approve national suicide. But whatever as he pleases, we are always careful with the referendum, because, despite our indoctrination, the cattle can prepare for us an unpleasant surprise - and then what?! They will call each other to a democratic decision and forbid us to massacre little goyim!

And one more letter, my brothers: We kill the goyim in an abortive manner - only in our reserve Oasis (where goyim bring forth) we liquidated them, after the legalization of abortion 1975, about 50 million! Nice number, huh?! But we kill the goyim and with the wars we support, we encourage or we impose. We kill them with old and new diseases. We are starving them, they are dying as victims of our globalization and the New World Order, which is very effective in his skill to impoverish the poor even more.

In the past, up to twenty million Goy children, heard from his brother Ruben, they die as victims of economic policy our cosmocracy. You see, therefore, that we are removing unborn and born. But at the same time we take care of that lower down the dignity of those born who are intended to survival: we mock birth. How? On various ways. Just think of the topics he deals with goyim bioethics, so everything will be clear to you. We introduced extracorporeal fertilization, their children are born in test tubes, we implant them in the bellies of borrowed mothers, and now we will clone them on a large scale. Resistances exist, as it were they always exist when something new appears. But soon we will silence them with sophistry, pranks and, what is most effective, habit, routine. And I don't have to to interpret what possibilities cloning opens up for us, combined with genetic manipulation: we will be able to to create entire armies of followers, modeled to our needs... But, ah...

Then the good Šilo interrupted his speech in ecstasy, and he continued eloquently, and he even sang he sing them with a ringing tenor:

(notice what he did – Jewish satanic bastard mocked hymn of love from apostle Paul !)

/ if I could speak all the languages of the Goys, and satanic ones,
and I wouldn't do an abortion - I would be no better than a goy or dirty beasts.

Well, we are prophets,
don't we know everything?
Aren't the hills moving at our word?
And to renounce abortion!
Well, we would be nothing!
And our work would turn into nothing.
Abortion is big, important, he came to us well, too well.
Me, he's not rude.

It is a requirement of good taste.
And his victim does not complain or sue, endures all, believes all.
so that it never disappears!
Goy's tongues will be silent, but only if we crush the hateful goy.
The knowledge of the Goys will die, but only if cattle experts are not born.
And that newborn,
which does not speak, which does not think - we rejected it

and that's what we are, that's all we are.
It's good, it's good, to lie, to steal, good to lead to fornication.
It's good, good, to kill a goy cub, old man, woman or dog, but above all he is higher, more beautiful and better, famous abortion, our crown deed.
All the sages shouted and clapped their hands in delight, and their eyes were in tears. ŠILO, himself thrilled, continued in the following words:
I'm small, but beautiful, sons of Zion.
Don't look at me, don't save,
so that I don't wander into a bad life, Abortion victim dear.
Jump, executioners, jump, go, you are wielding a scalpel.
Haste, my love, to the glorious place, angry like a lynx, like a gray wolf.
What to do with the little sister now?
Come back, Zion, come back, come back so I don't wait.
That my head can't see the sun, shut me up in the dark garden, from which there is no way out.
Abortion is holy.
Genocide threatens!
Hell-Grannies,
Hit harder!
Actions mean death to you.
Works of your machine
he will finish off the goyim.

XXII. TOLA or WAR AGAINST WAR

Today, it is more important to disarm the people, than lead them to war. For our purposes, it must be unconditional avoid, that wars bring territorial spread. If more countries wanted unite against us we would start a world war.

Sage TOLA began rather harshly, even belligerently: Now, wise brothers, listen to me carefully. Do not let that you miss something of my words, because everything is important, and the topic is very complex. Therefore, like this: We are both against the war and for it. We encourage it but also we suppress it. And how and why? – you will ask. Well nice that's exactly what I'm going to explain to you, just be careful, so that it doesn't turn out at the end that you didn't understand me, because I don't intend to repeat this, and I do not mean to provide you with extra explanations.

First - as you know - we promote pacifism.

We have been doing this ever since we started winning power over the world. Why pacifism? So, brother, to soften goyim, to make them invulnerable and incapacitated for self-defense. Therefore we need constantly show war as the greatest evil. Let's understand each other, we are fully aware of the noble and classy sides of war. And we led, and we still lead our wars. Goyim thinkers also understood the good and the positive in war for whom we persistently make sure that they are called fascists. With Nietzsche we have that to some extent succeeded, although unfortunately it still has its audience, which, even growing. We couldn't do Hegel unequivocally written off as a fascist despite the campaign that we supported "Left Hegelians" staged against Hegel idolatry of the Prussian state), when he was a spiritual teacher of our prophet Manc. And how can we "fake" one Heraclitus from ancient times, in which none fascism could not exist? Maybe it is, but who cares today?!

However, they all praised, even glorified the war, and so must we admit that we have learned a lot from them. It's war a situation that is far more than the usual, banal peacetime one life, encourages people to great deeds. At war is also insignificant, otherwise an individual can become a hero. He is suddenly ready for unprecedented ascents, he becomes fearless and self-sacrificing, willingly agrees to die for what transcends him: for his comrades, for the nation and the country, for the beloved Home, the one that was until yesterday just a selfish and dull small-towner, who shunned everything discomfort, higher mission and use of force. Becomes ready to submit to authority, to fit into the community system and hierarchies, agree to the discipline that would, in to his established existence, was completely unbearable.

So, that's what war is when you can make it out of cowardice goyim! We know that, and that's why we don't want him to go to war: so as not to ennoble himself.

Therefore, we constantly put before his eyes what a painter is once painted as "the horrors of war". We're hogging him the most sentimental, cheapest pacifism, over of all media and artistic types. We show him the war as a unique combination of all possible troubles and evil. We remind him that in war he is killed, that he is wounded, that he is separated from his family, starves and suffers. That in war he must kill that there is an incredible amount of increased the sum of misfortunes and sufferings. Above all, we teach him that war is immoral, that it is a crime, that it is a hogwash, that it is pure injustice (there is no justly war!), to which man has no right either as a humane man, or as God's creation is bound by God's law and love. And that God's justice obliges him to righteousness, which sometimes, of course, it also includes war - that's what we get out of his heads. We train the goyim that in them stuns the ethos of heroism and honour, and that, at the decisive moment, fails their elementary instinct and self-defense reflexes. Thereby we soften them, feed with cowardice and desertion in them, we prepare them to become completely lukewarm, indifferent, and that they can neither defend themselves, nor defend themselves when we attack them. And the denigration of the war, and the images that make them we spread, especially through TV, about the terrible killing and slaughter, serve another useful purpose: those stories, namely, we deny the possibility of our evils, our own cruelty, such as abortion genocide, and in front of the world we present ourselves as pure-blooded good people. And if they do start a war among themselves, we strive to lead him as recklessly and cruelly as possible, in order to kill as many of our goyim enemies as possible, and how to, by provoking of the enemy's cruelty, as many of their own perished as possible soldiers and civilians. And that's where it helps us pacifist rhetoric, which creates the impression that we are not involved in all these atrocities.

That's how we demonize war, so that war doesn't happen when it doesn't suit us, and when we want war, or cause him, we try to criminalize him, which means two things: we try, namely, that he leads as criminally as possible, contrary to all provisions of the war rights and ethics, so that then, in the second step, military leaders, armies and entire goyim peoples could accuse for crime, for what we call "war crimes."

«. And for unjust warfare we take care of that when we started inventing and perfecting everything that monstrous war technique, suitable to suppresses in another plan warrior virtues, and to be as much as possible civilian victims.

MESUQE: Sorry, I don't understand anything here.

On the one hand, you claim that we promote pacifism, and on the other, to strive for as brutal war as possible. Right?

Aren't these two different policies? So should I think, and what should I stand for?

TOLA: Well, my unfortunate! Again, as usual, you didn't really understand nothing. Why don't you listen better? There is none contradictions here

; we disable goyim for wars that we don't need them, you understand? And at the same time we strive to wars that we need, that are in our interest, which is lead as ruthlessly as possible. Of course we are not pacifists, just with him we plant pacifist flies in goyim heads and fixed ideas when it is useful for us. When they are at war, let in those someone else's wars both sides suffer more so that we can get as much benefit as possible. Here, you I can't make it any clearer interpret to you. But there is something else, which I haven't had enough of so far explained. The fact that we are a moment for peace, a moment for war, that's it it fits into our general decision to be us true lords of war. We manage, for the sake of our economy, of political, imperial progress, and war and peace. We incite to war the peoples we want to decimate, let them just die. We always find some unsolved problem among them that we puff up, or simply we fit into a kind of pre-existing hostility.

If such a war breaks out without our intervention, of its own accord, if it is not necessary for us to encourage him, so much the better for us. We fit in on time, whether, as I said, we persuade on cruelty, whether we prolong or stop the war auto_awesome in our estimation, whether after destruction which, when we need it, we ourselves inspire, perform as a force of peace and help, which will come out of their misfortune extract maximum political and monetary profit. It is important to us whether we caused the war ourselves or joined in the already existing war, that it takes place under our supervision, to stop it whenever it suits us, or to extend it and not allow the warring parties making peace. In this last case, we start the so-called peace process, which is another name for our manipulation, which we also like to call "management crisis" (crisis management), or "peacekeeping", and which can last indefinitely. That way there is no an unequivocal winner, and there is no defeated side either - we are talking about the equal distribution of guilt. Therefore, more precisely that said, both sides were defeated, especially psychologically, and only we win.

These are wars that have neither a declaration nor a peace agreement; neither beginning nor end; nor the definition of the enemy, neither general mobilization nor decisive battles; not even a real one attack, and even less true defense; neither hero nor coward; neither deserters nor profiteers, except the biggest profiteer, and that's us.

When we decide to end the war, both become dependent on us, without our support they can't even move. We put it in their heads that our help is the best thing that can happen to them, and when once they agree to that evil, thinking that it means to them salvation, then we irrevocably take them under our control. Then there is no escape for them, they are ours! We are now working on the world military headquarters, which will finally enable us to take global leadership into our own hands so that not a single war starts or takes place or finishes without us. We will become the absolute world moral authority, the masters, and that is - the destroyers of all sovereignties! we will induce and extinguish conflicts on any point of the globe, whenever we feel like it. Sovereignty is only our!

We are on the best path to the establishment of the World Armed Forces strength - led by our current ally the USA - force, which will perform this role in the capacity of the world policeman, with the assistance of the NATO alliance, which we convert in the mere extended hand of America's faithful helper imperial army. These forces will be especially strong responsible for the destruction of regimes and states that are not favorable to us and people. It will be implemented - as we have already done successfully committed - under the pretext of self-defense, the so-called » international community" from the so-called "terrorism"; for example, we accuse victim state for possessing a dangerous weapon (which we forbid her to produce, although we ourselves we have it in abundance, so when we need it, we also sell it victim states), and then, that state owned it weapons or not, it doesn't matter, - without publication, but with media coverage announcement and the accompanying threatening uproar (make a big noise), we undertake ostensibly a preventive war against it. Of course we can come up with any other excuse for your intervention , such as violations of "Human Rights" or aggression which the country-sacrifice carried out at our behest on another country-victim. We already have that way of behaving tested in practice and now we are moving on. Nothing and no one can't stop us! All that it can be called, the beginning of kingdom of eternal peace, about which Kant dreamed , or the beginning of the kingdom of Satan, or the kingdom God on Earth - however you like. Important is that it works.

XXIII.

URIA or TO DECADENCE ALL POWER

Take a look at this alcohol intoxicated, enjoying wine dulled poultry, which is right to drunkenness equated with freedom

Unfortunately, there was an unpleasant conflict at this session.

It started, however, very nicely. Supreme Sage said: Brethren, we are nearing the end. Let's listen our dear brother Urija, who has one to talk about to the key and comprehensive topic, and it's on to the next one session to see where and how to proceed! Urijah, bless you You tongue our god Holo, and forward to battle!

URIAH: Great and magnanimous sages of Zion! We, the mighty and influential, we still can't do everything. Not even us! We can't create a man, except for the little that we once were made experiments with the homunculus. We can not even create a new man, although we can do even more by corrupt the old.

Some sages shouted: We can, by corruption old man we get a new one! Did you sleep when Philistia reporting on zombification?!

URIJA: Watch out, brothers! It's not a new man! Let him continue. We cannot even create decadence. Yes, we can encourage and prepare it, improving the global predominance of democracy, liberalism, human rights, civil liberties, nanny state, tolerance, dialogue. We can try to make it less among the goyim

elite and authority, aristocracy and hierarchy, greatness and heroism, nobility and sophistication, and more material, moral and spiritual misery, disorder, fornication, various addictions.

However, all this work of ours already assumes that it is decadence took hold of time, otherwise we wouldn't have either could do a lot. Thus, therefore, decadence in essence occurs by itself, and only when it is completed in itself exhaust one period. So it happens spontaneously something we can call universal global corruption, a kind of entropy.

But we can really use that decadence in our benefit. And she works for us, that's it for several decades - even a few centuries, perhaps; it depends about how we look and judge. We could to say that the relationship that exists between us and the phenomenon decadence has a comparable relationship between a fly and excrement: the fly will certainly come to shit, but then she spread shit further. And where there are no signs of decadence at all, there is no place for our activity either. Therefore, for us the greatest loss for us is hiding in the ability that goyim cattle find a way to overcome the decadence that took hold of them, to get back their her feet, and to start a new one an era of greatness. Then we failed...

The assembled WISE men stood loudly at these words to protest, to hit the table with their fists and their feet on the floor, and snort piercingly. The supreme sage threatened sharply to Uria says that they will take away his word, saying: we did not gather here to listen to the announcements of our own abdication! Do not spread defeatism here, because you will suffer badly! It's not true that we are weak and that we are threatened with collapse! Well, haven't you been listening to what's going on, what was everything said during these our sessions? Isn't that all our work, pure, original, without any aids, created so called ex nihilo...

URIJA: Yes, ex nihilo, out of nothing, that nothing which has captured the soul of the goyim, what we call decadence...

MEŠUGE: Shut up, you're decadent, damn you, let devil carry you out!

The supreme sage also silenced Mešuge, with a remark that he was not worthy to participate in the controversy which he doesn't understand. He gave the word to Urijah again, but also ordered to him, however, very determined to stay away from pessimism.

URIJA: But what can I do when you have given me such topic.

The decadence of the goyim animal offspring does mean that he himself should think pessimistically about his own future, but we are also affected by pessimism when we see how much decadence did it by herself and without us...

The Sages shouted: It is not! It didn't nothing! We all alone made it!

URIJA: ... and how real is the danger of that decadence goes away as how she came, and then we are powerless...

The SAGE protested: We are not! We are not weak!

We are powerful!

URIJA: Okay, then let's conclude how we are we ourselves called decadence into life, if we didn't just have it found and used?

The WISE MEN roared in unison: That's right! We are invented decadence! Nothing was found! We create everything ourselves!

URIJA: Ok then. Okay, so we did it we create decadence, and in particular we managed to promote her somewhere in the twenties and thirties of the XX century, and we were already on the best way to finish the cattle, when a reaction appeared... a strong movement... oh, there you see that something can happen even against our will,
it can surprise us, disrupt our plans...

THE WISE MENS again began to stir and throw things:

Again you! Have we agreed? Didn't we warn you?
*But, Supreme Sage, seeing that all this leads nowhere , except it will spoil, and maybe even interrupt today's session, he called on those gathered for peace and reason, and concluded that it was still better to let Urija speak until end, even if they don't agree with his assumptions
, at least we will hear some factual data from him , about which everyone can think whatever he wants, as long as it doesn't get out and doesn't harm our mission. So Urija could continue in a more peaceful atmosphere.*

URIJA: But, brothers, I can comfort you right away. That movement did not last long, and it is ours, yes, it is our merit that he failed: He did not survive the war defeat, which we inflicted on him by the combined detachments of our people's and parliamentarians democrat. Who would ever thought that such a coalition is possible; liberal-totalitarian coalition! And we came up with it, we called it to life! And we managed to crush that brown-black temptation. We hope, for ever and ever. We hope, and we do. We compensated wasted time, and manifestations of decadence

We brought to an even higher level than the previous one.

All, it was not only right-wing that rose up against decadence, but also leftists, at least in words. And that's where we showed our unsurpassed skill. We also soothed both sides, and third side, convinced them that what they call with disgust decadent, is actually completely normal and desirable, that, moreover, it represents the pinnacle of freedom, that it means elasticity and pluralism, against rigidity that suppresses and hinders the unrestrained flowering of life possibilities. The right to diversity - how we are name it. Let everyone do and believe what he likes, in art and science, in religion, in honesty, well, until certain limits, and in politics. We don't mind, because we know that in this way, everyone together will fail faster. Of course, it had nothing to do with real diversity

. We are stifling real, healthy diversity: and that means, we stifled the real people of God and their sovereigns states, in order to drown them all in the One Cosmocratic, global gray, without which there is no New World Order. And we stifled the diversity individuals, not allowing them, or at least making it difficult, to go on surface as a saint, a genius and a hero emerges, encouraging the lower ones people, mediocrity, madmen and criminals. And, please, let's understand each other: this work continues, it is not finished yet, all will be, we will succeed! You see now how full I am

The Sages gathered this praiseworthy change in the speaker's posture and attitude rewarded with abundant applause.

URIJA: That's how we leave every power to decadence
. We want goyim animal offspring to completely capture the unique, general, unstoppable process of corruption, depravity and degeneracy, degeneration and corruption, morbid and pathological, decline and decay. People, nations, cultures; regulations and institutions; civilizations and states; higher forms creativity, old and new virtues, truth, justice, beauty, freedom, but that really, deep, spiritual freedom, and not this apparent one, which we offer and impose
- we condemn all that to death! The dying of life
- this is the phase in which today, thanks to us brothers, are now old goyim peoples. They are exhausted and separated, overwhelmed by strange iniquity. Moral no longer exist at them as a set of sacrosanct norms (which must not be damaged), but as an individual feeling that can come to others whims, but later it can easily be absent. Searching for cheap pleasures, whatever they wallow in misery or live in great luxury. Insipid sentimentality in them goes with the biggest cruelty: and destroys them also one and another. For them everything is about the economy, they are only interested in her, only she is on their tongue. They are carried away by aesthetics ugly, soft, sick, their thought failed, character and the will to decay, in progress disintegration of institutions.
They have become cosmopolitans - that is always certain sign of decadence. They became incapable of self-defense, indulged in superstition and debauchery. And what our great opponent once said: if you see someone falling-push him!

Let me clearly point out the signs of decadence in goyim universe, I will quote from the book one of of our greatest opponents the following description: "Decadence is when a grandmother gives birth to a granddaughter, when an Anglican priest "marries" two homosexuals..."

MESUQE: And soon they will be married by Catholic priest!

URIJA: It's good that you also say something sensible! Wedding them, therefore, »...and the left intellectual republic for that act finds a whole litter of excuses and justifications; when a couple of feminist gets a child created from a combination of their own chromosomes. Decadence is when nobility begins behave in a snobbish way. Decadence, finally, it is not mere weakness, slackness and laziness, mere absence better and stronger, a mere negative. She is active, organized, aggressive evil. It's hard to doubt in her victory." End of quote. That's nice, we're happy to hear that. We are the ones who actively organize it. But, our opponent adds: "But behind her, against her, in spite of her - a new beginning is coming." Well, we won't afford it to you, goyim, even if you stand on your head! Decadence is stronger from you. It conquered all classes, institutions and nations. Infected we are weak and strong among you. We tamed you, made obedient, submissive slaves, harmless, contrite and humble. And who else can resist us?!

XXIV. ZOROBABEL or NEW WORLD ORDER

The grace of God to scattered us, his chosen people, all over the world. In that apparent weakness of our race lies all our strength, which brought us today to the threshold of world domination. Then we will set up a sign that everyone will hold as supranational government. Her hands will spread in all directions like pincers, and her organization will be so large that it will be able to rule all nations. I can assure you that today we are only a few steps away from the goal.

Addressing the enthusiastic gathering, the Supreme Sage ABEL said: Here we are, beautiful brothers of Zion, on the very end. It was nice, pleasant and instructive to listen to almost a month of your intelligent, stimulating words, which they instill confidence, which strengthen faith and hope. That's how far our spirit has come in its self-development.

We are where we are now. We know our duty, therefore, let's go decisively into the last battle, into the last realization of our basis and intentions for the ages! You have heard what has been done, what is being done, what we have to do. And now, the most important, all-encompassing, Supreme goal! Wise man Zerubbabel!

ZOROBABEL: Dear children! Here is the last session, We say goodbye to each other and on to work! But I don't provide today some special contribution to our councils if I talk to you about the Supreme Goal. And and that we heard last weeks was about the Supreme Goal. Only united strategies, just a whole of all together we achieve it with effort: Truth is a whole, a whole these sessions and our bloody conspiracy plan, and only as a whole, what is mental is real, and what is real is mental, what will say all these our wisdoms of ours can only be achieved as a whole , the power can be realized in the whole world, and that what will we achieve will be good and wise for us intelligent and smart and truly real...

MESUQE: Well, you, brother, are a real... Hegelian (who respect the orthodox teachings of Hegel) ZOROBABEL: You shut up, our last day you still want to spoil!

Here people, sages of Zion, parting drew nigh, you are impatient to move from words to actions, like

I am, but let me finish without distraction this my speech, which the Supreme Sage, with regard to The supreme goal, considered the most important of all, although I dare, for the stated reason, to disagree with him entirely. So, the Supreme goal! What is he? Undoubtedly - New World Order. Everything we are talking about here is for him in shadows of Zion we have spoken so far. New World Order, holy Cosmopolis, it is our - the eschaton, the millennium, the End of History!

We see it as a universal world state under rule of the people and the Oasis and our King, of course, in addition reliance on our puppets and fifth columnists, on traitors goyim cliques who obediently serve us. We are the biggest hegemonists, the biggest imperialists! World despotism, tyrannical, total, terrorist, centralist, dictatorial, violent, it is known, because the right is in force, but ours! All is allowed to us, both violence and immorality, and terror and murder.

We blackmail, pressure, threaten, sanction, we mix and mingle, deceive and prank.

We get the job done, that's all that matters, and we do it whether with grace, force or trickery, or perhaps only by allowing and by monitoring spontaneous processes, that is completely unimportant.

We are not deviating from the goal and we will not stop, until everyone does they recognize our supremacy.

THE WISE MENS applaud enthusiastically and cheer.

ZOROBABEL: One world, one nation (those others Methusalem diligently destroys), one breed, one country, one king, one order, one religion, one culture, one language, one trade zone, one economic and monetary system,... Everything leveled, equalized, as much. We will not tolerate differences! All one, because we are neither pluralists nor dualists. We are monists! Monopolists!

Monogamists, monarchists, monomaniacs. One world - one center. There is a decision to be made in one center who will be healthy, who will be alive, and who will be dead. And we will not leave anything without satellite surveillance, we must in every moment know what each goyim thinks and does and says, misses, in any place in our Zionist

Cosmopolis. For every misdemeanor, there is a world police officer to arrest him, to send him to the camp, to beat him, to get a fine out of him (to make him pay).

And since we won't stand it state sovereignty, cattle will no longer be able to hide in foreign countries and seek some kind of asylum. Government general extradition, no one is safe anywhere, everyone we can and follow his trail and come to his head. We stopped the natural state between states, in which each the state is its own legislator, and the state is the wolf to another state.

Now our law will rule, individual sovereignty will be delegated to the people and to the Oasis as the only legitimate bearers of sovereignty, and the world will be beautifully taken over by the universal peace of the cemetery. And we assure them that it is exactly to them for their greatest good, we even recognize their right to dissatisfaction, we admit that this globalmania has and their shortcomings, but at the same time we convince them how there is no alternative for her. Let them know that it is evil, but they they have to admit to us that evil is necessary, that it is about planetary process, and whoever resists it is condemned to past. And what is worse than the past?! Even stupid goyim recite in unison that globalization is good even for national interests! So say to me, brothers, aren't we the greatest enemies of the human race which can be imagined?

THE WISE MENS enthusiastically approve: We are, we are!!!

ZOROBABEL: There were various attempts before connecting the world, or at least Europe, into one whole.
Regarding Europe, it is well known to us, brothers of Zion that work of european unification has always been undertaken by some hideous goy ringleaders that they called "heroes". So it was from Greco-Roman time, through the Middle Ages, until the 19th and 20th centuries; you probably still remember that crazy Corsican and that even crazier Austrian (they think on Napoleon and Hitler). Today we turned around new leaf: we no longer give you your goyim heroic Europe nations, a Europe of sovereignty, a Europe of diversity!
We left your proud white continent to the gray and pale clicks (a group of individuals who communicate with each other and share similar interests) of our techno-bureaucratic puppets, in order to destroy all nations and borders - Methuselah!
- and in order to mix everything into one impossible, dull, monotonous, boring, but at the same time centralistic and the tyrannical whole, the dark night in which they are - when that idiot already called me as so-called Hegelian supporter, so let me say that in the words of that goyim wise man - in which, therefore, all the cows are black.
As for the world, a serious attempt to unite everything until this moment of ours actually is was not either. Yes, there is one typewriter, for which I am not at this time absolutely sure how close we were or weren't, dreamed of eternal peace and the union of the free civil republics. Oh well, Stoics (people who's basic motto is: "Life in harmony with nature") also dreamed (within the narrow limits of the mini-world known to them), and Dante, and some other Catholics. But, but... they didn't namely, conditions didn't acquired for that. And even less was possible to connect the world in a way that suits us. Only it fell to us to carry out relentless globalization, globalization: one globe, one world, and that under our supremacy!

ZOROBABEL: We create a unique world, unique humanity that will serve us, unique, mixed, and in that mixture a leveled people of humans, who will be our slaves. That will rightly be called citizens of the world. Be a man and be a manikin, and above all, be submissive to us. What nations, what homelands! What will you need cattle your divided countries?! It's a false need, fake community. There is no place for that, it is not for the goyim; Supreme nation and Oasis are enough, and goyim should be the most natural community, the whole universal world! But someone has to rule the world, to keep it in order and at peace, and that is us. You have heard, or will hear, many objections to this our supreme project of world supremacy. That's what the goyim tell you, don't take it to your heart. They they claim that the idea is a utopia, that it will never work for us manage to make it happen. Why not, please, when we have already almost completely realized it?! Only a little more! The world, they say, is already diverse enough to be misled under one government. And don't we do every day to make all droningly? They say, in that unique of our world

America and its special role will disappear from the world . Of course she will! And why not, isn't it forbidden?! I'll tell you more about that later.

Then, they say, nation states are a reality. So what ? Aren't Huns and Avars, aren't Carthage and Etruria, were reality? They also talked about some Atlantis. And where is all that now? Someone swept it, just like we sweep involuntarily and the results are in front of us, visible to everyone - we are not inventing anything. And finally, they object to us that our vision of a single world is too tyrannical.

And what should it be? Remember, never enough terror and coercion; if it wasn't there, that beautiful world of ours would fall apart. Do we want that, is that why we create it?!

To master the world, we must embrace it in its entirety, in all its material and spiritual aspect dimensions. At the same time, our associations serve us or, as we like to call them, our levers. You know yourself, some consist exclusively of ours, and in some work our faithful goyim servants, who, when we squeeze them out, like an empty lemon peel, we will throw them in trash. The Kahal and the Sanhedrin, as you know, are all ours. We are everywhere. Furthermore, we covered with secret and public societies Earth ball. We practice world domination over United Nations (it's like our former League of Nations, but hers much more perfect copy!), which to someone maybe they can act as a company of cannibal cliques (a couple of decades ago that impression had particular justification), but even as such it is aimed to humiliation and the dispossession of the proud Goy politics. More important is that this society is unquestionably dominated by our temporary reserve Oasis- United States of America, which impose on them the spirit we need, and if that doesn't work, America acts alone, bypassing the UN.

In Europe, the matter has gone much further: the organs of the European Union supremacy (on the plantations of our Paneurope, that is The European Union, the Council of Europe, and a number of accompanying, associated, auxiliary instances...) are on the best path to beat the Goy people, forcing them to commit suicide conditions necessary for joining, in which they then finally disappear, by abolishing the border will be mixed, and by seducing of our dictatorship cliques, they will lose the last one remnants of sovereignty, and then and identity. And that, brothers, so that there is no confusion, this applies to both big and small , no difference! It's just that we deal with the little ones with short procedure, and we will still have to deal with the big ones.

Let me just mention, in no particular order, the most important levers that serve us in our holy task of destroying the world; you know them, of course, but it will not be bad to remind on them together, how we would have them all in mind in the next decision-making period: In addition they are UN and the EU, there is also NATO, which, in the present period, from a tool for maintaining bipolarity during time of communism, became our effective and meritorious global policeman; then Trilateral commission & Bilderberg, our pride, the brood of our most tested, elite personnel; then our proud B'nai B'rith & ADL

, our universal alliance, then Licra, the Council for foreign relations, World and American Congress Our, then our trusts the IMF, the World Bank and the World Trade Organization, all those wonderful guardians of ours that we destroy peoples, states and borders. And there are our heroes, the real ones heroes, like Wiesenthal and Zuroff, Bronfman, Wiesel and Soros, and legia of other of them, but I can't them all now mention; here, some of them, as you can see, are sitting today among us, And the fraternal Zion greeting to them Shalom! - You, therefore, our comrades, you who perform individually, and again with us and by our side and according to our instructions..., so our dear ones R&R...

MESUQE: I know who you mean, the Rockefellers and Rothschilds, and then there are the Roosevelts...

ZOROBABEL: Well shut up, you misfortune, let devil eat your tongue!

Did we say you to shut up?! Listen to me, children: Last but not least, let our venerable be mentioned:

Lions and Rotary brothers, who are especially vile and frivolous way, hiding behind our benevolent activity, they promote to the world our infernal base. As well as so -called Helsinki committees, and Amnesty international,

Euro-court for the so-called "human rights", OSCE, international tribunals, court in The Hague and those we are just preparing, Open and closed and secret and public societies, and the whole our dear and colorful underground. Let's add to that already mentioned English language, global TV such as CNN internet, hamburger, Coca-Cola, "Lewis" jeans, Yankee pop-culture in general, communications and immigration, which contribute unprecedentedly to the mixing of peoples and breeds, and there are factors and instruments to spare!

Through the coordinated action of all these our agencies and methods, we have already succeeded from this Earth to a large extent create a place of relative uniformity; of course, that the right is yet to come! Here, we have a common language: English, that contemporary Latin, since Esperanto, on pity, he failed; we have supranational military alliances and economic and financial centers, cultural and medial monopoly of our white world diaspora and our temporary reserve Oasis USA; we have global espionage and satellite surveillance of all media and communications.

Above all,

we have a system by which we direct global opinion, so that no one is allowed anymore, in fact, to think otherwise than what we tell him:

liberal, democratic, soft, restrained and self-deprecating, sotto voce (no raised tone, please!}, correctly, hermaphroditic and on the knees. And we lie to them how in the united world that there will be no more wars. Because, it will be in a world state civil wars, let it be slaughter and let them bleed. But we'll get to that, too we will abolish wars when we no longer need them. And then that peace of cemetery will appear: not for the sake of peace itself, but that we can rule in peace. And for those who don't want to shake off the Galilean, we came up with a lovely slogan: Jesus Christ - a globalist! And don't think that on that didn't stick countless of their "theologians", those third councilors and similar, our dear gang, about which the wise sage Antichrist spoke to us.

THE WISE MENS [chanting. Anti-Christ! Anti-Christ! Cheers, Long live the Antichrist!

ZOROBABEL: Yes, long live to him. Wise mens! There's something else on "A".

If you remember, on the first day I mentioned America, and today, as is customary, I marked her as our temporary and reserve Oasis. I owe you more explain in more detail what role we intended for that plutocratic empire. Many goyim that we didn't yet completely succeeded in brainwashing, they clearly perceive certain things alliance between us and America. It is known to everyone that a large number of our people live in America and represent there the supreme arbiter of good and evil, and a key factor of their policies. It is also known that, for this reason, America is the most loyal ally of Oasis, so Oasis can with peaceful soul to spit in America's face if she thinks that her does not sufficiently defend Oasis interests, and that nothing will happen: America will remain a loyal for us. We can do with America what no one else in the world can do.
It is therefore because our current interests are the same. We conquer the world, they they are conquering the world, and at the same time they are our extended hand.
With that, I have already said what is important. Namely, sometimes Our people, if they are ignorant, wonder are we just an American pendant (and even their creation). Not, we are not, as I said, we are exploiting them. For someone that can act as an inseparable amalgam (a chemical alloy of mercury and another metal), that is we and they, but I tell you, brothers, with full responsibility: the moment we no longer need America, we we will reject America like any other goyim sputum of this world, which we have destined for destruction and our dominance. America, as the only real one left force, and at the same time along with the Oasis, the only one completely sovereign state that still does a good job for us:

America as it is, extremely liberal and at the same time extreme totalitarian.

Think also on her punitive expeditions

- for our account! - in Afghanistan and Iraq, where she introduces so-called "democracy". America has shown herself to us the most faithful ally in both implementation and promotion Holo-religion around the world. And therefore, I can only name one of our mortal enemies, who wrote: »America is the modern continuation of Israel, and Americanism is always a form of Judaism."

Let's not forget, brothers, that we created them, not them vice versa. We ignited their liberation revolution, we wrote their sacred constitution. We gave them all the key state papers, and many of their presidents were our agents. Today, America is the real initiator of those world processes, whose goal is the destruction of the current world which we want it too: brothelization, zombification, decadence - spreading unstoppably from America to the world. Rule of mobs, chaos, multi-cults, mish-mash, melting pot, global imperialism - these are all healthy ingredients of Americas role in the world. And Ours are there on countless leading positions. We encourage it, we promote it, we approve of that.

So we are allies. America is a springboard for us

. But, if you understand me correctly, even that is only provisional (temporary administration in an area), agreement for the present moment. Neither will we allow them to overpower! I would say they are already close to historical limits of their power. Every force for the times, but this one only as long as we want. And America will have to fall through; perhaps her days, moreover, are numbered, and we will be godfathers of her death. You know, she can be destroyed by inciting racial, ethnic, social unrest, which anyway, they are smoldering and the only question is when they will erupt; or with an increased dose of terrorism; it can be woven into wars that, no matter how powerful she is, she will not win, like which she did not win the Vietnam War. That monster is vulnerable like a mastodont (extinct animal): bulky, sluggish, missing her elasticity. You still remember how we broke the American USSR twin brother! There are no significant differences! And therefore, when one other our mortal enemy today world order called the "Holy World Empire of the American nation", that was only to some extent, or - better said - only temporarily correct. Because, America is, to mention again that enemy of our from before, appeared overnight, and it can also disappear overnight. Exactly, everything depends only on our will, good or bad. America is very self-conscious and very arrogant, still always, more and more. You remember she named herself New Israel, the chosen people - it was on the mouth of one of their scribes. No, that's how it goes, brothers! But there is nothing easier than beating the Yankees when the time comes. And we are ready for it! Because cattle is there, especially there, childish, naive and stupid. If at all someone is not up to us, then it's the Americans.

WISE MENS: Down with America! Down there stupid, naive and childish America! America, you won't be long!

ZOROBABEL: Brother, those exclamations are still a bit much premature. Don't be afraid, we will evaluate it in time decide about America as well, as we have until now. No one is equal to us, don't worry! But here, I see that Supreme Sage waves his hand at me, it has expired time, today is the last session, the brothers are tired and impatient, but also happy to celebrate the festive ending of our sessions. So allow me just a few more closing words.

We've done a magnificent job. We are at our best way. So believe: in the end, the goyim people will capitulate by themselves and submit to our majesty; why euphemisms (in everyday speech when we want to avoid the word directly, for example instead of "he's drunk" we say "he's a little cheerful") :

glory to our horror rule! They will cry for her themselves, when we run over them. They themselves will ask for our King, David's offspring, as their so-called Savior falsely portrayed himself, and our renegade. Yes, it's always there danger for us that at the last moment goyim animal offspring in their people get on their feet (become stronger) to realization on what one Goy (I quoted him already) announced as "New Eon". It wasn't Ours, that one satanist, who used the same expression, but one of those - our renegade - who sided with the goyim, so now he dreams about some new world, from which will disappear every trace of our influence. But, we'll see...

MESUQE: Well, that's enough now! Enough!! I see you're at the end, at the end of your text and your strength. Well I don't want that you have last word...

ZOROBABEL: Why not! Wasn't I meant to be as the last speaker, and you have not been assigned any topic, because we know You well? Only the Supreme sage let you to live (piss on us) on the first day! And then you got a speech ban, but you didn't stick to it at all! And now you would usurp the final word?! Please, Supreme wise Abel, to take me under protection from this madman and a savage, because I can't deal with him alone!

ABEL: Come on, just talk. But don't wait any longer, you see we are celebrating and getting ready to leave!

ZOROBABEL: Here, in short, I wanted more to tell you what we plan to do, but...

ABEL: Well, we know all that. Enough of deliberation. Come on say what else you wanted, but quickly!

ZOROBABEL: Well, er, we have various misfortunes planned.

Soon we will be able to challenge precisely locate earthquakes, floods, hurricanes and fires. You can think how we will successfully use it against the goyim settlements. We will be able to pollute only certain parts of the environment, without casualties for the Oasis. We will create and also apply completely new diseases, with the proviso that the plagues will also be limited in scope and under our full supervision. We will master everything magical and occult powers, that around the world we imperceptibly do anything what we want. We will invent a method eternal youth for the realization of immortal life on Earth, in the beginning for the goyim, but to stay in the final phase forever alone in the world. We will endure goyim until we get tired of our second nature (second being) in the form of an enemy.

Or until they get bored of eternal life on earth, so they start resorting to mass suicides.

However, we will find a way to prevent them some of them from committing suicide.

In the meantime, we have more beautiful projects with them:

Their awareness should be influenced more strongly than it was until now. They should be crushed completely, softened, mislead, indoctrinated. They should be made total slaves, that in every true spirit, in genius, hero, a saint, a prophet - as long as there is still such one- they see madman, criminal, provocateur, enemy, whomever should be avoided so not to be misled by him on the path of goodness and beauty, truth

and justice. We will install in goyim chips (mark of the Beast!) to be able to follow them at any moment, inculcate and read their thoughts, feelings, decisions... And we will cross them with machines, creating useful, versatile cyborgs, as brother Zion told us. We will create new species of goyim, human and yet inhuman, so that we could used them and then destroy them. We'll made to be possible, and that Brother Zion already mentioned, that their men should be capable - and must! - give birth to children: you can imagine what a blow it will be to their male vanity and anti-feminism!

As you have heard, we are also considering the possibility the extinction of their men. Or maybe a woman, I don't know more... It might be better to create a unique world race of goyim with both sexes? Or a man without a gender?...

ABEL: Well, I think you're done. Come on brothers now - we're already at the end anyway – to our unfortunate misguided and simple brother, let him be happy, let him say what's on his heart, when we ignored him so hard, and interrupted during the past sessions!

Say what you want, but don't be too detailed, because we are tired, hungry and thirsty!

MESUQE: You can see that mine word will be last, not his! Thank you for giving me the word, Supreme Wise One!
I will not use your trust and grace, I just will briefly. My brother, brave Zionists! I am not a great speaker, some will say that I'm not particularly smart, but I am also a member of the famous society of the Wise Men of Zion, so don't underestimate me. And if I declare some foolishness, keep your anger and ridicule to yourself. Here's what I would be happy to tell you, and I am telling you: Brothers, I humbly think that what we did here is not good.

I see, you are looking forward, you are satisfied and proud, but I wonder aren't we with these plans of ours, which ones we realizing or maybe we will realize them, we ourselves signed the death penalty for us. Well, it's dangerous to have for enemies the whole world! We will bring a curse upon ourselves.
Not to mention that it's unfair to demolish and destroy him, as we are doing.
Apart from that it's unachievable, because you yourself guessed how the project provokes resistance and mobilizes for a counterattack. Indeed, we will unite the world, but not for our interests, but against us! We, brothers, are not the only factor in the world, by the way we wouldn't even want to finish him off. We made enemies, and now we have them. How do you intend to overcome the resistance which is growing, which will grow even more? Do you think that great Arab-Islamic world, Russia, China, Japan, maybe tomorrow Germany will wake up, to sit through all this arms crossed? May tomorrow strong and righteous Europe of sovereign nation states will not turn against our auxiliary Oasis, in order to throw of away her shameful yoke of Americanism? The world is rising, and you don't notice that, blinded by your infernal plans and temporary successes. But there is strength and beyond the conspiracy. There are conspirators and anti-conspirators.

Nothing could be heard in your speeches about that! You're just taking it easy, by the way, you mentioned "New Eon".. as if he doesn't represent to us supreme destruction. I don't know, but I think so far we have overpowered ourselves, we are proud, conceited and obnoxious. Infatuated with our partial victories so far, we also blindly believe in the final victory, for which there is none safe guarantee. You provoke, my brothers, irresponsible and thoughtless, here, I can already see how you eat kosher sandwiches and drink Zion sparkling wine, and you prepared a disaster for us, a cataclysm, ruin... You all are fools, not me. For you it's all about power, at the price of the truth and justice. That's why you are going to, carrying out only your will, lose power too. We judge ourselves, we will destroy ourselves...

The Sages are Mesuge's presentation mostly sovereign ignored. Only a solitary remark was heard:

fool, traitor, goyim... But she was also deafened by the penetrative cheering and singing.

ABEL: Here, my friend. You spoke. Are you happy now?

MESUQE: Not only that. I saved my soul.

THE WISE MENS (sing loudly, and only occasionally wistfully hums, more to himself):

To battle, to battle! For the world!

In the same we stayed hotel, we are rejoice to eating kosher... no one has what Sion has: cleverness, impudence, obstinacy, lots of hope...

(Here the notes about New Protocols of elders of Zion is ends.)
